PRESSURE ON REED.

IT MAY BRING ABOUT GENERAL LEGISLATION AFTER ALL.

VIRGINIA OFFICE-SEEKERS.

They Are Again at Washington in Force—Bill for Relief of Isaac Davenport and Others—Personal and Postal Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—(Special.)—The belief is now gaining ground that the Speaker will be forced by the pressure being brought upon him by the Democrats, a faction of the Republicans, and leading business-men throughout the country, to appoint the regular committees, and take up general legislation. While the Democrats are not unanimous on this question, it is understood that Mr. Bailey and his followers will be induced to fall into line, and cease to support the do-nothing policy of Mr. Reed. Representatives McMillin, De Armond, Terry, and other Democratic leaders are strong advocates of the appointment of the committees, and urge the necessity of proceeding with other business of Congress besides the tariff and the appropriation bills. Representative Lamb and others of the Virginia delegation, are also strongly in favor of this course, on the ground that there are numerous interests of their constituents which demand immediate consideration.

Another influence in this direction, and quite a potent one, is that of numerous Republicans and others who insist that the country is more in need of financial than tariff legislation. They argue that the main issue of the last campaign was the money question, and that if the Republicans fail to pass the most liberal measures providing for the expansion of the currency, and more extended banking facilities, the party will certainly meet with defeat in 1898.

All of these influences will combine to compel Mr. Reed to abandon his present stubborn, do-nothing policy. The House will meet to-morrow, when the Indian appropriation bill will be taken up, and no doubt the question of appointing the committees will be introduced in some shape.

HIGH MUCKAMUCK BOWDEN.

The presence of National Committeeman Bowden has again thronged the lobbies of one or two of the hotels here with Virginia office-seekers. Mr. Bowden is understood, by virtue of his political position, to occupy much the same relation to the Virginia Republican congressmen and the defeated candidates, that a senator does to the representatives, and his influence will be paramount in deciding between rival applicants for post-offices and other positions. To-day, large delegations from New Market and other points in the Shenandoah Valley called on Mr. Bowden in the interest of would-be fourth-class postmasters, and he is kept very busy making decisions and visiting the departments to file applications.

Hon. S. Brown Allen, of Augusta county, who is slated by the State Executive Committee and Mr. Bowden for the marshalship of the Western District, made his first appearance here to-day, since the rush of pie-hunters commenced. Mr. Allen, however, is not pie-hunting for himself. He came to look after the appointment of several applicants for postmasterships, where removals for alleged cause have been made, and where vacancies exist. This alone is the object of his visit, as he feels confident of the marshalship when the term of Mr. Levy expires.

AFTER CONSULSHIPS.

Mr. George F. Mayers, of Stephens City, Frederick county, a Republican of only local reputation and very limited fame, is here to press his claims for the important post of Consul at Valparaiso.

The Hon. T. Spicer Curlett, of Lancaster, Va., an ex-member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and a statesman who is well known throughout the Commonwealth, is modestly applying for the consulship at Matanzas, Cuba, which is said to be quite a lucrative position. There is nothing small about Mr. Curlett. He wants the office for revenue, and for revenue only.

Hon. S. Brown Allen reinforced the endorsements of Miss Florence Fulton, for the postmastership at the Grottoes, and the appointment will be made May 5th.

Hon. Morgan Treat, of West Point, who is now said to be unopposed and safe fr the marshalship of the Eastern District, is here doing good missionary work in the fourth-class postmaster line. To-day he visited the department and secured the following appointments: Warren S. Timberlake, at Sweet Hall, King William county; John D. Turner, at Lanexa, New Kent county, and William H. Fox, at Foxden, New Kent county.

RICHMOND RELIEF BILL.

Representative Lamb to-day reintroduced a bill for the relief of Isaac Davenport and others of the city of Richmond, in which many citizens there and their families are interested. The amounts due these persons by the government have been reported by the Court of Claims, under the acts of March 3, 1883, and March 3, 1887, and will be pressed to payment whenever the committees are appointed and the House gets to work. The names and amounts are as follows:
