Stocks Pick Up Considerably and Show Improvement Over Week-End Averages.

NEW HIGH RECORDS MADE

Animation Continued Until After Midday, When Tone of Market Became Heavy.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August 29.—Largely, it is believed, as a result of renewed manipulation, to-day's stock market recovered to an extent from the irregular tone manifested in the closing days of last week, and the trend of prices was upward, a number of the more active issues making new high records for the year. Trading was at times active, though moderate in volume, but the movement embraced a number of the minor and miscellaneous issues. Much of the day's news was calculated, if anything, further to depress prices. Advices from the West, however, indicated a steady expansion of railroad traffic and officials of the granger roads, almost without exception, reported a high favorable outlook as a result of the large crops. The proposed improvements on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road were regarded as helpful to New York Central and Pennsylvania, both issues exhibiting decided strength. The day's movements began with fractional gains in most of the active stocks on buying believed to be for a group of Western speculators. Gossip on the exchange credited this group with extensive purchases of United States Steel preferred on reports of improved conditions in the lake ore trade, but observers were inclined to regard the advance as another drive against the shorts. After some hesitation, in which traders seemed to be testing the list for a short sale, a more definite buying movement set in. Brokers who were prominent in last week's purchases of the minor Vanderbilt issues took fairly large blocks of New York Central. After midday the tone of the market became somewhat heavy with a marked reduction of operations. The list showed general recessions and some early gains, including that of Steel preferred were cancelled but the tone at the close was firm. Local monetary conditions were unchanged. It is apparent that the local banks have arranged to meet all drafts upon their reserves in connection with crop moving disbursements. The demand, it is authoritatively stated, will not exceed that of last year, except in some of the Southern and Middle Western States.

There were no changes in government bonds and railroad bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $3,030,000.

The total sales of stocks for the day were 694,400 shares.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—It was another active and irregular day in the cotton market with fluctuations rapid and violent, but showing general firmness and leaving the market at a good net gain. The opening was firm and better than due on the cables, which came much higher than expected and at advance of 9@17 points. Sellers of last week were evidently dismayed by the continued firmness of the English market and covered in volume, while there also appeared to be moderate bull support. New Orleans showed relative weakness early, but soon rallied in response to the firmness here, and before the end of the first hour September sold at 11.00 locally, October at 10.94, December at 10.86 and January at 10.86, or a general advance of 26@30 points. At this level offerings increased materially and prices gradually fell back with many intermediate spurts, due to continued covering, until they were a point or so under the opening figures. It was reported, however, that a certain local authority had about concluded a crop condition statement, placing the average around or slightly under 80 per cent., and the market in the afternoon had a sharp rally with Wall Street houses leading buyers. It was also reported that the South, which sold early, bought during the last hour.

Private advices from Liverpool indicated that the market there was influenced by good American buying, small stocks and the moderate movement. A recount of the Liverpool stocks shows a reduction of about 20,000 bales, including 3,000 bales of American, and this probably had something to do with the advance.

The weather as reflected by the day's reports was generally favorable, but seemed to have little effect on general sentiment.

Receipts at the ports to-day 12,670 bales against 4,141 last week and 944 last year; for the week 50,000 bales against 32,539 last week and 5,513 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans were 1,174 bales against 155 last year, and at Houston 4,912 bales against 88 last year.

Cotton futures opened strong and closed very steady:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Aug. 29.—COTTON—In the spot cotton market there was a good inquiry, but offerings were extremely limited. Sales 350 bales. Quotations unchanged.

Futures opened quiet with prices unchanged to 2 points up. Liverpool was hardly up to the expectations of American bulls at the time of the opening of the local market, but a few buying orders sent to the ring at the proper moment put short aide scalpers on the run and caused some fresh long buying. New York was strong and higher, and this market followed. Before the opening New York flooded the New Orleans ring with telegrams advising the purchase of cotton at the opening. The bulls followed this advice, as did the bears also to some extent. New York was a good buyer here. It was rather a featureless market. Prices were not boosted in a spectacular fashion, but went up easily. In the trading September opened 9 points higher at 10.83, sold up to 10.97 and eased off to 10.90. The market closed steady and within a point or two of the highest level of the day for all positions except August, which was 14 points net lower and near the price of spots. The other positions were 14@18 points higher.

Cotton futures steady: August, 11.10 bid; September, 10.90@10.91; October, 10.74@10.75; November, 10.72 bid; December, 10.74@10.75; January, 10.78@10.79; February, 10.83 bid; March, 10.89 bid.
