BUILDERS OF CARS.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT OLD POINT TO-DAY.

R'WAY AGE SPECIAL PASSES THROUGH

Large Number of Railroad-Men from the West Travel on a Handsome Train—The Richmond Delegation—Governor to Speak.

The "Railway Age Special," which was made up for the purpose of carrying delegates from the western cities to the convention of Car Builders, which will be called to order at Old Point Comfort this morning, passed through Richmond yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock.

The train was made up of one combine car, seven Wagner cars, one Pullman, and one dining car, and carried 178 delegates, among the number being Superintendents-of-Motive-Power Small, of the Southern Pacific; Schlacks, of the Denver and Rio Grande; Humphreys, of the Colorado Midland; Wilson, of the Chicago Rock Island; Lewis, of the C., B. and Q.; Bashnell, of the B., C., R. and N.; Peck, of the Western Indiana; Gilbraith, of the St. L., S. and W.; Oherin, of the M., K. and T.; Cory, of the C. H. and D.; Barr, of the C. M. and St. P.; Garstang, of the Big Four; Watts, of the C. J. and M.; Nettleton, of the K. C., F. S. and M.; Files, of the Lake Shore, and Bray, of the Lake Shore; Clifford, of the L. and N.; Parker and Kirby, of the Armour Refrigerator Company; Bowen, of the Swift Refrigerator Company; Hennessey, of the C. M. and St. P.; Killen, of the Bluff Line; Steinbruner, of the A. R. T. Company; Adair, of the L. and N.

PULLED BY No. 140.

From Richmond to Old Point the cars were pulled by Chesapeake and Ohio Engine No. 140, known as the Richmond compound locomotive, which was built in 1892. Engineer Saunders was at the throttle, and Conductor Herndon was in charge of the train. The train was run under the auspices of the "Railway Age" newspaper. Sections started from Chicago and St. Louis at noon on Sunday, and, travelling over the Big Four route, met at Indianapolis at 6:20 P. M. From that point the two sections were run as one over the same route to Cincinnati, where they were turned over to the Chesapeake and Ohio Company. The train picked up railway supply men and railway men all along the line.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM THIS CITY

Among the representatives of the various lines from Richmond who have gone to the convention are Mr. W. S. Morris, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, accompanied by his mother, sister, and daughter; Mr. W. F. La Bonta and wife, Chesapeake and Ohio; Mr. T. S. Lloyd and wife, Chesapeake and Ohio; Mr. W. H. Owens and wife, Southern; J. M. Holt and wife and two daughters, Southern; Mr. John O'Brien and wife, Richmond and Petersburg; Mr. Bryant, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, and Messrs. Trigg, Jones, Delaney, and Symington, of the Locomotive-Works.

Governor O'Ferrall left yesterday afternoon for Old Point. He will address the association this morning.

The Hotel Chamberlin will be used as headquarters during the convention, but both hotels will be fairly well filled by the delegates.

LOCOMOTIVE-WORKS WILL ENTERTAIN.

Next Saturday a special train will be run from Old Point to Richmond by the Locomotive-Works, for the entertainment of the delegates. The visitors will be shown through the shops, and dined afterwards.

The Locomotive-Works will have a large exhibit at Old Point. One of the features of the numerous exhibits to be made during the convention will be the Chesapeake and Ohio Air-Brake Construction-Car, No. 1000, which is being brought from Covington in charge of Air-Brake-Constructor Huntley. It arrived in Richmond at 7:30 o'clock last night, and was side-tracked at the car-sheds for cleaning. It will leave for Old Point between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A representation of the working of the air-brake, as applied to sixteen cars and an engine, may be seen in this car.

The regular train, No. 4, from Richmond to Old Point, over the Chesapeake and Ohio route, carried twenty-three passengers for the convention.

M'KINLEY'S SPECIAL TO NASHVILLE

Will Be the Finest Train Ever Run Over the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The McKinley special from Washington to Nashville will be the finest train that has ever been run over the Chesapeake and Ohio system. It will be of entire standard color, and made up of Chesapeake and Ohio vestibule combined car, No. 212; Chesapeake and Ohio vestibule sleeper "Salo," Chesapeake and Ohio compartment sleeper "Blenheim," Chesapeake and Ohio dining-car, No. 453, and President Ingalls's private car.

All the above cars have been completely overhauled in the Richmond, Huntington, and Wilmington shops, and were forwarded to Washington yesterday.

The President will occupy Mr. Ingalls's private car, the Cabinet ministers the combined sleeper, and the senators and representatives of the press the sleeper "Salo." The entire train will be run through to Nashville. It will leave Washington at noon on Wednesday, and arrive at Hot Springs at 7 P. M. the same day. It will leave Hot Springs on Thursday, and arrive in Nashville at 7:30 A. M. on Friday. From Louisville the train will travel over the Louisville and Nashville route.

Mr. Corey will accompany the special from Washington to Hot Springs, and Mr. Myrick, superintendent of cars, will go from Washington to Nashville.

The presidential party will return by the Southern railway route.

A Policeman's Relief Association.

There is talk among the police of the city of organizing an association something on the order of the Firemen's Relief Association, for the purpose of founding a fund for disabled officers. The recent brutal shooting of Officer Percy G. Minor by the negro youth, William Thomas, has caused this movement, which was really started, but died out some months ago, to be revived. The idea is to accumulate such a fund as to enable disabled policemen to retire on half pay. In some cities a certain percentage of all fines imposed upon offenders by police justices and paid into city treasuries are paid into a police association fund. It is proposed to start with a fund of $500. The name of the organization is to be the Policemen's Beneficial Association of the City of Richmond, and its object is the accumulation of a fund for the purpose of retiring members of the police force who have served twenty-five years consecutively, or who may be permanently disabled from performing regular police duty. In order to create a fund to begin the work, each officer will have to pay an entrance fee of $5.

Miss Rowlett to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rowlett have issued cards to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Gill, to Mr. Ashley Redford Sydnor, on Tuesday evening, June 15th, at 6:15 o'clock, in St. John's church.

Miss Rowlett, while spending her childhood in Chesterfield county, was educated in Richmond, and is now a lady just attaining womanhood. She has a host of friends, whom her accomplishments have attracted. She is visiting at present Mrs. H. V. Middleton, No. 203 east Franklin street, and will go to the church on the evening of her marriage from that lady's residence.

Mr. Sydnor was formerly in the Chesapeake and Ohio Company's general office in this city, but is now cashier of the Chesapeake and Ohio Company at Staunton, Va., where they will reside.

The Trade Sale.

It came like a shower of hope yesterday. Unexpected prices captured thousands of hearts, and goods of every kind went aflying. But there was want of space and want of enough storekeepers. It proved a very market of give-aways to those that could be waited on. Thousands did not. They can come to-day.

THE COHEN CO managers hold their public as their partners in all transactions, and to-day every article on sale yesterday (Monday) will MEET THE SAME PRICE-FATE.

This gathered stock reads almost like a book from Fairyland.
