STOCKS IRREGULAR.

THE DAY'S MARKET SHOWS A FURTHER EXPANSION.

SIGNIFICANT POINTS OF STRENGTH.

Steel Shares All Heavily Bought, on Encouraging Trade Prospects, and Texas and Pacific is Advanced—Large Buying of Southern Railway and Louisville and Nashville, Which is Unexplained—Produce Markets.

NEW YORK, February 11.—To-day's stock market showed a further expansion, and great irregularity continued. The selling side was rather better represented than yesterday, but many important stocks took up the advance at new points. The disposition to take profits was very natural on the eve of a holiday. There was obviously some misgiving, also, among speculative buyers, lest the expectations of coming deals would not be realized. This was especially the case among the local traction stocks, where the glamor of the coming announcement of the Metropolitan Street Railway deal has suffered some decline. The anxiety on the subject was keener, as an announcement of the plan is thought possible over the holiday. Recent sanguine expectations of benefits to accrue to the express companies from some sort of consolidation suffered an eclipse, as shown by the sharp drop of 11-2 in United States Express, although the stock finally rallied 4 1-2.

POINTS OF STRENGTH.

The speculative assumption that last week's huge loan expansion represented syndicate preparations for deals was subjected to careful scrutiny to-day, and the opinion was developed that final operations already known might abundantly account for the increase in credits. There were, however, significant points of strength in the market. The Steel stocks were all very heavily bought, on encouraging trade prospects, but the United States Steel stocks met enough offerings at every slight advance. The late movement in Pennsylvania was regarded as an alternating movement with that in Southern Pacific, and due to operations by the same interest. Texas and Pacific was advanced on the strength of the increase in the yearly disbursement on the company's second incomes. There was large buying of Southern railway and Louisville and Nashville, and of a number of stocks of comparatively small capitalization, which was not explained. The buying of the Readings continued very large, but they showed the effect of profit-taking. The industrials, as a rule, outside of the Steel stocks and some of the Gas stocks, were inclined to heaviness. Amalgamated Copper showed a good recovery, but closed with a small net loss. The closing was active and irregular.

BOND BUSINESS LARGE.

Business in bonds continued large, and the price movement irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,640,000. United States new 4's advanced 1-8 per cent. on the last call.

The total sales for the day were 859,600 shares of stocks.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.

Money on call steady at 2@2 1-2 per cent.; prime mercantile paper, 4@4 1-2 per cent.

Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87 1-8 for demand and at $4.84 1-2@$4.84 5-8 for sixty days; posted rates, $4.85 1-2 and $4.88; commercial bills, $4.83 3-4@$4.84 3-4.

Bar silver, 55. Mexican dollars, 43 3-4.

Government bonds strong. State bonds weak. Railroad bonds irregular.

Spot cotton closed steady and ½c. higher; middling uplands, 8 11-16c.; middling Gulf, 8 15-16c.; sales, 1,328 bales.

The cotton market opened steady, with prices 2 to 3 points higher, and for the rest of the session continued to work almost steadily upward, on fitful demand from wary shorts and a re-entrance into the market of investors, who had sold out for profits on the recent sharp bulge. Most of the cotton sold came from longs, who had loaded up yesterday, and did not care to risk over the holiday developments of to-morrow. There was little upon which to base bear hopes, and a reaction from the forenoon advance seemed to be impossible, inasmuch as all news conspired to strengthen the inherent stability of the staple. The receipts of the day were larger than those of a year ago, but were offset by large clearances for export. Interior-town receipts were counterbalanced by tremendous shipments. The semi-weekly interior-town statement of the superintendent of the Cotton Exchange was also bullishly construed. Liverpool cables were considerably better than anticipated, and they give the market a healthy start. The South, New England spinners, and Wall Street were fairly active buyers from time to time during the day, and spot-cotton houses covered their hedges in March, made last fall against purchases of spot cotton in the South, which staple has recently been sold to exporters. An advance of ⅛c. in local spot cotton prices to the highest figures of the season was not without substantial effect upon the market. Taking the day as a whole, speculation was very active and general. The close was very steady, with prices net 9 to 13 points higher.

TIDINGS FROM DURHAM.

Death of Mrs. Susan Barksdale Tyree. A Remarkable Incident.

DURHAM, N. C., February 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susan Barksdale Tyree died Saturday in Washington, D. C., and was buried in Amherst county, Va., on yesterday. Three children are left to mourn their loss—Rev. W. C. Tyree, pastor of the First Baptist church, and B. L. Tyree, a merchant, both of this city, and Mrs. R. L. Molar, of Washington, at whose home she died.

Mr. James Parks, aged 92 years, died yesterday morning at Hillsboro', and was buried at 11:30 A. M. to-day by the Masonic Lodge, of which he had been an honored member for many years.

He reared a large family, and of his sons may be mentioned David C. and Charles M. Parks, who have been and are prominent citizens of Orange county.

Quite a remarkable incident is noted as occurring in Hayti, a colored section of Durham.

Kin Scott, aged about 95, and his wife, Frances, aged about 80, were both sick in the same bed, both died within a few moments of each other, and both were buried in the same grave, side by side, on Sunday. They were highly thought of, and led quiet lives.

A suit for $200 damages has been brought against Register-of-Deeds Suitt for issuing a license to a girl 15 years of age to be married to a man not 21 years old. Both were strangers to the Register, and they were represented to him as being of age.
