EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Great Meeting to be Held in Birmingham Next Week.

MUCH INTEREST FELT HERE

Number of Richmond People, Including the Governor and Mrs. Montague, Will be There.

Great interest is being manifested here in the approaching session in Birmingham, Ala., of the Conference for Education in the South, held last year in Richmond.

All the meetings, which will begin Tuesday, April 26th, to continue through the evening of the following Thursday, will be held in the Jefferson Theatre, of Birmingham. The president of the conference, Mr. Robert C. Ogden, of New York, will attend on a special train, with a large and distinguished party of personal guests from the South and the North. This party will visit a number of educational institutions in the State. In addition to stops at Tuskegee and Calhoun, this party has accepted invitations to visit the State Normal College, at Troy, Ala.; the University of Alabama, at Tuscaloosa; and the Girls Industrial School, at Montevallo. Among the Richmonders who will attend the conference will be Governor and Mrs. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Bell B. Valentine, Mrs. Beverley R. Mumford, Mrs. E. R. Baldwin, Miss Ruth Montague, Miss Carrie Lee Campbell and possibly some others.

THE CONFERENCE.

At the opening session on the evening of Tuesday, the 26th, the conference will be called to order at 8 o'clock. The address of welcome will be delivered by the Hon. T. G. Bush, of Birmingham, on behalf of the mayor, the Board of Education and the reception committee. The response will be made by Mr. Robert C. Ogden, of New York, who will then deliver the annual address as president of the conference. The evening will close with an address by the Right Rev. C. B. Galloway, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mississippi. Bishop Galloway's subject will be "The South and the Negro." This address was originally assigned to the evening of the 27th, but as the distinguished speaker feared he could not attend on that evening, the change was made to the opening night.

The conference will again assemble in Jefferson Theatre on the morning of Wednesday, the 27th, and at 10 o'clock will take up the general subject of "Reports from the Field." This will be one of the most interesting sessions. Authorized speakers from many sections of the South will tell, in short, clear-cut addresses, of the educational conditions with which they have been dealing.

WELL KNOWN SPEAKERS.

Among these speakers are the Hon. S. A. Mynders, State superintendent of Education of Tennessee; Lawson B. Evans, Superintendent of Schools, Augusta, Ga.; the Hon. O. B. Martin, State Superintendent of Education of South Carolina; the Hon. T. W. Hill, State Superintendent of Education of Alabama; the Hon. J. A. Aswell, State Superintendent-elect for Louisiana; Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal College, North Carolina; Dr. H. B. Frissell, principal of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va.; Dr. Charles W. Dabney, president of the University of Tennessee; Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, Richmond, Va., and Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

On the afternoon of Wednesday the members of the conference will be accorded a reception by the ladies of Birmingham.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp the conference will be called to order again in Jefferson Theatre. There will be an address on "The Practical and the Literary in National Life," by C. Alphonso Smith, professor of English in the University of North Carolina; an address on "The Profit of Good Training," by Walter H. Page, editor of the World's Work, New York city. Mr. Page's subject is the economic, practical value of education to the individual and to society. The evening will be closed with an address entitled "Amelioratism," by Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

THE CLOSING DAY.

On the morning of Thursday, the 28th, the conference will meet again in the Jefferson Theatre at 10 o'clock sharp for the discussions of the closing day. The leading topic of this morning session will be that of "Local Taxation for Public Education." The discussion will be opened by Mr. H. O. Mürdez, of Marion, Ala. Mr. Murfee will be followed by the Hon. H. L. Whitfield, State Superintendent of Education for Mississippi. Addresses on the same general subject will then be made by the Hon. W. B. Hill, chancellor of the University of Georgia, and by the Hon. Sydney J. Bowie, member of Congress from the Fifth Alabama District.

On the afternoon of Thursday there will be a brief business session and probably a local excursion to some of the iron furnaces and other large industrial interests of the vicinity.

The conference closes with the meeting on Thursday evening. This session opens with an address by Dr. John Graham Brooks, of Cambridge, Mass., on "The North and the South in the Conference for Education." An address will follow from the Hon. A. J. Montague, Governor of Virginia, and perhaps from the Hon. N. C. Blanchard, Governor-elect of Louisiana. The closing address will then be delivered by the Right Rev. Davis Sessums, LL.D., Bishop of Louisiana. Bishop Sessums's subject will be "Some Impressions of the Conference."

FOR THE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Tickets on Sale To-day—Promise of Unequalled Attraction.

Tickets for the Spring Musical Festival, to be held in the Academy under the auspices of the Wednesday Club next Monday and Tuesday, will be on sale today at the offices of the club, No. 321 East Main Street. The seats for the three big concerts—Monday night, Tuesday matinee and night—may be secured there to-day only. This day is given as a special accommodation to the members of the club who desire to see that their friends are looked after in the matter of reservations.

To-morrow the sale will begin at the box office of the Academy.

The rehearsals are practically completed except for the rehearsals with the Boston Festival Orchestra.

"The Messiah's" production Monday night promises to prove one of the finest oratorio efforts ever made in the South. The choruses are singing splendidly, and the voices of the famous artists engaged for the solo parts will go to make the production of the great work very near the ideal.

The children's chorus for the afternoon of Tuesday, with the rest of the brilliant programme, promises finely.

MAY SAVE THEIR LANDS.

Delinquent Property Is Advertised for Sale on May 2d.

Delinquent Tax Collector T. C. Walford, Jr., has inserted in another column of this paper an advertisement for the sale of city property delinquent for taxes of 1903, and those who are thus delinquent would do well to look into the matter in order to save trouble and expense in connection with redemptions. Persons whose lands are advertised may reclaim them by calling on Mr. Walford and settling the taxes prior to the date of sale. If the property is allowed to be sold it is liable to get into the hands of the land-grabbers and put the owners to a great deal of trouble and expense.

List of Real Estate in the City of Richmond,

Delinquent For City Taxes for the Year 1903 to Be Sold at Public Auction

MAY 2, 1904,

AT THE BROAD-STREET FRONT OF THE CITY HALL.

In conformity with the ordinances of the city, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Broad Street front of the City Hall, between the hours of 10 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon of MONDAY, May 2, 1904 (that being the first day of the May term of the Hustings Court for the city of Richmond), the following REAL ESTATE in said city, delinquent for city taxes for the year 1903, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the taxes, assessments, interest, cost and charges due thereon, unless there be previously paid the taxes and assessments on same, with interest and penalty. Five per cent. penalty and interest from February 1, 1904, at 6 per cent. per annum, to be added.
