BEAR RAID SENDS LIST TO BOTTOM

Indiscriminate Throwing Over of Large Holdings for What They Would Bring.

MONEY STILL RULING HIGH

Government Bulletin on Winter Wheat Crop a Great Surprise.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK April 10.—Stocks became decidedly weak to-day under wha appeared to be a raid of organized bear party in the speculation. The continued stringency of money has been viewed with considerable equanimity by speculative holders of stocks so long as prices held pretty steady, or showed occasional signs of advances, keeping up speculative confidences that there would be an ultimate rise affording a profit of holdings sufficient to cover interest charges even at the high prevailing rates. But with prices started decisively downward sentiment underwent a marked alteration. It was evident that the fear of such a movement had prompted the placing of large stop-loss orders below the market. Once the raiding tactics of the bear party had succeeded in forcing prices down to the figures at which these stop-loss orders came into effect, there was quite indiscriminate selling and throwing over of large holdings for what they would bring. The market showed more acute weakness than at any time for several weeks.

A decided effect seemed to be produced on sentiment also by the government estimate of the condition on April 1st of the winter wheat crop. The condition was poorer than had been hoped for, and the decided strength, resulting in the wheat market, dashed the sanguine confidence that has been felt in the promising outlook for the crop.

There was little change in the money situation, the renewal rate being generally held at 20 per cent. While the rate yielded early to below that figure, it recovered later to above it, and touched 25 per cent. again.

At one time during the morning the stock market was quite generally strong. Reading was advanced on talk of some compromise of the coal mining dispute. Amalgamated Copper responded to gossip of a prospective dividend increase. But these stocks afterward were among the weakest of the list, with corresponding effect on the reversal of sentiment. The professional character of a part of the selling was indicated by the demand to cover shorts, which caused some recovery, so that last prices were not at the lowest of the day, although the closing tone was unsettled and irregular again. Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $2,200,000.

United States old 4's coupon declined 1-2 per cent, on call.

The total sales of stocks amounted to 1,043,700 shares.

BALTIMORE STOCK MARKET.

BALTIMORE, MD., April 10.—Seaboard Air Line, common and preferred—Nothing doing.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The cotton market was more active yesterday and reached new high prices for the bull movement on aggressive support and covering. The close was steady at a net advance of 6@14 points. Sales for the day were reported of 250,000 bales.

The market opened firm at an advance of 5@8 points in response to high cables and bullish private advices from Liverpool. Prices worked a little higher immediately after the call on clique buying, demand for May from spot interests and covering, but the offerings became much heavier around 11.30 for May and 11.22 for July, or even with the big hpoint of last month, and the market eased off a few points toward midday, when trading also became less active, and it is was evidently the disposition among local traders to await the showing of the first weekly review of the Weather Bureau for the season. This was published at noon and proved rather more bearish than otherwise, but had no appreciable effect on the market, which rallied sharply in the late trading and sold at the highest figures of the movement just before the close. Final prices were within a point or two of the top. Private cables from Liverpool reported Europe buying all the cotton offered and English spot sales were 10,000 bales at an advance of 3 points. Weather advices were considered favorable on the average and were reflected in the comparative easiness of the new crop. Southern spot markets were unchanged to ⅛c. higher.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 26,967 bales against 22,197 last week and 41,163 last year. For the week (estimated) 95,000 bales against 110,332 last week and 117,156 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 7,676 bales against 11,861 last year, and at Houston 5,668 bales against 8,450 last year.

Cotton futures opened firm and closed steady.

Produce Market.

The receipts of country produce have been light for a week past, but showed some increase Monday and Tuesday as compared with receipts for a week previous. Vegetables from the far South are coming in with greater volume than last week, and as a result cabbage, lettuce, tomatoes, cymblings and early potatoes are a shade lower on the market than they were last week. As the Easter days draw nigh eggs get higher. They went a cent to a cent and a half higher yesterday. Chickens are also well up on the pictures. A few spring chickens have made their appearance on the market, but they are high, very high, going at about 28 cents per pound, or about 37 cents per chicken.

Leaf Tobacco Market.

The sales of leaf tobacco were large enough last week, but the outlook is not favorable for heavy breaks this week. The opening sales yesterday morning were hardly up to the expectations of the warehousemen, being barely 100,000 pounds. The explanation is that the good weather, gives the farmers the long-wished for opportunity to do farm work, and they are taking advantage of it by plowing and seeding and planting. This kind of work takes the place for the present of coming to market. The market has been firm for a week past with all the better grades in very active demand. It is believed that there is, comparatively speaking, very little stock remaining in first hands, but what there is remaining is of the better grades.

Lively on Coast.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—Things are getting lively in the fight game. Abe Attell, with Matt O'Keefe, arrived yesterday from New York, and Willie Britt dropped in from San Francisco to prpeare for Jimmy's coming.

Herrera, Battling Nelson and Billy Nolan have been here for several days, and Kid Herrmann passed through El Paso to-day en route to the land of sunshine and prize fights. He reaches here this evening.

In a short time all six fighters will be busy getting in shape for their respective goes. Frank Nell is already hard at it in San Francisco, and Attell, who is always in fair condition, will get down to training at once. Nell has not appeared in Los Angeles for many months, but fight fans remember the remarkably clever exhibition furnished by the "Native Son" and Reagan in the old pavilion.

Moody and Walsh.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—Willie Moody, the clever Port Richmond bantam, made a good showing against Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, former champion of that class, whom he met in the wind-up at the Washington Sporting Club last night. Notwithstanding the stormy weather there was a big crowd present. Moody's friends making up the bulk of the audience.

CARNEGIE'S OFFER.

Will Give Blackstone Female Institute a Nice Offering.

After correspondence exceeding over several weeks, Mr. Andrew Carnegie has offered $12,500 to the Blackstone Female Institute on condition that the friends of the institute will raise $32,500 additional. The money would be used to erect a large wing on the west end of the present building, in which would be erected a large music hall, library, gymnasium, and about forty bed rooms. This addition would not only give more room in the boarding department, but it would also add greatly to the facilities of the school in the music, literary and physical culture departments. The money over and above the amount necessary to erect this new building will be used to pay the bonded and floating debt of the institute. Mr. Carnegie makes that a condition of his gift. President Cannon has begun work to raise the $32,500.

Rev. Alexis W. Stein has been chosen the new chaplain of Columbia University in place of Rev. R. C. Vanderwater, who resigned about a year ago.

COTTON.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The measure of the demand of cotton at present is the measure of the supply. Under such circumstances, I continue to believe a sensational advance in the market inevitable and impending. The absolute simplicity of the situation is the only reason why its bullish aspect does not find wider speculative recognition. The speculative imagination seems to subsist on something more complex, but the good trade and the relatively small supply are elementary factors that are unmistakable and constantly procuring wider and wider recognition from spinners.
