PEACE TALK AIDS PRICES

All the Speculative Markets Move in Conformity With Cheerful Outlook.

HIGH LEVEL HARD TO HOLD

Supply of Money Fairly Abundant and Increasing Movement of Exchanges in South.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—There was general agreement to-day that the outlook for a peaceful adjustment of the Russo-Japanese dispute was distinctly more cheerful. All the speculative markets moved in conformity with this view, stocks and cotton advancing, and wheat showing a declining tendency. The movement in stocks was moderate and rather spotty, and there was obvious difficulty in holding the higher level of prices. The very general character of the upward movement in low grade stocks after the opening this morning was taken as an unpropitious development, owing to the suspicion of manipulative methods attaching to it and the common knowledge of the existence of stock market pools in many of the stocks affected. These pools have been quiescent during all the period of jealous conservation of money market resources. The supply of money is now fairly abundant, and is still increasing, the movement of exchanges at the South indicating that the return flow from that section is being added to the Western movement.

The lowering of the price of gold in the London markets shows the sense of security there against any further need for protecting the gold supply. An engagement of gold for import previously made was in fact cancelled to-day to the extent of $500,000.

The most substantial movement in the stock market was that in Pennsylvania. The stock was in demand in the loan crowd, and the industrious circulation of rumors that the differences with the Wabash party were being harmonized caused the shorts uneasiness.

The movement in the Wabash securities late in the day confirmed the restlessness of the shorts. The upward movement in these stocks was ineffectual to conceal the realizing in progress elsewhere, and the whole market yielded.

Amalgamated Copper was freely pressed for sale at the sacrifice of over a point in its price. Rock Island also yielded sharply in the late dealings, and the closing was easy with not much lost of the day's advances.

Bonds were firm and the market showed a broadening tendency. Total sales, par value, $3,025,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total sales of stocks to-day were 468,000 shares.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Close: Money on call easy 2 to 3 1-2 per cent.; closing bid, offered at 2 1-2. Time loans easy 4½ per cent. for all dates. Prime mercantile paper 5 to 6 1½. Commercial bills $4.81½ to $4.81 3-4. Bar silver 58 5-8. Mexican dollars 44 3-8.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 8@11 points, following cables considerably better than expected, with an impression that the disturbances there had been pretty well discounted. After the call there seemed to be a fair demand from scattering sources, including bull support and buying for Wall Street account.

Around mid-day March was selling at 13.88, May at 14.19 and July at 14.15, these represented net advances for the day on these positions of 31@35 points.

The advance attracted considerable profit-taking by early buyers, and in the afternoon the market ruled a little easier as the prices, which sagged off slightly. The list, however, was finally steady as to tone and net 10@28 points higher. Sales were estimated at 500,000 bales.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 36,792 bales against 46,232 last week and 43,943 last year. For the week 260,000 bales against 232,[illegible] last week and 225,476 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans were 13,29[illegible] bales against 17,766 last year, and at Houston 4,477 bales against 5,881 last year.

Cotton futures opened strong and closed steady:

Futures opened steady and prices were from 19@25 points higher than the close of Saturday. Soon after the opening liquidation became heavy, and this caused a recession of 7 and 8 points. On this decline there was heavy buying on the part of long[illegible], causing another upward turn. The advance was continued on a strong spot demand at advanced prices, reports of advances and heavy sales in the Eastern cloth markets and the general expectation that the receipts would soon show an alarming falling off. January opened at 13.55, declined 2 points and advanced to 13.70; March opened at 14.03, declined 4 points and advanced to 14.15; May opened at 14.35, declined six points and advanced to 14.47, and July opened at 14.58, declined 7 points and advanced to 14.72.
