DANVILLE RUBBED IT IN.

Game Fast and Interesting, and Full of Sensational Plays.

(Special by Southern Bell Telephone.)

DANVILLE, VA., August 11.—The Tobacconists rubbed it into the Highlanders here to-day in a fast and interesting game, by a score of 5 to 2. The game was characterized by pretty fielding, and at times sensational playing on the part of the locals, who held the stick at opportune moments. As to the fielding, Reggy at shortstop was by far the star. Out of eleven chances he made no errors, and, furthermore, started the two double plays that figure in the contest. He showed up well at the bat, and a double and a triple was scored to his credit. A three bagger was responsible for two men coming home, and probably won the game for the home boys. Doyle, at second base, played a steady game, and accepted all of the seven chances that came his way. McMahon, for the visitors, played a remarkable game at shortstop. Richie and Kauffman were the opposing twirlers, and both pitched good games. The Danville man had a little the best of the argument, allowing only six hits, and keeping them better scattered than the southpaw. At critical moments, especially was Richie effective. Both of the pitchers had excellent control, and allowed but two bases on balls. The fact that Richie got better support by his team than his opponent may be the reason for Richie winning the game. Following is the tabulated score:

Hermitage, 9; South Boston, 4.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., August 11.—Hermitage Golf Club, of Richmond, again easily won the game of baseball from Houston-South Boston this afternoon by a score of 9 to 4.

The game was very interesting up to the seventh inning, when Hermitage scored three runs, the home team having made two runs in first, one in second and one in fifth innings. In the eighth inning the White Rolls went to pieces and the visitors literally batted Booker all over the field, scoring six runs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., August 11.—The Brownies hitting at opportune times won the game from Riverside club this evening. The inability of the Riverside club to hit Ford, only two singles being made off his delivery, coupled with the fine support which his team gave him, tell the story of the game.

Airship in Storm.

FRANKLIN, PA., August 11.—Attempting a flight in the face of a thunderstorm yesterday afternoon, Leo Stevens, an airship inventor, and Major Charles J. S. Miller, of Franklin, had an exciting experience with the airship which Stevens recently built for Major Miller. It was the largest airship ever constructed in America and Stevens had hoped to surpass the record for speed in this country by making fifteen miles an hour.

TWELVE INNINGS AND NO SCORING

The League Leaders Played to a Standstill at Norfolk Yesterday.

MOST SCIENTIFIC EXHIBITION

Moser and Stanley Both Did Great Work in the Box.

(Special by Southern Bell Telephone.)

NORFOLK, VA., August 11.—Lynchburg, the State League leaders, and Norfolk, the second position club, played twelve innings this afternoon without a run being scored by either side. Darkness put an end to the contest. Moser, of Lynchburg, and Stanley, of Norfolk, were the opposing pitchers. Both men did great work. Moser yielded seven hits and Stanley nine, all widely scattered. The support of both pitchers was superb. The one error of the game was made by Wiley, Norfolk's first baseman. Lightning plays for most difficult chances were made by both sides. A light rain fell before the opening of the game, but the ground was not made sufficiently wet to interfere with the playing. However, the weather kept threatening, and the attendance at the game was small. The game this afternoon was perhaps the most scientific played in Virginia this season, and it is unlikely that it will be duplicated before the season closes. It was Lynchburg's final appearance here, unless the club should return here for a post-season game. The following is the score: tally, Smith dropping a fly in centerfield. From here on it was nothing but a procession, the Ink Slingers winning comfortably by 5 to 1.

Walker pitched a star game, in which the whole team worked for all they were worth. Gardner's stealing and Sutherland's coaching need commendation, whilst Stout's catching wants a lot of beating. Nobody stole first. Whilst there was something lacking in combination with the C. & O.'s they played good ball, but didn't seem to accomplish much.

WASPS DEFEAT CHINAMEN

Bauer Drives Home-Run in the Sixth Inning.

The victorious streak of the Chinamen was badly broken yesterday, the C. and O. Shops putting it over them to the tune of 8 to 4. The Chinamen had hard luck, neither their captain or manager putting in an appearance, and it devolved on one of the players to pick up what available talent there was to make up the team. Hogan, one of these, made a fine showing, getting three hits and pulling down a couple of flies in right field. O'Brien, on first, played good ball for the C. and O., whilst undoubtedly the feature of the game was the home-run hit by Bauer in the sixth.

The C. and O. Shops were the first to draw blood, but not till the first half of the fourth. The Chinamen went one better in the last half. But in the sixth the Wasps put it all over them and brought in four runs, and from this point had the game well in hand.

GAME AT WEST POINT.

Snowballs Defeat Locos in Seven-Inning Contest.

It was a very interesting game yesterday at West Point between the Locos and Snowballs. It was only a seven inning contest, however, and the Locos were beaten by a score of 4 to 1.

The features of the game were Morgan's pitching, there being only two hits off him; Wade's base running and Fritzche's home drive in the second inning.

AUTOS WIN.

England Pitches Fine Game and Has Good Support.

The Autos presented the Rangers with a goose-egg yesterday. England, for the Autos, did fine work, striking out thirteen men and allowing only one man on third. With one man out and one on third, he struck out the next two that faced him, retiring the side. Gentry did his share of the work behind the bat, throwing out very nearly every man that tried to steal second. Miller pitched a nice game, also striking out eight men, but his support was irregular. The line us follows:

Autos—Germelman, first-base; Miles, centerfield; Fidler, shortstop; R. Gentry, second-base; McCarty, leftfield; Woody, rightfield; Engleking, third-base; C. Gentry, catcher; England, pitcher.

Rangers—Senf, shortstop; Miller, pitcher; Mahone, first-base; Clark, leftfield; Frazier, third-base; Jones, second-base; McGregory, rightfield; Blunt, centerfield; Davis, catcher; McHaynes, rightfield.

Astorias vs. Thebans.

Two well matched negro baseball clubs will play fine ball at the Broad Street Park to-morrow afternoon. They are the Astorias, made up of members of the Astoria Benevolent Club, and the Thebans, composed of members of the benevolent club of that name. These clubs have already had two exciting and hard fought battles, and each club has won a game. The game to-morrow is to decide the championship as between the benevolent organizations. The game will commence at 4:30, and, weather permitting, will be largely attended.

Nelson Sticks by Goldfield.

SALT LAKE, UTAH, Aug. 11.—There are no prospects for the Gans-Nelson fight being pulled off in San Francisco or Sacramento, according to Battling Nelson. He said that Nolan was somewhere about town and would meet Eddie Graney to-day.

"Goldfield has dealt squarely with me, and in spite of the $42,000 purse offered by Sacramento, we are compelled to pull the match off at Goldfield," said Nelson. "Nolan has charge of things, and I am confident that he will not change his present plans. Graney will arrive here some time to-day and Nolan will meet him. Goldfield has granted every courtesy we have asked, and I have no reason to believe he will deviate from his plans."
