IT WAS A FINE GAME

WASHINGTON AND LEE AND ROANOKE COLLEGE.

The Score Six to Four in Favor of the Former—Some Dashing Plays—No Fouling or Slugging—The Line-Up.

LEXINGTON, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—The Washington and Lee University and Roanoke College elevens met on the gridiron of the 'Varsity Athletic Grounds this afternoon, and a fine game was played by both elevens. The score was 6 to 4, in favor of 'Varsity.

After the ball had been in play two minutes, 'Varsity, by a fumble, got the ball, and by three headlong rushes sent Mitchell over the line for a touch-down; and Powell kicked a goal.

On the next kick-off by the college boys, 'Varsity worked the ball from her 10-yard line to the college 10-yard line, and lost on downs. 'Varsity again lost the ball on her 50-yard line by off-side play, and the college received twenty-five yards for the 'Varsity off-side play. G. Jones was sent around left end for a touch-down, but on a kick-out for trial for goal the ball changed hands, and no goal resulted. Time of play, 29 minutes.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half the ball was carried by first one side and then the other to their opponents' 20-yard line, where it would pass on downs, and, at the conclusion of the half the ball was in the centre of the field. Both teams played a fine defensive game, and appeared determined not to allow the score to be large. Duke's running and tackling were great, and he is the college's star player. The playing of Whitman, Harman, McIntire, G. Jones, and Claiborne for the college constituted the features of the game, while for 'Varsity Mitchell's end-plays and tackles were hard to equal.

Jenkins, Barclay, Dice, and Carlock, also Oberlin, deserve mention for their all-round playing.

One feature was that the game on the whole was entirely free of fouling and slugging.

Time of halves—25 and 20 minutes.

MADE HAPPY, INDEED.

The Donation to Bedford's Daughter of the Revolution.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—Not long since the name of the regent of the Old Dominion Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was ascertained through an inquiry in the Query column of the Dispatch, and a lady of this place addressed her a letter in behalf of an old lady—a genuine Daughter of the Revolution, Miss Arrena Redman—whose history was given some time since in this correspondence. The letter received a prompt and gracious response, and a promise of presenting the case of "Miss Arrena" to the first meeting of the organization. The Dispatch of Saturday contains an account of the proceedings of the meeting, and concludes with the statement that the appeal had been made, and received with ready sympathy. It was decided to constitute her "an honorary member of the chapter, and a sum of money was donated by the chapter for her support."

THE JOYOUS TIDINGS.

Sunday morning when a visit was made Miss Arrena by your correspondent, she was found very feeble, and greatly depressed; the burden of her dependence on one who is literally sharing with her the widow's mite, "all the living that she has," seemed weighing her down. No previous intimation had been given them that any effort for assistance had been made for the old lady, for fear disappointment might follow, as it was understood that the organization is not for benevolent purposes. When the story of the donation was told it was beautiful to see the wrinkled, time-seared face light with a joyous smile. With clasped hands and tears of gratitude streaming down her cheeks Miss Arrena expressed her thanks, and invoked all of the richest blessings of Heaven on her benefactors. No more raptured Te Deum ascended from any temple of worship that day than arose from the hearts of these two lonely women in their humble home.

This old lady, who is 93 years of age, and whose sands of life are steadily and surely ebbing out, has one valued possession, the relic of all that home, father, and mother, everything means to her—viz., the case of the fife which her father used throughout the war for independence. This, she says, must be sent, when she shall be no more, to these noble ladies, who have given comfort to her in her last days. She is worthy of their noble charity, which will be equally appreciated, be the donation much or little.

A large firm of Petersburg saw not long since a notice in the Dispatch of the fine apples of Bedford this season, and has ordered a car-load of the fruit to be shipped them at once—as a beginning, if they prove satisfactory. Mr. E. G. Abbott is making the collection, and will ship them in a short time.

A TELEPHONE LINE.

A franchise has been granted Mr. Charles L. Mosby for a telephone line by the Council. He proposes to secure fifty subscribers in the town to purchase the 'phones at a cost of $45 each, the entire line to become the property of the company without further cost, except running expense of the plant. The company who build the line expect to derive their profits from the sale of the 'phones. This system has proved a success elsewhere, and the 'phones have been used at an expense of only about $10 per year each.

Mrs. Grace Tunstall has returned from a lengthy visit to the Atlanta Exposition.

Rev. T. W. Jones returned from the session of the convocation at Staunton and occupied his pulpit morning and evening on Sunday.

Miss Edmonia Sale, who will sail shortly as a missionary to China, and Mr. S. H. Bibb have been appointed delegates to the convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, that meets in Richmond Wednesday.

DAVID'S SARSAPARILLA,

THE BEST

BLOOD PURIFIER.

For many years Mr. George Allen, of Goshen, Va., was afflicted with scrofulous sores and a most distressing enlargement of the glands of the neck. He spent hundreds of dollars with eminent physicians without benefit, and was at last induced to try Dr. David's Sarsaparilla. After taking three bottles the sores and enlargement disappeared, and he was entirely cured. He would have been but for the fact that his little daughter had inherited the scrofulous taint, and was in a most distressing condition, her face and neck being almost entirely covered with sores and her eyes nearly closed.

Thinking that what had cured him might benefit his daughter, he sent for another supply of the Sarsaparilla, and she began taking it according to directions. On March 19th we received the following letter:

Dear Sir,—My little girl is getting along splendidly. The medicine is curing her fast. I got another bottle at the store to-day. A new supply had just arrived, and they sold eight bottles as soon as it was opened.

Yours truly, GEORGE ALLEN,
Goshen, Va.

EMPORIA'S BUDGET.

Married in Atlanta—Off for the Exposition.

EMPORIA, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—Miss Nannie W. Wilson, of this town, and Mr. George Bruce were married in Atlanta, Ga., a few days since. Miss Wilson is a stepdaughter of our townsman, E. L. Turner, and Mr. Bruce is a civil engineer of prominence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce will reside in Texarkanna, Ark., for the present. A large party of our town people left for the exposition last night. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schwaitz, Misses Belle Cate and Mamie Jones, Captain John Lamb, Peter Jones, J. E. Baker, H. W. Hall, G. Jacobson, and E. Peyton Turner, Deputy Clerk of the Courts.

Mr. E. L. Turner, secretary, is busily engaged to-day sending out circulars announcing the third annual convention of Virginia Court Clerks, which assembles in your city December 31 at 12 o'clock noon.

Mr. Everett Waddey, of Richmond, was here to-day.

Captain D. R. Taylor remains critically ill.

CHARLOTTESVILLE NOTES.

Warrant for a Policeman—Selling Liquor to Minors.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, November 18.—(Special.)—A warrant has been issued for Policeman Stratton, the charge being the use of profane language. The warrant grew out of the arrest last evening by this officer of several students, who were engaged in celebrating what they supposed to be the arrival of the foot-ball team from Atlanta. The case will be called to-morrow morning in the Police Court.

The Corporation Court convened to-day, and disposed of several cases. There are yet about eighty-five cases on the docket, most of them involving charges of selling cigarettes and liquor to minors.

QUICK WORK.

Mrs. Bailey's Assailant Indicted on Two Counts.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—A special grand jury was summoned to-day, and in a very short while Daniel Lee, the negro identified as the man who murderously assaulted Mrs. L. B. Bailey last Thursday, was indicted on two counts—one for house-breaking and one for maliciously wounding with intent to kill.

The jury failed to find a true bill for attempted criminal assault, but there was ample evidence that Lee was the man wanted. He will be brought back here to-morrow from Staunton, where he was sent for safekeeping, and his trial will commence at once in the County Court.

New Lodge Good Templars.

ROBIUS, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—Pursuant to the application of thirty-four persons a lodge of Independent Order of Good-Templars has been organized here by Deputy-Grand-Chief-Templar Julius C. Hobson, of Richmond, assisted by Deputy-Grand-Chief-Templar F. B. Robertson. The officers are as follows: E. Felch, lodge deputy; Dr. T. M. Smith, chief templar; Miss Maggie Chapman, vice-templar; A. E. Felch, secretary; Miss Ella Turnley, assistant secretary; Mrs. Kate Sherman, treasurer; Mrs. Libbie Fraker, financial secretary; Mrs. Nellie D. Felch, acting past chief templar; Miss Ada M. Lipe, superintendent juvenile Templars; Mr. W. P. Flelet, chaplain; Miss Edith Jones, guard; Mr. George W. Fraker, sentinel; Mr. Charles W. Fraker, marshal; Miss Flora Little, assistant marshal.

After installing the officers Mr. Hobson surprised the lodge by refunding, as a donation, the charter-fee of $10, which had been paid him for the Grand Lodge. Stirring speeches were made by the installing officers and some of the members, and Misses Libbie Fraker, Ada Lipe, and Ella Turnley responded in a highly creditable manner, though somewhat reluctantly, to a totally unexpected request for recitations.

Death of an Old Citizen of Shenandoah.

WOODSTOCK, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—Dr. J. S. Irwin, an old and highly respected citizen of this place, died Saturday night about 11 o'clock, aged 78 years. Dr. Irwin was Clerk of the Circuit Court of Shenandoah county from 1865 to 1871. He was an excellent physician and surgeon, and had an extensive practice. He was a surgeon in the Union army during the late war. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Moonshiners Sentenced.

DANVILLE, VA., November 18.—(Special.)—Charles Boothe, William Via, Samuel Manning, and J. O. Kelly, of Franklin, and J. D. Lawson, of Patrick, all white men, convicted of illicit distilling, were sentenced this afternoon by Judge Paul, of the United States Court, to one year and one day's confinement in King's County Penitentiary at hard labor, and to pay a fine of $100 each. Court then adjourned.

A High Compliment.

(Lynchburg News.)

The Franklin Times-Democrat comes out warmly in favor of Hon. E. W. Saunders, the Democratic member of the Legislature from that county, as a candidate for Speaker of the next House of Representatives. It says of him:

We regard Mr. Saunders as one of the foremost young men of the State. His long service in the House as one of its leading members has made him a master of parliamentary law, and his absolute fairness, conservatism, and unimpeachable integrity would make him an honor to the distinguished position in that body, as he is already so conspicuously an honor to the House membership, to his constituency and to his State.

That is as high a compliment as perhaps any member of the House deserves.

Will Ask for His Pardon.

(Buchanan Banner.)

Mr. Frank G. Woodson, an attorney of Fincastle, will in a short time go to Richmond with a petition containing about 1,000 signers to ask Governor O'Ferrall to pardon William Gray, who last week was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for the murder of John Barton in July, 1892. The names upon this petition, we learn, are all representative men, who, knowing the circumstances surrounding this case, which are that Gray committed this crime in almost self-defence, freely signed it. Gray gave himself up to the Sheriff two years after the crime. We hope the Governor will give Mr. Woodson and the petition he has a careful consideration.

Saunders for Speaker.

(Danville Register.)

Hon. E. W. Saunders, of Franklin, has been mentioned as a suitable man for Speaker for the next House of Delegates. We second the motion. His natural ability and his long experience in the House eminently qualify him for the position.

JOHN OLIVER HOBBES

She Arrives in New York for a Brief Stay.

(New York Times, 18th.)

Mrs. Craigie (John Oliver Hobbes), the writer, was a passenger on the Campania, which arrived yesterday. She comes here, she says, for rest, and has no intention of doing any literary work. She has lately finished a new book, but would not say whether she had brought the manuscript with her to have it published here.

Mrs. Craigie will attend the production at Abbey's of her play, "Journeys End in Lovers' Meeting," in which Ellen Terry will play the leading role. She expects to return on the Campania after it has made another round voyage. She went to the Waldorf.

Mrs. Craigie is a typical English woman in manner. She has an attractive face, bright cheeks, and expressive eyes.

Marriage Announcement.

The marriage of Mr. Wilcox Jenkins, of Baltimore, and Miss Mary Beverly Chichester, daughter of Captain Arthur Mason Chichester, of Virginia, will take place December 11th, at "Ivon," the country-place of the Chichesters, in Loudoun county, Va. The bride and groom will make their future home in Wilmington, N. C.

WOMEN CAN KEEP STRONG AND WELL BY TAKING

Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

The advent of woman into new occupations brings a new era into her life. Heretofore she had only to encounter the strain of household duties. Broader fields bring to her increased burdens. Her naturally sensitive organism is subject to a new nervous tension. How does it affect her? It brings exhaustion to her nervous energies. It brings weakness and loss of vitality. It adds new dangers to her condition. What does it do to future generations? It robs them of the robust vitality and nervous force they ought to have. It starts them in life the weaker physically and mentally, the result of this condition of her nervous system, weakened and over-wrought as it is. It then becomes a vital subject of the welfare of the women—one to which the thoughtful are already giving attention, one of serious moment to all.

It is a duty each woman owes to herself and her children. Given only to household duties that burden, see to it that your over-worked nerves are righted and your exhausted strength regained. Don't delay a single hour. If you are a woman wage-earner in any occupation and are over-worked in the duties which weigh upon you, see to it that you keep your nervous force up to its proper standard, that you renew your strength and keep up your power to work. It means health and happiness to you; health for you to do your work, and happiness to make life worth living. Attend to it at once.

You have only to use the help nature has provided in that wonderful restorer of health and strength, that powerful invigorator of brain, nerve, and body, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Read what it did for Mrs. F. Cohen, of 153 Pacific street, Newark, N. J.

"I had been sick for three years," writes Mrs. Cohen, "weak, nervous, and run-down until I didn't care whether I lived or died. A friend of mine advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and it has made a new woman of me to-day. I had the rheumatism in one of my legs, and I could not rest at night until I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura, and I can truly say I am entirely cured. I feel twice as young, and all my friends say I don't look like the same person. Nervura has certainly done me a wonderful sight of good."

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 west Fourteenth street, New York city. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by any one, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

RIPANS TABULES

Miss Lucy W. Lewis, of Randolph, Mass., a well-known and highly respected lady, writes under date of January 22, 1895: "I can speak only in praise of 'Ripans Tabules.' I am troubled by what my physician has called Nervous Dyspepsia. My work, that of a school teacher, often brings on a state of intense nervousness, which prevents digestion, and results in severe headaches. I have found that by watching my feelings, and taking a Tabule with meals—as I feel myself becoming tired and nervous—I get relief at the time and prevent further trouble. I have derived much benefit during the time I have used them, and do not intend to be without them."

Ripans Tabules are sold by druggists, or by mail, if the price (50c. a box) is sent to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce street, New York. Sample vial, 10c.
