COURT ORDERS.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND:

Richmond Cedar-Works, suing, &c., Plaintiff.

vs.

Guarantors' Liability-Indemnity Company, of Pennsylvania; Guarantors' Finance Company, of Philadelphia; Clay Kemble and Henry Clay, trustees; A. W. Harmon, Jr., Treasurer of the State of Virginia .....Defendants.

(Extract from Decree Entered April 11, 1898.)

* * * "It is adjudged, ordered, and decreed that the papers be referred to a master of this court, with directions to take the following accounts and make the following enquiries—that is to say:

"1. The said master is directed to enquire what bonds have been deposited by the Guarantors' Liability-Indemnity Company, of Pennsylvania, with the Treasurer of the State of Virginia under section 1271 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, showing the character of said bonds and their face and market values.

"2. Said master shall take an account of all claims for losses, equitable values, return premiums, or otherwise due under, in connection with, policies issued by the Guarantors' Liability-Indemnity Company, of Pennsylvania, to residents of Virginia, which are given a lien by section 1274 of the Code of Virginia upon said bonds so deposited with the Treasurer of Virginia as aforesaid.

"3. Said master shall also enquire what, if any, liens, other than those mentioned in the preceding section of this decree, are upon said bonds in the hands of the Treasurer of the State of Virginia, and shall ascertain the amounts and relative priorities of such liens.

"4. Said master shall also enquire what compensation shall be allowed the receiver for his services in this cause.

"5. Said master shall also enquire who is entitled to the surplus of said bonds, as to the surplus proceeds of the sale thereof, if any surplus there be, after the costs of this suit and the liens enforceable therein are satisfied and discharged.

"And said master is directed to take said accounts and make said enquiries, and report the same to the court at the earliest day practicable, together with any matter specially stated deemed pertinent by himself or which any party may require to be so stated, returning with his said report all depositions and other evidence taken before him in the execution of this decree. But said master shall not proceed to execute this decree until he shall have given notice of the time, place, and terms thereof by publication in some daily newspaper of the city of Richmond once a week for four successive weeks, which notice shall be in lieu of personal service upon the parties interested, or any of them."

Offices of Commissioner Jackson Guy, Nos. 5 and 9 Goddin Hall, Richmond, Va., April 14, 1898.

To the Parties to the Above Suit:

I have fixed on MONDAY, the 30th day of May, 1898, at 11 o'clock A. M. as the time and my offices aforesaid as the place for executing the decree of which the foregoing is an extract.

Given under my hand as commissioner in chancery of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond the day and year aforesaid. JACKSON GUY, Commissioner.

SPEAK FOR A MEDAL.

ORATOR'S CONTEST BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF VA. COLLEGES.

MR. D. S. BURLESON THE WINNER.

He Represents the University of Virginia, and Speaks on the "Destiny of the English-Speaking People"—All the Orations Creditable.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather, quite a large and appreciative audience gathered at Richmond College last evening to hear the representatives of the different colleges of the State as they took part in the intercollegiate contest for the orator's medal.

The platform was beautifully decorated with the colors of the different institutions represented, so that each orator, besides the encouraging smiles and expectant looks of the audience, had also the colors of his own institution floating over his head as an inspiration.

After the opening prayer by Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, Mr. O. L. Owens arose, and after a brief and appropriate welcome to the audience, introduced the first speaker, Mr. Richard A. Stewart, of Emory and Henry College, whose subject was, "The Merit of Endeavor." Mr. Stewart's oration showed careful preparation, and was well delivered, with much force and eloquence.

VIRGINIA AND VIRGINIANS.

The next speaker was Mr. G. P. Bagby, who recently bore off the palm of victory in the joint orators' contest at Richmond College. Mr. Bagby's subject was "Virginia and Virginians," and right well did he uphold the Old Dominion and her illustrious sons. Throughout his oration he spoke with that enthusiasm and feeling which must ever characterize the orator.

He was followed by Mr. Randolph R. Clayborne, from William and Mary, who had selected "The Power and Influence of Minorities" as his theme. Mr. Clayborne searched history, both sacred and profane, and brought forth numerous illustrations of the power of minorities.

The rostrum was next occupied by Mr. Charles F. Myers, of Washington and Lee, who had chosen as his subject, "Aaron Burr." The speaker portrayed in eloquent terms the character of this man. In a faithful and impartial review of Burr's life, the speaker set forth in clear and forceful language the greatness and the weakness which characterized this noted American.

DESTINY OF OUR PEOPLE.

The next speaker of the evening was Mr. D. S. Burleson, of the University of Virginia. He spoke on the "Destiny of the English-Speaking People." In choice language he told of their glorious past and of the bright prospects for a still more glorious future. Mr. Burleson's oration was exceedingly eloquent and inspiring.

The oration of Mr. S. McPherson Janney, of Randolph-Macon College, was "What For?" He proved most conclusively and in the most elegant and eloquent language that the men of mark of the world are the men who have an ideal purpose before them.

Mr. Barksdale Hamlett, of Hampden-Sidney College, in the most glowing terms eulogized "Literature—Our Greatest Heritage." By his utterances he clearly proved that he was well informed on both ancient and modern literature.

The last orator was Mr. Reford Bond, of Roanoke College. His subject was, "Individuality and Social Organization." In burning language he pictured what "individuality" had done, and in telling words told about some of the social evils of the day.

The Committee of Award consisted of Rev. Dr. M. D. Hoge, D. D. (chairman), Attorney-General A. J. Montague, and Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, D. D. They awarded and delivered the beautiful gold medal to Mr. D. S. Burleson, of the University of Virginia.

COFFEE

Coffee has well been termed the king of the breakfast table. Its presence is always accompanied by either pleasure or discontent. Like an egg, coffee is only acceptable when fresh and good. Poor coffee will not only spoil a good meal, but a good disposition as well. The crown of a banquet or the joy of a quick lunch is a cup of good coffee. No department in our store is more carefully guarded. Dry-roasted, fresh roasted daily, aroma, flavor, quality—these are our standards.

STOCKS SHOW LOSSES

STILL, THERE WERE ELEMENTS OF STRENGTH IN THE MARKET.

THE LAFAYETTE EPISODE.

This Has the Effect of Preventing Successful Absorption of Offerings. May Wheat a Shade Lower—Provisions Neglected.

NEW YORK, May 6.—There were striking elements of strength in to-day's stock market, notwithstanding the fact that most of the day's changes are on the side of losses. The bull sentiment had several severe drawbacks to contend with, and the selling pressure on the market was at times very heavy. Again and again the buying demand was sufficient to overcome all obstacles, and to absorb all offerings, carrying prices upward on a large volume of business. It was not until the final hour that the market finally succumbed to the burden of liquidation, yielded practically all the earlier gains, and established losses ranging up to 2 per cent. in some of the specialties. American stocks were heavy in London before the opening here, in sympathy with a general depression in that market.

The resumption of the gold import movement has been cited as a bull argument, but the withdrawals of gold from London and Europe have resulted in a renewal of stringent money conditions there. This in turn has weakened the speculative market, and has induced large selling of Americans, because of the good market for them existing here, and more particularly for the purpose of relieving the demand for exchange.

The indications are that the New York market would have successfully absorbed the offerings, had it not been for the development of the Lafayette episode, which caused some timidity amongst buyers.

BOND MARKET.

The bond market showed the effect of selling for London account in some of the speculative issues, as did the stock market. Otherwise, the tone was strong, and prices are generally higher. Total sales, $2,450,000. United States new 4's, registered, and the old 4's, coupon, advanced 1-2, and the new 4's (coupon), the old 4's (registered), and the 5's, 1-4 per cent. in the bid price. There were sales of the old 4's (registered) at an advance of 1 3-4 over the last sale.

The total sales of stocks were 490,300 shares, including Atchison (preferred), 17,391; Baltimore and Ohio, 9,450; Canada Southern, 9,600; Burlington, 24,227; Louisville and Nashville, 14,510; Manhattan, 17,475; Metropolitan railway, 6,390; Reading (first preferred), 16,595; Missouri Pacific, 13,650; New York Central, [illegible]; Northern Pacific, 6,403; do. preferred, 18,278; Reading, 7,270; Rock Island, 37,289; St. Paul, 40,650; Union Pacific (preferred), 45,145; Wabash (preferred), 8,885; American Tobacco, 43,532; People's Gas, 6,735; Sugar, 55,381; Tennessee Coal and Iron, 6,675.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.

Money on call firm at 2 1-2@2 3-4 per cent.; last loan at 2 1-2 per cent.; prime mercantile paper, 6@7 per cent.

Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.84@$4.84 1-4 for demand and $4.80 3-4@$4.81 for sixty days; posted rates, $4.81 1-2@$4.82 and $4.85@$4.85 1-2; commercial bills, $4.80@$4.80 1-2.

Silver certificates, 56@55 3-4; bar silver, 56; Mexican dollars, 45.

Government bonds strong; State bonds dull; railroad bonds irregular.

FOREIGN STOCK MARKETS.

The Evening Post's London financial cablegram says: The stock markets here were quiet and dull to-day. Consols were lower, on the temporarily dearer money, due to preparations for the indemnity payment by China to-morrow, and in consequence of which the market had to borrow about £3,000,000 from the Bank of England.

Americans were bought speculatively.

The announcement is made of a £5,000,000 Greek loan, guaranteed by England, France, and Russia.

I heard a rumor this evening late that the loan to the Transvaal Government had been definitely arranged.

The Spanish gold premium is 11-4 per cent.

BANK CLEARINGS.

The total bank clearings in the United States for the week were $1,176,728—per cent. increase, 10; exclusive of New York, $336,464,263—per cent. increase, 11.5.
