PRICE REVERSAL ON STOCK MARKET

The Dealings Highly Professional and Rather Limited in Scope.

LIMIT OF MOVEMENT REACHED

Time Loans Reported Firm and Were Quotably Higher.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, February 27.—The reversal in the direction of prices to-day from that of yesterday does not alter the fact that the stock market was closely similar in character to that of yesterday. The dealings were highly professional and rather limited in scope, and developments having any actual bearing on values had very little to do with the operations. The retracing to-day of the course of yesterday seemed due largely to the fact that the available limits of the upward movement were reached, so far as professional operators dared to carry them. The news regarding prospects for the settlement of the labor controversy in the coal trade was more hopeful than that of yesterday. Reading, however, failed to hold its advantage on that score, and shared in the general decline. The Hill railroad stocks were conspicuously weak and moved very widely on the decline. Many rumors circulated of an alleged hitch in the much discussed plan for the sale of ore lands to the United States Steel Corporation. The price of copper was raised another fraction in this market, without availing to hold Amalgamated Copper against the downward tide of the market.

Time loans were reported firm and quotably higher. Interest was shown in the reported intention to close up the international mercantile marine underwriting syndicate, which has been extended from time to time to allow the marketing of the bonds, but which are to be distributed to the syndicate members at a loss on the underwriting estimated on the present market value of the securities at twelve per cent. The continued strength of the Wabash issues, in face of the general weakness, was due to rumors of a refunding bond issue and of an alleged plan for an outlet to New York. The closing tone was weak and at conspicuous losses for the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,510,000. United States threes and old fours advanced one-fourth per cent. on call, and the new fours declined one-fourth per cent. on call.

Total sales of stocks were 868,000 shares.

NEW YORK, February 27.—Money on call 4@5 per cent.; ruling rate, 4½; closing bid, 4½; offered, 5 per cent.

Time loans firm; 60 days, 5 1-4; 90 days, 5½; six months, 5@5 1-4.

Prime mercantile paper, 5@5 1-4; sterling excange easy, with actual business in bankers' bills at 486.20@486.25 for demand, and at 482.80@482.85 for sixty-day bills. Posted rates, 482½@484 and 487@487½. Commercial bills, 482 5-8. Bar silver, 66⅝. Mexican dollars, 51 5-8.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The cotton market was very quiet to-day, sales being estimated at only 175,000 bales. Prices were generally steady and the close was 2@29 points net higher. The opening was steady at an advance of 2@6 points, which was rather better than due on the showing of Liverpool futures, owing to the big spot business reported in the English market. Spot sales in Liverpool on Monday were 18,000 bales, and another 12,000 bales were reported to-day. Private advices from the South also reported a big spot demand at interior points with desirable grades sparingly offered, and it was rumored that a considerable block of the local stock had been sold to be officially reported as it was shipped out. In spite of these reports there was no outside demand, due in some measure perhaps to the fact that New Orleans was closed for the Mardi Gras festival, and shortly after the opening local bears attacked the market, forcing prices off 3 or 4 points in the hope of finding stop orders. There was no liquidation of consequence, however, and the market rallied toward mid-day on covering and trade demand, ruling generally steady in the afternoon and closing steady within 2 or 3 points of the top. Southern spot markets were unchanged, according to official reports.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 17,125 bales against 28,880 last week and 53,383 last year. For the week 120,000 bales against 143,303 last week and 160,667 last year. To-day's receipts at Houston 7,810 bales against 13,149 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed quiet and steady.

Lynchburg Tobacco Market.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 27, 1906.

Sales of loose tobacco on the Lynchburg market for the two weeks ending February 23d, as reported by John L. Oglesby, of Lynch's Warehouse, are as follows:

Sold week ending February 16th, 551,300 pounds; sold week ending February 23d, 612,300 pounds; increase for the week ending February 23d, 111,000 pounds.

Sold from September 1, 1905, to February 23, 1906, 10,763,800 pounds; sold from September 1, 1904, to February 23, 1905, 8,355,200 pounds; increase for 1906, 2,408,600 pounds.

The quantity of tobacco offered was about the same as for the past three weeks. The quality and condition was fairly good. The trade was quite active during the week, and prices were rather better than for the past few weeks. As the weather is more favorable for farm work, and the planters are busy preparing for their next crop, therefore, it is probable receipts will be lighter for the next few weeks.

The quotations are as follows:

Lugs, damaged	$ 4.00	@$	5.00
Lugs, medium	5.00	@	6.00
Lugs, good	6.00	@	7.00
Leaf, medium	7.00	@	8.00
Leaf, short	7.50	@	9.00
Leaf, good	9.00	@	11.00
Leaf, fine	12.50	@	16.00
Leaf, wrappers	16.00	@	25.00

Petersburg Tobacco Market.

(As Reported by Craddock-Jones, Virginia Warehouse.)

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 27, 1906.

Receipts more liberal the past week, and market decidedly more active on all grades. We note especially a stronger demand for common lugs than any week of the season.

The quotations are as follows:

Common lugs	$ 5.50	@$	6.50
Good lugs	7.00	@	8.00
Short leaf	7.00	@	9.00
Common shipping leaf	8.00	@	10.00
Fine shipping leaf	11.00	@	12.00
Short wrappers	10.00	@	15.00
Fine wrappers	16.00	@	20.00

Danville Tobacco Market.

(As Reported by Dibrell Brothers.)

Danville, Va., Feb. 27, 1906.

Sales have been rather light this week and the offerings have been of about the same character as those for the past six weeks. Prices continue firm and show a slightly perceptible advance over last week. The market shows more activity and the buyers seem more anxious than at any time in many months. All classes of buyers are on the market in full force—the brokers, manufacturers and the dealers. The hogshead market also continues active and many round lots, considering the small stocks held, have changed hands since our last report. There is also somewhat more activity in common and medium and wrappers, which have been slow of sale at low prices for some months past.
