REWARDS
—FOR—WANT-AD KNOWLEDGE

Our classified columns are a great clearing-house of human interests. Those who do not make a practice of reading them every day lose many valuable opportunities.

To further increase the interest in our classified columns we shall distribute

THREE PRIZES PER DAY.

We shall submit five questions each morning, the answers to which will be found in our columns of that day, and will give prizes as mentioned below to three persons who answer the questions correctly and send in the best articles of about twenty-five words on "Why I Read Advertisements."

Here is to-day's list of questions, the answers to which are to be found in our classified columns to-day:

1. Who advertises "To Deliver Trunks for 20c.?"
2. Who advertises "Fine Refrigerator and Extension Table for sale?"
3. Who advertises "Ton of Best Splint Coal for $5.50?"
4. Who advertises "To Buy Feather Beds on West Main Street?"
5. Who advertises "Clean Linen, Good Beds?"

CONDITIONS.

This contest is open to all except employes of The Times-Dispatch or members of their families.

Answers to each daily set of questions must be received by noon of the following day.

Write your answers to the questions on one side of the paper and your essay on the other, with your name and address.

Prize winners will be announced in these columns.

First Prize—Two tickets to Academy Wednesday night.
Second Prize—Fifty cents.
Third Prize—Fifty cents.

A PRIZE ARTICLE.

Tee-Dee Want Advertisements enables the unemployed to find work, the losers to recover their property, the house seeker a house and the bargain hunter a bargain.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

NORFOLK, VA., JAN. 22, 1904—MR. MELVILLE DANIELS, Richmond, Va. Dear Sir: I am more than agreeably surprised at the wonderful results I have received from your methods of Physical Culture and Deep Breathing. When I commenced it my normal chest measure was 29 inches and had only 1¾ inches chest expansion, was very delicate, had impure blood, and suffered a great deal with indigestion. After taking 18 lessons from you my normal chest measurement is 38 inches (a development of 9 inches) and my chest expansion a little over 7 inches (a gain of almost 6 inches). My skin eruption and indigestion has entirely disappeared, and I am now not only enjoying perfect health, but have strength and energy to spare. I can honestly and cheerfully recommend your methods to all and more than you claim. Wishing you every success, I am, Very gratefully yours, ERNEST C. WINTERS.
