COUNCIL IN MANCHESTER

Telephone Franchise to Be Sold To-Night.

DOG LICENSES SECURED

Nothing New in the Fitzgerald Case. Will Probably Come Up Next Monday—Birthday Celebration—A Funeral and a Marriage.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The Common Council will meet in regular session to-night at 8 o'clock. At that time a quantity of routine business will be transacted, coming up from the committees.

One of the most important matters to come up will be the opening of the bids for the purchase of the telephone franchise. It is not expected that there will be any bidder other than the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The company owns all the telephone property here now, and it is not likely that others will bid, with all the expense that goes with such a franchise.

When the company gets this franchise, which will give the subscribers all the advantages and privileges that the Richmond subscribers receive, a large number of persons who are anxious to get telephonic connections will be accommodated. At present this cannot be done, as the company, under the ordinance, cannot extend its lines in this city.

DOG LICENSES.

A large number of citizens were reported for not having secured the dog license for the year. When they appeared before Mayor Maurice yesterday nearly all of them had in the meantime gotten out their tags. A few were fined.

The police will report others this week, and it will be a good thing for all who have not got out their licenses to do so at once, to avoid a fine.

NOTHING NEW.

There are no developments in the Fitzgerald case. Mr. Fitzgerald has not yet secured counsel. When the Corporation Court meets next Monday this case will probably be the first to be called, and Judge Clopton will designate some good lawyer to prosecute the case. Owing to his connection with the case before he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. Page will not prosecute.

PASSES FOUR-SCORE MARK.

Mr. Spencer T. Hancock, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Manchester, will celebrate his eightieth birthday to-day. He has been confined to his home since November, 1901, as the result of an accident, but his general health is good, and he keeps cheerful. He enjoys the visits of his friends as much as he did when in good health.

FUNERAL OF MISS FAHR.

The funeral of Miss Beale Fahr, daughter of Mr. A. W. Fahr, took place from the Bainbridge Street Church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the interment was in Maury Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. V. Baldy, and Captain F. W. Cunningham sang a solo.

The death of Miss Fahr is regretted by a large circle of friends, with whom she was very popular.

SNEAD—THAXTON.

Mrs. B. C. Thaxton, a prominent society lady of Manchester, was united to Mr. J. Charles Snead, a prosperous farmer of Halifax county, on Wednesday evening, October 7th. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, No. 1221 Perry Street, Manchester. The parlors were handsomely decorated with roses and potted ferns. After the ceremony there was a delightful reception given to her many friends.

Those present were Mrs. C. Snead, Mrs. G. Syzmore, Mrs. E. Wilkerson, of Midway; Mrs. S. P. Brooks, Mrs. C. Yates and the Misses Yates, Mrs. White, Mrs. Baldy, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. A. H. and J. H. Wilkerson, of Manchester; Miss Fedora Day, of Richmond; Messrs. Joseph Brooks, Willie Brooks, A. H. Wilkerson, of Manchester; Cornelius Griffen and Bernard Day, of Richmond.

The happy couple left on the north bound train for Washington, Baltimore and New York. They will be at home to their friends after October 15th.

UNITED STATES COURTS

Big Cases to Be Tried at Abingdon. Judge Waddill Sits.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ABINGDON, VA., Oct. 12.—Judge McDowell has been holding United States Court in this town since October 6th. The grand jury was discharged Saturday, having found sixty-two indictments, mostly for violation of internal revenue laws. Most of these and of the old docket have already been disposed of.

A negro from Pocahontas, named Davis, was convicted of making false claim for mileage, as a witness at a previous term of this court, and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.

Daniel Beckner, of Carroll county, was convicted of retailing liquor illegally, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

The two petit juries were adjourned to next week for the trial of numerous cases in the District Court, and in the Circuit Court.

The important case of King vs. Justus, et al, involving title to half a million acres of coal and timber lands in the three States of Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, cannot now be tried owing to the family illness of Surveyor Keal, who had been appointed to do the necessary supplemental surveying. During Judge Paul's term he decided the case in favor of the defendants. The case was appealed and this verdict reversed. In July last it was removed to Lynchburg for retrial, and the jury having disagreed, it was again removed to this court.

On Tuesday next the important case of George M. Seely vs. the New River Mineral Company, of Ivanhoe, Va., will be heard. This is a very interesting case, involving some fifteen thousand dollars in cash.

Judge Edmund Waddill last week held special term here and heard arguments in three important cases, in which Judge McDowell was incapacitated by his employment as counsel in them prior to his appointment as United States judge.

There are the chancery causes of Hagan and Campbell against Whitney, trustee, et al of Baltimore, and the same plaintiffs against Alexander Brown The case involves title to a large amount of valuable timber and coal lands in the county of Lee, and also the case of S F Chapan vs the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company, of Coal Grove, O. This case has been on the Abingdon docket for five or six years, awaiting the determination of the law branch of the case. Judge Waddill took the papers in these three cases with him to Richmond and will render his decision later. Judge Waddill made a fine impression on all who came in contact with him here. The clerk of the court, Mr. I. C. Fowler, has been quite unwell during court week, but is now rapidly recovering.

Mr. Daniel T. Mitchell is also quite unwell at his mother's residence at Abingdon.
