M'CARTHY PLAN WILL PREVAIL

Fruitless Special Session of the Common Council Held Last Night.

The question as to which one of the pending plans for settling the city's debt shall be adopted is the uppermost one in Council circles now, and last night a special session of the lower branch met and adjourned without taking any action, after considerable sparring between the two sides.

The body was called to order at 8:15 o'clock by President Bloomberg, and twenty-six members answered to their names. There was considerable opposition to the McCarthy plan for the debt settlement, and as it required twenty-four votes to adopt it, a call of the Council became necessary.

Mr. Pollock made the motion, after one to adjourn had been rejected, and General Anderson spoke warmly for its passage.

Mr. Pollock finally withdrew the motion for a call of the Council, and the body adjourned. The vote on the question of adjournment was ayes, 22; noes, 8; those voting "aye" for the most part favoring the McCarthy plan.

The matter will come up again at the regular meeting on Monday night, and the advocates of the McCarthy plan are confident of its passage. General Anderson and Mr. Pollock are leading the fight for the plan prepared by the city accountant, and the Crenshaw plan is in charge of Mr. Crenshaw, and he is being supported by Councilmen Hicks and Peters and President Bloomberg. Some warm times are expected Monday night, as those in charge of the McCarthy plan declare that they intend to force the issue and have the matter settled once for all.

When the vote was being taken on the question of adjournment last night, many members explained their votes. Mr. Morton, who is a warm advocate of the McCarthy plan, declared that he only voted "aye" because he realized that his side had not all their advocates present.

REGISTRARS MAY GET THEIR MONEY

The Committee on Police, Elections and Schools met last night and approved the accounts of the registrars who conducted the recent registration here, and those entitled to do so are requested to call upon the auditor to-day and receive their pay.
