Viola Allen Secretly Weds Noted Turfman

Viola Allen, the actress, it has just leaked out, has been the secret bride of Peter Duryea, the Kentucky turfman, for more than five months. They were married in Louisville, Ky., on August 16th. According to the records of the county clerk's office in that city a license was issued to "P. Edward Duryea and V. Emily Allen." The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank W. Hardy, assistant rector of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church, and was witnessed by Mrs. Sarah G. Allen, mother of the actress, and America Wagner, the bride's colored maid.

Deputy County Clerk Paul Semonin was a personal friend of the horseman, and the suppressing of the issuing of a license was an easy matter. The record was torn from the bond book and not pasted back until such time as the eyes of newspaper men would be blinded by more recent events of a similar character.

Peter Duryea is one of the best known men in Kentucky, and has entertained many actresses.

Among his guests within the last year was Sarah Madden, who made him defendant in a sensational breach of promise suit for $50,000. Miss Madden alleges the turfman repeatedly promised to marry her, but Mr. Duryea denies that he ever made any such promise.

The case is on the calendar in the Supreme Court, New York, and will be reached in a few days. Miss Madden was at one time the frisky widow in Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown."

PRIEST ATTACKED BY AN ANGRY CROWD

Policemen Charged the Attackers and Finally Fired Into the Mob.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, February 11.—An attack by a crowd of angry Lithuanians to-day on the residence of Father Edward Stefanowicz resulted in the probably fatal shooting of John Tammalis and in the injury of a number of other men.

The assailants were all members of the church over which Father Stefanowicz presided. Dissension among the members of the congregation over the control of the church funds culminated in violence during the Sunday services. Women are said to have opened hostilities by hurling a missile at the priest.

Pursued by the worshippers, the priest retreated to his residence. There he was besieged for more than an hour. Policemen repeatedly charged the attacking crowd, who had armed themselves with clubs and stones, and succeeded in dispersing them only by firing into the crowd.

Tammalis was shot in the left groin. Alexander Bargias, another of the attacking party, suffered a bullet wound in the head. A score of other persons were injured with flying bricks and stones. Fifteen persons were arrested.

TRADE AGREEMENT WITH GERMANY ENDS SOON

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, February 11.—Considerable interest attaches, in view of the termination of the trade agreement with Germany on the first of March, to the fact that there is still in existence a treaty of peace and amity, made in 1828 between the United States and Prussia, under which it is contended the U. S. its imports, and has been accorded various has the right to demand the application of the German minimum tariff rates to its imports, as had been accorded various European countries. This treaty is recognized by the German Government and was assumed by it after the confederation of the old German States. If any relief for the United States is to be obtained from this source, however, it means the threshing over again of an old diplomatic controversy.

SEMI-FINAL ROUND IN PLAY FOR GOLD RACQUET

(By Associated Press.)

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., February 11.—The semi-final round in the play for the gold racquet at the Tuxedo Club to-day brought about the decisive defeat of Lawrence Waterbury, the national racquet champion, at the hands of Clarence H. Mackay, who is the present holder of the gold racquet, and who will meet Payne Whitney in the final to-morrow.

Play in the national squash championship also was narrowed down to the finalists, Reginald Fincke, the titleholder, and A. L. Devans, Jr., of the Harvard Club.

TURKO-RUSSIAN DISPUTE REMAINS UNSETTLED

(By Associated Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 11.—The Turco-Persian frontier dispute remains unsettled. The Persian Ambassador has demanded of the Port, the evacuation of Ishidjan by Turkish troops and compensation for the depredations by the Turkish cavalry. It is believed that the Turkish commission, which has arrived at the disputed territory, will recommend the withdrawal of the Turkish troops.

Fire Destroys Church.

(By Associated Press.)

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., February 11.—The Southside Baptist Church, one of the most handsome edifices in the city, was totally destroyed by fire to-night, shortly before midnight. The loss is estimated at $57,000; insurance, $20,000.

Rainy Day in California.

The present storm commenced here on the 11th of this month and at noon to-day the rain gauge registered 27 1-2 inches. Yesterday the rainfall was 7 1-2 inches and Tuesday, which so far has been the champion rainy day, the precipitation was 8 1-2 inches.—Stirling City Correspondence Chico Post.

PASTOR AND FLOCK ENGAGE IN A FIGHT

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PAUL, MINN., February 11.—Strife of several weeks' standing among the members of St. James African M. E. Church to-day broke into a struggle that laid two trustees and the pastor, Rev. Seymour, on the church floor at the close of a sermon on "Brotherly Love."

The preacher and those of the congregation friendly to him, engaged in a fight with those opposed to the pastor over the collection, and two of the trustees particularly opposed to the pastor and the preacher himself were knocked down before a riot call brought a patrol wagon full of policemen to quiet the combatants with threats of arrest.

Rev. Seymour has had trouble in his congregation for several weeks, but he refused to give up the pastorate, although unfriendly trustees voted to reduce his salary from $30 to $10 a month.
