Social and Personal

Mrs. Gavin D'hi, now starring in the opera, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," under the stage name of Miss Alto Yolo, was, before her marriage, Miss Lillian Riely, of Winchester, Va., the daughter of the late Colonel William Riely, at one time editor of the Winchester Times.

The pretty Virginia vocalist who is very highly connected and well known here and elsewhere, in the State, appears in her present role wearing—not an 1830—but an 1865 costume with a big hoop skirt. Her gown is trimmed with flowers and ribbons and her hair is rolled back from her forehead and coiled low in plaited braids, giving her the appearance of a Confederat belle. Mrs. D'hi was formerly a soloist with Sousa's Band.

Betrothal Dinner.

The bethrothal of Miss Margaret Louise Wilson to Mr. Philip Francis Lee was announced Thursday evening at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whyte, of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Augustus S. Wilson, of Frederick, Md., but has made her home in Baltimore for the past several winters. She has not been in gay society on account of her mourning, but has been much admired for her beauty.

Mr. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus O'Donnell Lee, of Melvale, Md., and is connected with the Virginia family of that name. He is Governor of the Friday Assembly of Baltimore. The announcement is one of interest in Baltimore and Richmond society circles.

Beneath Virginia Skies.

Miss Georgie Tilman Snead, of Lynchburg, has written a romance entitled, "Beneath Virginia Skies," which is illustrated with photographs from life, three of these being taken from popular society people in Lynchburg and representing the hero, the heroine and a young lady, who is an important character in the book.

Miss Snead's book is said to be a work of much pathos and charm.

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof Charles Eliot Norton.

No. 171.

INSUFFICIENCY.

By MRS. BROWNING.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning was the most inspired of women poets. She was born March 6, 1806, in England, and died at Florence, Italy, June 29, 1861. She married the poet, Robert Browning, in 1846. After her marriage with him her powers as a poetess increased and her fame became world-wide. Her masterpiece of heart and feeling is the "Sonnets from the Portuguese," which is unequalled as a sonnet series in English literature except by that of Shakespeare.

HERE is no one beside thee and no one above thee,
Thou standest alone as the nightingale sings!
And my words that would praise thee are impotent things,
For none can express thee, though all should approve thee.
I love thee so, Dear, that I only can love thee.

Say, what can I do for thee? weary thee, grieve thee?
Lean on my shoulder, new burdens to add?
Weep my tears over thee, making thee sad?
O, hold me not—love me not! let me retrieve thee.
I love thee so, Dear, that I only can leave thee.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

SPORTS

On the Turf.

J. L. McGinnis secured Collector Jessup out of the Columbus Selling Stakes for $3,200. The colt was in to be sold for $1,600, but Trainer Jimmy McCormack refused to protect him beyond $3,200. Collector Jessup earned the distinction of being the highest priced Canadian bred horse in this country.

Jockey Otto Wonderly left this morning for Kansas City. He is engaged to ride Bell Curtis in the Kansas Derby today, but will return in time to ride Lux Casta in the Metropolitan Handicap. H. T. Griffin also goes on to see his colt perform.

It is said that Jockey Hicks will be engaged by either John Madden, or John Sanford before the season at Morris Park begins. At present Hicks is a trifle heavy, but he will get down to 110 pounds.

Metropole, a half brother to Collector Jessup, was a starter in the second race Wednesday and he carried the colors of Bookmaker "Eddie" Burke.

Jockey Cormack came near being killed Wednesday in the first race, when Cornelius Fellowes's colt Garrett Wilson went down on the turn. One of the horses landed on his hip, but fortunately the blow was a glancing one.

With the Athletes.

James E. Sullivan, the genial secretary of the A. A. U., is in St. Louis to attend the opening of the big fair. He will remain in the World's Fair town till the athletic fixtures are well under way, which will be about May 11th.

L. Robertson, of the Greater New York Irish A. A., is gleeful over the fact that the cinder path season is near at hand. During the past winter he was disqualified three times for wearing spiked shoes in armory floor races. He can now wear "tacks" in his shoes without being protested.

He will be a pretty slow athlete who fails to get to St. Louis this year. The big clubs will send full teams and the Metropolitan Association will pay the expenses of two men from each of the smaller clubs. Besides this, the fare to St. Louis is not very heavy.

The New York A. C. is preparing to send one of the biggest teams that ever strove for the honor of the Mercury Foot to the World's Fair games. N. Y. A. officials are alive to the fact that the West is likely to outshine the East this year.

James Sarsfield Mitchell, the veteran weight tosser, will do two notable things this season. He will compete in the Olympic games and get married.

Gets Long Term.

The Henrico Circuit Court adjourned for the term yesterday. Amelia Johnson was given eighteen years for being implicated in the murder of her infant grandchild.

MR. M'DOWELL HERE.

Will Have an Opening at His New Hotel on Monday.

Mr. W. C. McDowell, the old Richmond hotel man, now in Norfolk, running the Gladstone, was in the city yesterday. Mr. McDowell is well known here. His hotel has just been remodeled and refurnished, and forty rooms have been added, making it large and comfortable. There will be an opening on Monday.
