The Future of the Balloon.

The balloon may supplant both the motor and the yacht, and magistrates and police may find time hanging heavily on their hands when, with a catch-me-if-you-can defiance, our balloons will sail into the lawless ether.—Black and White.

THE DEMOCRATS ISSUE HAND-BOOK

The Largest Ever Published by the Party in the State of North Carolina.

CHALLENGED AS JURYMEN

An Appeal From Decision of Jury on Which Anti-Saloon Men Sat.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., September 5.—The Democratic hand-book for the impending campaign will be issued within the next few days. It consists of 116 pages, being the largest ever issued in the State, being exceptionally comprehensive as to both State and national politics.

Rev. J. P. Barrett, D. D., notifies Hillsboro Street Christian Church, this city, that he cannot accept the call to the pastorate here, having already pledged himself to remain with the Covington (Ohio) Church another year. There will be another congregational meeting of the church here next Sunday to extend a call to some one else.

The Caroline Cold Storage and Ice Company, of Winston-Salem, was chartered today with $125,000 capital authorized, the incorporators being Frank S. Varnadoe, J. E. Pool, C. W. Hall, and Clement Manly.

Two new enterprises were chartered for the town of Morganton, the Morganton Handle Company, capital $6,000, by J. N. Payne and others, and the Morganton Company, capital $10,000, by Taylor and others.

Another charter is for the Bank of Aulander, Bertie county, capital $[illegible] subscribed, and $[illegible] authorized. W. Pritchard and others being the incorporators.

When the Third District cases are called in the supreme Court next week for argument on appeal, the suit of the most interest probably will be the suit of Wm. William Sultan, from New Kent, in which the novel question of the eligibility of a member of an Anti-Saloon League to sit as juror in the trial of a person charged with retailing liquor without license will be at issue. The plaintiff was convicted before Judge Long and sentenced to five months imprisonment and $50 fine. The trial judge refused to bar Anti-Saloon League members from the jury, and the defendant exhausted his peremptory challenges on members of the league, and still others were sworn on the jury before he could stand trial. The contention is that the league members are unduly prejudiced against a defendant charged with violation of the liquor law.

Governor Glenn has granted a remarkable conditional pardon to J. W. Aikens, a white man, who was sentenced in Wake Superior Court, March term, 1906, to the roads for eighteen months for assault with deadly weapon. The pardon is on account of a statement from Dr. R. H. Lewis, that if Aikens is not released he will lose his eyesight, the pardon being signed by county commissioners, county physician and others. The conditions of the pardon are that he make report to the Governor every month showing good behavior, and at the end of six months he must show that he is living a sober, industrious life. Then the pardon may be made permanent.

The commissioner of insurance today issued the Ideal Tire Insurance Company, of Greensboro, recently chartered, to do business in the State. J. R. Barker is president, C. B. Dunaway, treasurer, and J. V. Coits, secretary. The company starts business with $50,000 capital and $25,000 surplus.

Another insurance license is to the Calahan Life Insurance Company, of New York. T. T. Hicks & Co., of Raleigh, are general agents.

Second District cases pressed in the Supreme Court today were as follows:

Petition for part from Halifax by Shepherd and Mann for appellant, and Travis and Kitchin for appellee.

Error to a judgment from Halifax by Kitchin, Gray, Daniel and Travis for plaintiff, Day and Bell and Murray Allen for defendant.

Fayetteville spent today in Raleigh. An excursion arrived over the Raleigh and Southport road this morning, bringing the Baptist Sunday school and their friends, about 600 strong. The visitors were given free access in the State house and other State buildings, and seemed to enjoy the day thoroughly. They left for the return trip about 5 o'clock.

LOST A PRISONER.

Unlocked Handcuffs and Made a Dash for Liberty.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., September 5.—Three Ashe county officers lost a prisoner in Salisbury this morning. The officers had ten men in custody and were taking them to Statesville. Awaiting the departure of the train the prisoners were kept in the colored waiting room. One of them, a husky negro, who was handcuffed suddenly dashed through the door and made good his escape. It was discovered afterwards that he had been given a key to the handcuffs and had unlocked them while the officers were not looking.
