GROUND TOO WET, GAME CALLED OFF

Roanoke Aggregation and the Lawmakers Had to Postpone Contest Yesterday.

HAVE TWO GAMES TO-MORROW

Double-Header Will Cost but One Admission Price—Case Against Hinton Dismissed.

Results of Yesterday's Games.

At Richmond—Richmond-Roanoke, postponed; rain.
At Lynchburg—Lynchburg-Danville, postponed; rain.
At Portsmouth—Portsmouth, 0; Norfolk, 8.

Where They Play To-day.

Roanoke at Richmond.
Danville at Lynchburg.
Norfolk at Portsmouth.

Standing of the Clubs.

Clubs:	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Lynchburg	46	17	.730
Norfolk	37	26	.587

Roanoke	28	36	.438
Danville	28	36	.438
Portsmouth	23	42	.354

The Roanoke aggregation of balloologists were not defeated yesterday afternoon, and the Lawmakers didn't climb any higher up the percentage ladder.

Rain that fell in the afternoon soaked the diamond so that a game could not be played. That's the reason the visitors didn't get beaten, and beaten badly at that, for it was Colonel Still who was to do the twirling, and Willis was going to hand them over for the Highlanders.

It was a source of much disappointment that the game yesterday could not be played. The diamond was full of water, and had the players have gone to work the exhibition would have been a farce rather than a good game of baseball.

Two games will be played on Saturday afternoon, and only one admission price will be charged. Still will probably work in to-day's game, and Long, Drew or Eckstone will do the honors for the double-header.

To-Morrow's First Game.

Willis and Cassidy will certainly work for the Highlanders, and another pitcher may be sent in the box to show the Lawmakers a few stunts in one of the three games. The game this afternoon will begin at the usual hour—4:30 o'clock—but on Saturday the first game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Catcher Phil Hinton, who was arrested in Lynchburg at the instigation of Umpire Danihy, who charged him with abusive language, was dismissed by Magistrate Fortune in the Hill City, and returned with the Lawmakers to Richmond yesterday.

Umpire Danihy did not press the charge that he made against the catcher, and Magistrate Fortune, who was a spectator at the game, admitted that he heard nothing that Hinton said.

PORTSMOUTH LOSES.

Norfolk Got Three Singles in the First, Which Won Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PORTSMOUTH, VA., July 12.—Norfolk took Portsmouth into camp to-day, and won before 1,200 people by a score of 8 to 0. Otey pitched a good game for the crew, and was effective with men on bases. Kaufman was touched up for three singles in the first inning, which gave Norfolk two earned runs. After this he was effective, and the other run was the result of Fischman's error. Manager Kain was out of the game with a lame knee, and the Truckers' infield was broken up, Kelly going to second. Both teams put up a fast and clean fielding game, in which the throwing of Edwards was a feature. Six Norfolk players attempted to steal bases on him, and every one of them were easy victims. Clark led in hitting, with a single and double out of twice up. Revell got two singles out of four times up. The score:

JAMAICA STAKES BY NANNIE HODGE

Radtke Brings Her Up on the Stretch, Winning by One Length.

OFFERED BUT NOT SOLD

Bid in by the Stable at $2,200. John English Wins the Handicap.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—Nannie Hodge, 6 to 5 favorite, won the Jamaica selling stakes at Brighton Beach to-day. She ran second to Diamond to the stretch, when Radtke brought her up, winning by one length. When the mare was offered for sale, she was bid up to $2,200, but was bought in by the stable. Summaries:

First race—five and a half furlongs—Penarris (7 to 1 and 5 to 2) first, Dash Away (5 to 1 and 2 to 1) second, Waterbury (13 to 5 and even) third. Time, 1:07.

THE FIREMEN DO EXCITING WORK

Raleigh Wins the Interstate Championship and Breaks Another Record.

SPENCER SMASHES A RECORD

Rocky Mount, Who Day Before Was Ruled Out, Allowed Second Place.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 12.—The tournament of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association closed to-day. The rescue hose wagon team of Raleigh, which won the State championship yesterday, succeeded to-day in winning the interstate championship in the hose wagon race, and at the same time broke the record in this class, doing measured course in 28 seconds flat, against the old record of 30 1-5 held by Greensboro.

Spencer broke the State record one-fifth of a second in the hand-reel race, making the run in 29 1-5 seconds. To-day's programme began at 9 o'clock, the first event being the State hand-hose reel contest, a run of 150 yards to a hydrant laying 98 feet of hose and showing water; prizes, $75.50 and $25. Spencer won in 29 1-5 Salisbury second, 29 2-5; Chapel Hill third, time 31 seconds; Morganton, 34 4-5. Salem failed to get their nozzle on and did not score.

The second event was the interstate hose wagon contest, fifty yards flying start; 200 yards from starting line to hydrant; laying of 288 feet of hose and showing water; prize, $150. There were eleven entries. Rescue Company, of Raleigh, won; time, 28 seconds. Eclipse Company, of Goldsboro, second; time, :28 1-5; prize $75. Third, Newbern, :28 4-5; prize, $50.

Union, S. C., was ruled out on account of having a colored driver. Stateville withdrew, owing to one of their team being injured.

The last event was the interstate hand-hose reel contest, a run of 150 yards to hydrant; laying 98 feet of hose and showing water; prizes, $125, $75; and $50. Seven teams were entered. Spencer won; time, :24 1-5; Salem, second, :25 4-5; Salisbury, third, time, :29 1-5.

It is unanimously conceded by the visiting firemen that the fine asphalt track, combined with superb water pressure—145 pounds—contributed in great part to the breaking of the several records. The timers were: M. E. McCowan, of Durham; L. A. Taylor, of Greensboro, and William Taylor, of Raleigh.

The racing committee at a meeting last night decided that, as the Rocky Mount company had been given too much hose in the hose wagon contest, the blame was with the judges, and awarded Rocky Mount second prize in the State hose wagon contest. They also decided that the complaint of the Durham company, that they had been interfered with by Richard Harris, a member of Rescue Company, of Raleigh, was well founded, and Harris was expelled from the State Association and fined $50 by his company.

Harris, although emphatically denying that he had interfered, promptly paid the fine in the interest of harmony.

Elm City, 6; Emporia, 2.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ELM CITY, N. C., July 12.—Elm City won from Emporia in a walk. The locals took the first game of the series from Emporia by the score of 6 to 2. Batteries: Emporia, Gathwright and Hobbs; Elm City, Turner and Mills.

Ball Player Disabled.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PULASKI, VA., July 12.—Fitzhugh Heitzheimer, the crack short stop of the Pulaski baseball team, and who also heads the batting list, fell and broke his arm here Tuesday night while jumping in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Mr. Heitzheimer will not be able to play ball again for a long time, if ever, as the fracture was of both bones below the elbow.

BRILLIANT SHOW AND LARGE CROWD

A Splendid Exhibit and Fine Sport Marked the Day.

A BIG CROWD ON THE GROUND

Two Falls Furnished Thrills—A Winning Rider Disqualified.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 12.—A crowd of more than 2,500 people witnessed the second day of the Fredericksburg Horse Show and race meet, and enjoyed the sport from start to finish.

There was more snap in the various events than on the first day, and although the crowd continued to hiss some of the harness awards, there was little fault to be found with the judging.

Two falls furnished thrills for those who delight in excitement. Mrs. Blair Johnson, place aux dames, riding "The Favorite" in the championship jumping class, went down on the grass when her mount fell flat on the turn. Pluckily remounting, she finished the round, and, amid general applause, won second—the reserve.

In the first class, the Corinthian hunter event, Mr. J. O. Hudson, riding "Chief," came to grief over the flight of rails in front of the grandstand, his hunter going into the jump and sending him heavily to the ground. Mr. Hudson's ear and face were cut and his arm sprained.

In this same class Mr. C. W. Smith, of Warrenton, had the bad luck to win the class and then lose it on account of his rider, Mr. Bell, being disqualified for not being a member of a hunt club.

Mrs. Potts Wins.

Ladies' park hacks proved hard for the judges to decide, and they were sent out again and again. The award went to Mrs. Allen Potts's "Radiant."

The class that caught the crowd was for pairs of hunters sent abreast over the jumps. It created great excitement and caused the greatest outburst of applause of the day. Mr. W. W. Osborne's pair won handily.

In the combination event, the judges again had their work cut out for them, for it took thirty minutes of judging before a decision could be reached. "The Limit," owned by Garber and Garber, received the blue.

A hot contest occurred in the class for heavy harness horses, "Patriot," owned by Mr. A. Randolph Howard, winning over Garber and Garber's "Airs." The friends of Garber and Garber hissed londly while Mr. Howard's friends cheered.

The sporting tandem was won by Mrs. Allen Potts's "Firelight" and "King of Hearts," after which the championship classes were shown.

In the champion harness, Mr. A. Randolph Howard won "champion" and "reserve," while the Garber and Garber crowd hissed.

M. F. H. of the Keswick Hunt, won Mr. F. H., of the Keswick Hunt, won the championship jump with "Taconite," and was presented by Mr. Charles H. Hurkamp, of "Boscobel," with a very handsome silver bowl, inscribed, "The Amaret Trophy," in honor of the great high jumper once owned by Mr. Hurkamp.

The Winners.

The principal awards of the entire show were:

Mr. A. Randolph Howard, with eight horses—a championship, a reserve, 6 blues, 3 reds.

Garber & Garber, with six horses—5 blues, 3 reds, 1 yellow.

Julian Morris, with six horses—a championship, 4 blues, 2 reds, 3 yellows.

Mrs. Allen Potts, with three horses—3 blues, 1 red, 3 yellows.

Mrs. Blair Johnson, with six horses—2 blues, a reserve, 4 reds, 1 yellow.

Mr. W. W. Osborne, with four horses—2 blues, 1 red.

The races which followed the Horse Show events were applauded to the echo, and proved as great an attraction as on yesterday. Mr. W. J. Carter, who acted as starter, sent ten runners of all ages to a good start. "Seagate" got away in front, and, increasing her lead in the back stretch, won handily by a length from "Cohassett," owned by J. T. Temple, of Richmond, with "Ethelbrytha" lapped.

A half-mile dash for local runners attracted only a field of three. "Bill Bailey," carrying all the money of the neighborhood sports, got away in front, and looked an easy winner until "Sally Ann" came down with a rush in the stretch, and was in a nose of wresting victory from "Bill." The sports all suffered nervous chills for about five minutes, until the numbers went up.

The open mile dash was a surprise to all the talent, for it was on the cards that "Cohassett" or "Tarpon," owned and ridden by Mr. R. M. Taylor, would win outright.

The flag fell to an excellent start, and seven candidates went away. "Cohassett" showed to the front on the first turn, but "Tarpon" caught him in the stretch and raced with him all the way to the half mile, when "Cohassett" drew away. At the three-quarter pole, "Congress," a rank outsider, came on with a rush, collared "Cohassett," and in a driving finish beat him by a neck. Mr. Taylor, riding Tarpon "out," got third place. The sports went into bankruptcy after this event.

Steeplechase.

The steeplechase at two miles called out but five candidates, with Mr. Taylor's "Croxton," ridden by his owner, the odds on favorite. Mr. Charles Hoofe had the mount on "Westown," while negro jocks rode "Essex," "Harry Baylor" and "Acolite."

Mr. Taylor, on "Croxton," went out to the front and led all the way, although "Westown" came up three times and made a bid for leadership, only to fall back at the turns, which Mr. Taylor cut to an inch. On the last time around the field, Mr. Taylor failed to turn in the track for the run in on the flat, and continued around the infield. The whole field followed his lead and ran half a mile more than the distance despite the vigorous protest of the railbirds.

In the stretch Harry Baylor came on like a hurricane, and beat out Westown for second place by a nose, Croxton being two lengths in the lead.

The judges let the race stand, as no horse went outside the flags, and the "talent" cashed in on Croxton.

The closing event was a consolation three-quarter mile dash, open to horses that had entered, but had not won, in which five made desperate bids for feed money.

After a tiresome delay at the post, the flag dropped to a perfect start. "Little Cita" went to the front, with "Tarpon" at her girth, and the rest well up at the half-mile pole. "Tarpon" was pocketed, and had to pull back and go round the bunch. "Marriage Bells" came down like the wind in the stretch, and beat out Tarpon by a head for second place, a length behind "Little Cita," the winner.

Florence P. Dickeson vs. William H. Dickeson for a divorce.

Hustings Court.

Cases tried yesterday: Marshall Robinson, malicious shooting, guilty, ten years in penitentiary; William H. Scott, non-support; required to pay his wife $7 per month.

Cases set for to-day: James Ward, felony; William Jones, misdemeanor.

Miscellaneous: In the record of this court as published yesterday eight defendants were labelled "acquitted." This was an error of the court reporter. These cases were not pressed for various satisfactory reasons, mainly that they had been on the docket a long time and the parties had not been apprehended, and apparently there is no possibility of their apprehension. Such not a moll bean.
