Notes of Society.

The Lee Camp Auxiliary desires to thank the friends who so kindly contributed to the baskets sent out on Christmas. The generous response enabled the organization to send turkeys or chickens in all baskets, which otherwise would not have been done, as the prices of these articles was so much in advance of that usually paid.

Lee Camp Auxiliary only appeals for outside help once a year, and that is on Christmas, and the response is always generous.

There were fifty-four baskets sent, and those helped were all families of Confederate soldiers, many having had fathers or brothers belonging to Lee Camp. By the generosity of Mr. P. H. Mayo, a member of Lee Camp, coal and wood were sent to many who were sick and destitute.

The regular monthly meeting of the Richmond Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held in Lee Camp Hall Wednesday, January 14th, at 4 o'clock. At this meeting annual dues will be paid. The dues of the Chapter members are so small that many forget them, yet with a membership of 500 the whole contributed to Confederate objects. It is hoped the members will all be present. Arrangements for the presentation of crosses of honor will be made. This will take place on the 19th.

The wedding of Miss Annie Martin McIntosh and Mr. Ernest Smallman which occurred on the afternoon of January 8th, at 3 o'clock, in the apartments of the bride's parents at "The Majestic," Atlanta, Ga., was a most beautiful affair. In the drawing-room, white roses and palms were used in profusion. The ceremony was performed before a mantel entirely hidden by masses of graceful palms, and clusters of roses were used in effective contrast against the green background.

In the other reception-rooms, white and green were used and silver candelabra holding tapers and shades of white gave light to the scene. The table in the drawing-room had as its central decoration a large pink satin slipper filled with pink roses. From the chandelier pink streamems and tulle were suspended, caught at each corner of the table with a bow of pink ribbon. The candelabra held pink tapers and shades and the mints were in the same color.

A wedding menu of two courses was served, the ice being pink in the shape of slippers and the cakes iced in pink. A renaissance cloth over pink covered the table.

The bride's gown was a lovely one and most becoming to her refined beauty, and although it was a trevilling gown of dark blue, it had been most wonderfully fashioned. It was of dark blue cloth, the skirts being made with three flared flounces bound in dark blue velvet and cut habit back with most decided flare at the bottom. The waist had bands of blue velvet meeting in the front in points. Upon this velvet were white kid squares outlined by tiny braid of blue and white. A touch of chiffon in the Persian shades of blue and white finished the collar. A hat to match was worn with this handsome gown, and she carried lilies of the valley made into a shower bouquet.

Mrs. Price Emerson Murray, Mrs. Jonn Hill, Mrs. Joseph Raine, Miss Lorena McIntosh, and Miss Lillian Smallman assisted in receiving the guests, and Miss Bessie Shaw served punch. The wedding was a very quiet affair as very few invitations were issued.

The Atlanta News says: "It is a source of regret that Mr. Smallman and his bride will not reside in this city, as after a wedding journey of several weeks they will be at home to their friends, at No. 115 east Franklin street, in Richmond, Va.

Among the out of town guests present at the marriage were Mrs. Spencer Buchanan, of Spencer, Va.; Mrs. Lina Cone, of Richmond, Va.; Judge Smallman and Miss Lillian Smallman, of McMinnville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Williams, of St. Louis; Mr. John Smallman, of Chattanooga; Mr. Charles Williams, of St. Louis, and Mr. Russell Minniece, of Tascaloosa, Ala.

The bride is a daughter of Colonel J. R. McIntosh, counsel for the Postal Telegraph Co., and the groom is a son of Judge M. D. Smallman, of Tennessee.

Miss Drewry, who is a very beautiful girl, has been one of the most admired of out-of-town visitors in the Monumental City. From four to six hundred invitations were sent out by Mrs. de Ford for her reception.

Coal and Wood-Yard

with large brick stable; also, Two Large Frame Dwellings of six rooms each, for rent or sale, on account of our large increase in business, and having a square of ground on west Clay street, on railroad. We wish to have track and dump on same and to concentrate all our capital and energy on this yard. Our Twenty-first street yard has a fine trade, and with a man of energy could make a fortune, or for a manufacturer. It has a front on Twenty-first street of 123 feet, with a depth of 102 feet. On Franklin 43 feet, and a depth of 155 feet. This is a first-class opportunity, as our only reason for selling is to put all our capital in our West-End yard. Apply to
