LYNCHBURG, VA., July 9.—Lynchburg went down before the Lawmakers this afternoon in a ten-inning game, losing the first extra-inning contest of the season by the score of 4 to 3. The game was a snappy one in the field and good work came from the box, but the contest was marred by the awful decisions of Umpire Danihy, who is the worst that has been here this season. His judgment at the battery was fierce, and in the eighth he called Walsh out at first when the ball had not reached Shaffer after the runner had passed the base.

Stewart, a new twirler from the Georgia League, was tried out by the locals, and with anything like a little hitting behind him, even with the drubbing he was given by the umpire, he would have won handily. He has the marks of a great comer. Eckstone pitched a fine game, keeping the Shoemakers well in hand. He retired in the ninth, when Cuddy batted for him. The score:

Questionable Hits and Erratic Fielding Give Visitors Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PORTSMOUTH, VA., July 9.—Roanoke won from Portsmouth to-day in the ninth inning. The score was 6 to 2. It was a pitchers' battle between Kaufman and Willis up to the ninth, with the odds in favor of the Portsmouth twirler. A combination of questionable hits by Roanoke and erratic fielding by the Truckers gave the Highlanders four runs and the game. Up to the ninth neither of Roanoke's two runs were earned, and only two hits had been made off Kaufman. He struck out eight men. Willis was hit hard, and both of Portsmouth's runs were earned. Willis struck out nine men. Both teams put up a fast fielding game, the feature of which was a one-hand stop of Crutchley's grounder in the second by Strebeigh, and a running catch of Plepho's fly in the eighth by Titman. OPPORTUNE STICK WORK.

Winning Run in Last Half of the Eighth Inning.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., July 9.—Opportune stick work by the Tobacconists won them the game to-day from Norfolk by a score of 3 to 2. It was a garrison finish, the winning run being made in the last half of the eighth inning. Catcher Benny was the star actor for Danville with the bat. Out of four times up he connected for three safeties, and it was his hits that brought in all of the runs. Winston, for the locals, while wild, pitched a good game. As to the number of men struck out and the bases given on balls, he was outclassed by the twirler for the Tercentennials. Powell, for Danville, made a sensational catch, and McKenzie played a superb game at short stop. Foster and McMahon, for Norfolk, did pretty work. The visitors led off with the run-getting in the first inning. A base on balls and a single by Clarke made the first run. Clarke stole second, went to third on a wild throw of Benny and came home on a wild pitch of Winston. In the sixth, Sietz muffed a fly and McKenzie singled, and another hit brought in both runners. In the eighth McKenzie singled and went to third on an error of Dingle, and came home as a result of a hit by Benny.

TOOK WIFE OUT ON SPIN ABOVE CLOUDS

Roy Knabenshue and Spouse Had Luncheon Two Miles Up in Air.

ROY KNABENSHUE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, July 9.—Roy Knabenshue, owner and driver of several thoroughbred airships, took Mrs. Knabenshue out for a little spin above the clouds yesterday afternoon. After showing her the points of interest in five or six counties and enjoying a luncheon while sailing along at an altitude of nearly two miles above sea level, they came down in a back yard in Flushing and returned to the city in an automobile.

It was Mrs. Knabenshue's first journey through the air, but she enjoyed it, and said it beat automobiling "all to pieces." In fact, she was so much delighted that she declared she would accompany her husband hereafter whenever he would let her go.

"You behaved splendidly," said Mr. Knabenshue, turning to her, "and on Sundays and pleasant afternoons, whenever I have a balloon to exercise, you shall go; but, my dear, I shall not take you riding in the airship."

It had been announced that Knabenshue would perform the novel feat of sending up two balloons from the Polo Ground and go after them in his airship and bring them back captive to the starting point. Fully fifteen thousand persons gathered about that part of the city, most of them eager to pay their fifty cents to go inside the enclosure, but they were all disappointed. At the last moment Captain Cottrell and Inspector Sweeney decided it would be unlawful to charge an admission fee for such a show on Sunday, so Knabenshue put his airship back in its stable and gave the crowd a fine balloon ascension for nothing.

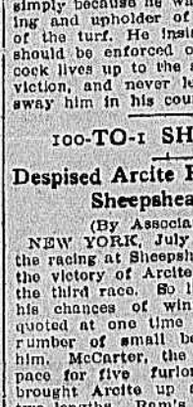
BAR GO BETWEEN FROM BIG RACES

Reported That Great Horse Will Not Be Allowed to Start.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY HARD HIT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch)

NEW YORK, July 9.—It is a certainty, horsemen say, that Go Between will not be allowed to start in any of the big events of the future.



According to a turf official Go Between entries were made in each race without his owner, Alex. Shields, specifying his age. The rules distinctly demand that owners when they nominate shall state the age of their horses. It was because Shields failed to do this that the Jockey Club stewards on Saturday upheld the protest of Francis R. Hitchcock that Go Between's entry was not properly made out and that the horse was therefore ineligible to start. As the entry was made in similar style in all his races the Jockey Club stewards will undoubtedly declare him ineligible for the future events.

It is to be regretted that the horse is thus debarred from racing. Go Between now stands in the light of a champion. There is not a horse in training at present that can beat him over a distance of ground. Shields has the sympathy of every race-goer because he is thus cut out of a chance to win a small fortune. But rules must be lived up to. Otherwise the sport would soon dwindle into a merry-go-round.

The action of Mr. Hitchcock in making the protest has been severely criticised and termed unsportsmanlike. On the face of it, it would seem that this last classification of his action was just. But his friends, and they are legion, say that Hitchcock took this action that he did simply because he was a steward of racing and upholder of the good interests of the turf. He insisted that the rules should be enforced or abolished. Hitchcock lives up to the strength of his conviction, and never lets ulterior motives sway him in his course.

100-TO-1 SHOT WINS.

Despised Arcite Ran Away With Sheepshead Field.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 9.—The surprise of the racing at Sheepshead Bay to-day was the victory of Arcite a 100 to 1 shot in the third race. So little was thought of his chances of winning that he was quoted at one time at 300 to 1, and a number of small bets were made on him. McCarter, the favorite, made the pace for five furlongs when Troxler brought Arcite up and won easily by two lengths. Ram's Horn won the Bay Ridge handicap. Summaries:

First race—selling, five furlongs, futurity course—Sommus (9 to 5 and 4 to 5) first, Gallant Dan (100 to 1 and 30 to 1) second, Anna May (15 to 1 and 6 to 1) third. Time, 1:01.

Second race—mile—Dolly Spanker (1 to 2 and 1 to 5) first, Old Faithful (7 to 1 and 6 to 5) second, Rose of Gold (25 to 1 and 5 to 1) third. Time, 1:39 4-5.

Third race—five and one-half furlongs, futurity course—Arcite (100 to 1 and 30 to 1) first, McCarter (3 to 1 and even) second, Marathon (10 to 1 and 4 to 1) third. Time, 1:08.

Fourth race—Bay Ridge handicap, one and one-quarter miles—Ram's Horn (7 to 2 and 7 to 5) first, Von Tromp (8 to 1 and 3 to 1) second, Bedouin (3 to 1 and even) third. Time, 1:05 3-5.

Fifth race—six and one-half furlongs, main course—Comedienne (15 to 1 and 6 to 1) first, Monet (13 to 10 and 1 to 2) second, Ironsides (7 to 1 and 6 to 2) third. Time, 1:18 2-5.

Sixth race—selling, five furlongs, futurity course—L'Amour (8 to 1 and 3 to 1) first, Athens (6 to 1 and 2 to 1) second, Citrona (15 to 1 and 6 to 1) third. Time, 1:01 4-5.

Seventh race—mile and three-quarters on turf—Angler (8 to 5 and 1 to 2) first, Lelia (13 to 1 and 4 to 1) second, Huntington (7 to 1 and 2 to 1) third. Time, 2:30.

JACK ANTHONY GOES TO PORTSMOUTH TEAM

John (Jack) Anthony, who since the beginning of the baseball season, has been with the Richmond team, has been released and has been signed by Barley Kain, manager of the Portsmouth nine. Kain will put Anthony in the outfield at once, and believes he has a man from the Lawmakers who will be of great benefit to the Truckers.

Kain some time ago, signed Titman, the rightfielder of Richmond, and Titman is doing star work for that team now. Manager Shaffer released Titman, but at the time said he had only loaned him to Portsmouth. The by-laws of the league don't allow any loaning and this could hardly have been correct.

Anyway Shaffer wanted Titman back mighty bad last week, after Titman had practically won the two games Saturday for the Truckers, but Kain and owner Bland were too wise. Titman has been a different player since he landed in Portsmouth. He was always a good hitter and was conceded to be one of the fastest runners in the league.

His average at the time he was released was the best of any fielder, yet Manager Shaffer allowed him to go. Now he would like to have him return to the Lawmakers. No wonder, after the released man wins two games in succession from the team that didn't like him. The Times-Dispatch, at the time of Titman's release, pointed out that he had done better work than any of the fielders. This was shown by actual figures.
