MR. HART WINS HANDSOME GEM

Makes Splendid Record of 24 Out of 25 at Yesterday's Shoot.

PRIZES AND THE WINNERS

The most successful shoot ever held in Richmond took place yesterday afternoon at the traps of the Richmond Gun Club. A large crowd witnessed the clay pigeons go to pieces at the hands of the many contestants.

The $5 in gold donated by Frank Anthony to high average (no one barrel), was won by Mr. E. H. Starr, who broke 185 out of 200, with a run of 69 straight.

MacLelland, of the Richmond Club, was a close runner up with 183.

The trade was well represented by Ed. Banks, L. D. Thomas, E. H. Starr and T. Hazle Keller, and Mr. Lee.

Mr. Fred Banks had charge of the office, and with the assistance of his brother, Ed., handled it remarkably well, having each man's earnings ready in ten minutes after each event.

J. A. Anderson managed the shoot, and as usual, with the assistance of Messrs. Hechler and Robinson, pleased all the contestants.

Ten Pair Doubles.

In the special event of ten pair doubles, Dr. B. L. Hillsman, Meade, Lowry and W. S. MacLelland tied on 16 out of 20. In the first shoot off all three tied. In the second shoot MacLelland won by breaking 18 out of 20. Dr. Hillsman broke the ground's record on doubles by a straight 20, in regular score and shoot off.

In the special event for the $70 Baker gun, donated through Mr. James Tignor, Mr. M. D. Hart, of Richmond, won by the remarkable good score of 24 out of 25.

The runners up were Dr. B. L. Hillsman, Mr. Walls and Killett.

MR. POLLARD WINS.

Retains Tennis Championship of Hermitage Club.

Mr. Fred C. Pollard still holds the club championship of the Hermitage Club. Yesterday he proved his right to retain the title by defeating Mr. John A. Coke, Jr., the champion of all former comers; in a highly interesting game.

The contest began at 5 o'clock and was played on the club's tournament court. The day was ideal for tennis, being sufficiently cool and without wind. Mr. Pollard took all three sets out of the five—6 to 2, 17 to 15 and 6 to 4. The second set was heart-breaking. The advantage was first in and then out. Mr. Coke played a hard, steady game, while his opponent was not quite up to his usual standard, having had very little practice this season on account of sickness.

A good-sized crowd followed the play, and good racquet wielding by either side was roundly applauded.

ST. ANDREWS ADDS TWO MORE SCALPS

Plays Covenanters in Morning and St. Leo in Evening, Easily Winning Both Games.

St. Andrew's crack team played two games yesterday, winning both. The first contest was with the Covenanters in the morning and resulted in a score of 10 to 3.

St. Leo played St. Andrew's in the afternoon, losing to the latter by a score of 6 to 2. Enthusiastic crowds attended both contests. The detailed scores follow:

AT SALISBURY.

The Day Celebrated With Parade, Athletics and Fireworks.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., July 4.—At sunrise this morning Salisbury's big celebration was fittingly opened by a salute of thirteen guns, fired by the noted Confederate veteran, Captain John A. Ramsey, of this city. At an early hour the city was thronged with visitors from all parts of the State and numbers from adjacent States, and the day's celebration was a great success.

A mammoth baby show and parade at 8:30 A. M. opened the spectacular features of the day, in which a large number participated. Cash prizes were awarded the successful contestants.

A magnificent industrial parade was given at 10 o'clock, the same being participated in by thousands of patriotic citizens. Two bands furnished an abundance of music, and the spirit of patriotism reigned.

Among the leading features of the day were addresses of Senator Lee S. Overman, Congressman W. W. Kitchin and Hon. R. N. Hackett, the Democratic nominee for Congress from the Eighth District. Congressman Kitchin spoke especially to the old soldiers, many of whom were in Salisbury for the event. A dinner was also served to the Confederate veterans on the courthouse lawn.

The afternoon was given to field sports, including races of all kinds, baseball and acrobatic exhibitions. To-night a reproduction of the burning of San Francisco was presented by a specialist brought to Salisbury for the occasion.

The event was closed to-night by a grand display of fireworks.

All men have their imprudent days.—Beaumont.

"You say you had to give the patient chloroform twice?" "Yes," replied the dentist. "I had to give it to him the second time to extract the money."—Detroit Free Press.

FINE SPORT ON HAMPDEN ROADS

Splendid Yacht Club Races in a Fifteen-Mile Breeze in Lower Chesapeake.

KNOCKABOUT BEATS SLOOP

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 4.—Splendid sport was the sailing of the annual Fourth of July yacht races of the Hampton Roads Yacht Club. The weather was ideal. A fifteen-mile breeze blew steadily over the lower Chesapeake from the southwest, and a breeze from that quarter never kicks up a heavy sea there. Thin clouds floated overhead and arrested the piercing rays of the summer sun.

Thirteen swift little vessels started the race, all within a few minutes of each other, and with their fields of canvas spread to the wind, represented a pretty marine pageant, beating around the ten-mile triangular course. The racers were closely watched by a large number of cottagers and others there especially for the race. Every tack and turn of the vessels was observed through a large number of marine glasses as first one vessel would gain an advantage and then another.

The big sloop Sagitta, owned by the Sagitta Club, easily took and held the lead in the race, but that did not mean that she would be a winner, as on account of her size she had to allow other vessels in the race much time.

The little canoe Fontaine did wonderful work from the start, and was picked by many for the winner, running against time. The Sagitta, too, was running against time, she being the only vessel in her class. The sloop has won many contests.

The boats starting the race to-day were: Yawls—Polly, Mr. Mitchell, disqualified at start for passing outside stake boat; Naomi, Arthur and William White; Matoaks, Commodore T. E. Ferguson; Mattaheeset, Messrs. White and Jones, and Diana. Sloops—Sagitta, Sagitta Club. Knockabouts—Usona, Captain James Peake; Tolopa, owned and sailed by Mrs. Berkeley Williams, of Baltimore; Mistral, C. W. Grandy, Jr.; G. T. Taylor, G. T. Taylor. Canoes—Fontaine, Stuart Cromwell. Catboats — Gossip, Harry White, and Maren, E. F. Lawler.

After making the deductions for time allowances, it was found that the knockabout G. T. Taylor had captured the cup as well as the class prize, a United States yacht ensign.

The Mattaheeset won among the yawls and the Gossip among the catboats.

The only meeting arranged in the Amateur League for the Fourth was the postponed fixture from June 23 and was called for 9:30 A. M. at Chestnut Hill. The Locos were the first to score and got five men across the plate in the second. From this point on the game was of a very interesting character, but the Wasps were never able to get on terms and the Locos won out, as below, by the score of 13 to 6.

The features of the game were the good batting of E. August and the batting and pitching of Lewis.
