CHICAGO THEIR MEETING PLACE

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, May 25.—Joseph N. Crawford, Jr., of Philadelphia, journeyed from the East, and Miss Alice Christenson, of San Francisco, journeyed from the West. The two met in Chicago and were married to-day in St. Paul's, Kenwood.

The wedding was in a double sense a union of families. The parents and other members of the groom's family came with him to meet the bride; and the bride's parents and many relatives accompanied her on the journey to meet the groom.

Miss Christenson, now Mrs. Crawford, is the daughter of Andrew Christenson, manager of the Wells-Fargo Express Company's business in San Francisco.

Mr. Crawford is the son of Joseph N. Crawford, a prominent railroad official. Joseph N. Crawford, Jr., is a mechanical engineer, with business connection at Roanoke, Va. He could not leave his work for a period long enough to go to San Francisco, and so arrangements were made for a meeting and a wedding in Chicago.

The bride and groom left immediately after the wedding for the groom's home in Roanoke.

In a Few Words!

DO YOU WANT SUMMER BOARDERS? THEN ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES-DISPATCH. YOU WILL GET THEM.

There are lots of reasons. One is, that the people who want Summer Board, and are able to pay for it,

READ THE ADS. IN THE TIMES-DISPATCH.

WHO ARE THE MEN?

In The Times-Dispatch of last Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday were published the "cut-up" pictures of two prominent men of Richmond. The pictures were cut into small pieces and mixed together and about an equal number of the pieces were published on each of the three days. Some of the capital letters which spell their names are published to-day and the rest of them will be published to-morrow scattered among the Want Ads. in brackets, thus: (M.) Cut out the pieces, paste them together so as to form the portraits of the two gentlemen; look for the capital letters, which spell their names, cut out the Ads. containing the letters and paste them in proper order to spell the two names and then send the complete puzzle to The Times-Dispatch. There will be five prizes. The first will be a splendid carving set; the second a pretty mantel clock; the third two tickets to the Academy next week, and the fourth and fifth two tickets each to the Bijou next week.

All replies must be in The Times-Dispatch office by next Saturday at noon, and the winners will be announced in The Times-Dispatch next Sunday.

All correct answers will be placed in a basket and the winners drawn out by a disinterested person, blindfolded. The first answer drawn out will get the first prize, thus, in regular order until the five prizes be decided.
