"Happy" Eckstone was the candy that delivered a large round set of eggs to the erstwhile bunch of ball tossers from Danville yesterday afternoon at Broad Street Park, in a very slow and at times uninteresting game. At no time were the Tobacconists in the limelight. Although they managed to get six hits to their credit, they all came in separate innings, and when they were of no avail. With the exception of Anthony's error in muffing a high fly in the ninth inning, the Lawmakers put up an errorless game.

Charters, the Manchester spit-ball artist, was the slabman for the Tobacconists, and with the exception of the third inning, when Richmond bunched three hits, which, aided by two costly errors, allowed three runs to cross over, pitched a good game.

Richmond started the run-making in the first inning, when, with two bases on balls and a wild throw of an easy sacrifice by Charters over the first baseman's head, he allowed Sapp to score and Reeve to get to third, scoring a moment later on Shaffer's out to left. Not a hit was made in this inning, although two runs came over.

In the third Richmond scored three runs on three hits and errors by Charters and Benny.

Shut Off the Hits.

After the third inning Charters settled down, and with the exception of Shaffer's pretty drive to deep left-center for three bases, not another hit was secured off his delivery, only sixteen men facing him in the last five innings. Eckstone held his own at critical times, and by headwork pulled himself straight when a hit would have meant a run. Only once did a Danvillian get to third base. That was in the second inning, when Eckstone deliberately walked Benny to get a whack at Charters, a pitcher always being considered weak in the hitting line.

Fetzer and Doyle were on third and second, and a hit would have scored them, but the best Charters could do was to pop up to Hinton, retiring the side and losing their best opportunity to score.

The game was featureless, the only play worthy of mention being a double from Anthony to Reeve in the ninth. After having dropped Benny's fly, Benny going to second on the error, Anthony made a pretty catch of Rickard's fly and doubled Benny up off second.

TOO MUCH WRANGLING.

First Game of Present Series Goes to Lynchburg Easily.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 28.—In a game which was almost devoid of fielding features, Lynchburg defeated the Roanoke team in the opening game of the series this afternoon, an opportune triple by McKevitt winning the contest for the locals by the score of 5 to 2 in the seventh inning. Reiss pitched a masterly game, and, but for the home run of Watson in the sixth, the visitors would have been shut out. In the remainder of the game he had them at his mercy. The visitors complained much on account of the judgment of the umpire on strikes and balls, and that they got the worst of it was the impression of many. In the second Lanham was benched, and then ordered from the grounds for kicking. In the fifth Kelly sent West out of the game because he did not run on four balls, which passed Bentley several yards, calling him names that made the occupants of the press gallery nearby blush. The game was long drawn out on account of the wrangling of the visiting team. The score:

W. H. Savage, of Harvard, Mass., is a veteran wheelman and it is doubtful if there is a bicyclist of his age in the United States, who has covered more ground in the many years he has ridden, and who has retained his activity to so remarkable an extent, after he has passed far beyond the three score years and ten that are the allotted age of man.

Mr. Savage is seventy-five years old, but his muscles are hard and firm, his step is sure and he jumps on his bicycle and rides away with much of the agility of youth. June 12th he rode from his Harvard home to Hartford, Conn.

NORFOLK BEATEN AGAIN.

Goes Down Before Truckers in a Slow Pitchers' Battle.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PORTSMOUTH, VA., June 28.—Norfolk continued her downward path this afternoon, when she succumbed to defeat at the hands of the Truckers by the score of 3 to 1. It was a slow pitchers' battle, with odds in favor of Revell against Leonard. Neither pitcher was hit heavy, Norfolk getting four hits and the Truckers five.

After the sixth inning the final result was never in doubt, Norfolk being unable to connect safely with the ball. Four hits and two free passes allowed the visitors were widely scattered. The only run credited to Norfolk was made on a single by McMahon, followed by a double by Clarke, after two men had been retired, in the fifth. Leonard was touched up for five hits, and gave three free passes, which, added to the four errors made by the men behind him, netted the Truckers three runs. The score:

GAME TO THE LAST.

Jere Dunn Refuses to Submit to Operation and Dies.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—When Broadway heard the news of Jere Dunn's death yesterday there were those who expressed genuine sorrow and those whose sentiments were the reverse, but all agreed that a "game man," as they know one, was gone. "He was square, too," they added, "square according to their code of ethics, for his word was better than a bond and he never deceived a friend. That was his epitaph, and as Broadway knows such things there could not be one much better chiselled on a gravestone.

Jere Dunn would not be dead now perhaps if he had not applied one of the maxims of the gambler to his own case. He was afflicted with a cancer which closed his oesophagus, making it impossible for him to take nourishment. He virtually starved to death.

Six months ago when the doctors first discovered the cancer they suggested an operation, the outcome of which would be doubtful because of its delicacy. "Does it mean a cure?" asked Dunn. "No," was the answer, "we are afraid that the growth would soon return." "What's the use," was the characteristic decision. "I am up against a losing game. You say I can't possibly win out. I guess I will cash in on this deal." And he has.

ENTERS PROTEST.

Squabble Over Rich Purse in Suburban Handicap.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—Francis R. Hitchcock, owner of Dandelion, which ran second in the Suburban Handicap last Thursday, has filed with the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club a protest, in which he says that "Alex" Shields's Go Between, the horse which won the big race, is not a gelding, but is a stallion.

Go Between has been for four years, or during nearly his entire career, upon the turf, described as a gelding, the necessary operation having been performed when he was a two-year-old. It is now asserted that the operation was not completed and that Go Between is a "ridgeling," a term well understood by racing men. It was proved many years ago that a ridgeling can reproduce, and if Go Between really is as alleged by Mr. Hitchcock his case is won, according to many turf experts.

LONG SHOT WINS, BREAKING RECORD

Terrific Drive Lands Inquisitor in Front for Sheepshead Handicap Money.

THE BETTING RING HARD HIT

Captain Emerich Walked Away With Umbrella and Core in Fifth Race.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—In a terrific drive, Inquisitor, a 20 to 1 shot, won the Sheepshead Bay handicap, one mile, at Sheepshead to-day, and by so doing broke the track record for the distance by stopping it in 1:37 3-5, which is one-fifth of a second faster than the best previous time over this course, and within one-fifth of a second of the world's record. By the victory of Captain Emerich in the fifth race, the ring received the hardest blow it has experienced in some time. The colt opened at 10 to 1 and closed at 5 to 1, but while the horses were at the post he was again pounded to 2½ to 1. Summaries:

First race—six furlongs; main course—Klamesha (11 to 5) first, Handzarra (6 to 1) second, Roseben (9 to 10) third. Time, 1:12 2-5.

Second race—steeplechase; short steeplechase course—Paul Jones (7 to 5) first, Gold Fleur (3 to 1) second, Kernel (12 to 1) third. Time, 4:07 3-5.

Third race—the Surf Stakes; five and a half furlongs; Futurity course—Peter Pan (2 to 1) first, Alaethouo (8 to 1) second, Arimo (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:07.

Fourth race—the Sheepshead Bay handicap—Inquisitor (20 to 1) first, Von Tromp (5 to 1) second, Halifax (7 to 2) third. Time, 1:37 3-5.

Fifth race—selling; five furlongs; Futurity course—Captain Emerich (5 to 1) first, Umbrella (4 to 1) second, J. C. Core (11 to 5) third. Time, 1:01.

Sixth race—mile and sixteenth on turf—Entree (5 to 1) first, Just So (3 to 1) second, Far West (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:46.

LANE GETS VERDICT.

Awarded Six Hundred Dollars for Ejectment from Car.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHESTERFIELD, VA., June 28.—The jury to-day in the suit of William H. Lane, of Petersburg, against the receivers of the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway, the trial of which was begun on yesterday, rendered a verdict of $600 in favor of Lane. The case was right warmly contested by Mr. Bernard Mann, of Petersburg, representing the plaintiff, and Mr. E. H. Wells, for the defendant company, and an appeal may be taken by the company.

Mr. Lane sued the Railway Company for $5,000 because, as he alleged, their Petersburg agent delivered him a ticket to Chester, when he ordered and paid for a ticket to Richmond, and because Conductor Reams required him to leave his car after passing Chester for failure to pay addition fare from Chester to Richmond. The plaintiff alleged that he was in a greatly weakened bodily condition at the time of the ejectment by reason of a recent spell of illness.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Messrs. Brown & Co. Make Two Deals at Good Prices.

There was but little doing in real estate yesterday, so all the agents say. The summer dullness is noticeable all around. However, there are men who do not intend to let any real estate bargains go by unnoticed.

An auction sale yesterday afternoon by J. Thompson Brown & Company was largely attended, and the bidding was spirited. Messrs. Brown and Company sold the lot on the southeast corner of Harrison and Franklin Streets for $162.50 per front foot. The same firm also sold two lots on the south side of Franklin Street, between Boyd and Lombardy Streets, for $125 per front foot, Mr. Stanhope Bouldin was the purchaser.
