...With two men out, two strikes on the batter, and the last half of the ninth inning being played, Cuddy, Richmond's second baseman, drove a clean single through the infield and brought the only run of the first game against Roanoke across the plate. He was cheered to the echo, before in the grandstand mingling their yelps with the yells of the lusty-lunged men. Pandemonium reigned.

However, could not salve the situation, which by the way, finished the first game here. He celebrated his farewell in fitting style, allowing the Roanoke team to land for but two singles—one a real scratch to the infield that was beat out. The left-winged slab artist was master of the situation at all times, and won his game from Willis, the crack mish of the Roanoke club.

Willis was hit for ten times, but kept the assists so well scattered that over the ninth inning the Lawmakers could not score. Time and again, however, the locals could have scored, but poor playing prevented it. Twice a double was made at second from the outfield. And once a double came when a man struck out and the runner from second was caught trying to pilfer the third station.

Siebrie and Cuddy Stars.

Siebrie and Cuddy were the bright scintillating gems to shine diamond. The former pulled off a smash, a triple and a two-bagger. Cuddy smashed the sphere for three singles, and his last smash brought Reeves, who had in the last inning made a two-bagger, across the rubber with the run.

The game being opened by the Roanoke crowd under very unfavorable circumstances. Smith sent a long one in the air behind the catcher, but Carson gobbled it up. Kaufman walked one at the twilight, but Salve transferred it to first in time to sting his earner. Then Boyd, the man released by Richmond, or rather exchanged for Brown, fanned.

Reeves, for the Lawmakers, led off by planting one that McMahon got under. Siebrie had just knocked a three-bagger, and it was hardly expected that he was going to do all of the hitting. But he swung easily, and the ball went to right garden. Before he returned Richmond's centre fielder was at second. Duran received a complimentary ticket to first, and Hicks forced him at second, but pushed Siebrie to third. It was all left with Cuddy then, and the fat little second baseman was equal to the emergency. He had fooled until he couldn't fool any more. And then he landed safely. The ball went just out of the reach of Bateman, and Siebrie came home with the one single tally that won the game.

Errorless Game.

The game was rather a remarkable one in that not an error was made on either side. Each player accepted all chances, and every man worked together, not only on the Richmond team, but on the Roanoke team.

The game this afternoon will be at the usual hour, and Cassidy or Still will probably work. The latter has had a bad ankle, but it is getting in better shape now, and he thinks he can stand to twirl again. Cassidy may be used in both games Saturday.

The final game of the series will be played to-morrow afternoon, and a large crowd should be present to see the Lawmakers try to take the series from the Roanoke team.

DANVILLE-LYNCHBURG.

Howard Pitched a Great Game for the Tobacconists.

LYNCHBURG, VA., September 6.—An error by Darringer in the second and two in the third, with hits on both sides of them, gave Danville the game this afternoon, despite the fact that Carter pitched a game he should have won. The score was 3 to 2.

Howard pitched a great game for the visitors, keeping the hits well scattered except in the ninth, when the home team scored their only earned run. He was a trifle wild, giving three bases, while none of the home team walked.

The game was full of interest after the sixth inning, and the Shoemakers had several chances to score, but Howard bobbed up, and was just a little too strong for them. On the other hand, Carter pitched an easy game, using more slow balls than have been seen here this season. With perfect support, he would have let the Bugs down with four clean singles and a scratch. Two games will be played to-morrow afternoon. The score:

NOFOLK-PORTSMOUTH.

Former Outbat Latter on Their Own Field and Win.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., September 6.—Norfolk outbatted Portsmouth in Portsmouth to-day, and won the game 3 to 1. The game was a pretty one, both teams playing without an error. In the pitching department Norfolk was the stronger. While Otey yielded eight hits and gave five bases on balls, he was steady with men on bases. Portsmouth had men on third in several innings, but with men there the Norfolk pitcher worked the hardest. Good hitting and base-running earned Norfolk two runs in the second. The score:

MOSER WANTED BY TWO LEAGUE TEAMS

Will Require a National Commission to Say Which Shall Have Him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., September 6.—The probabilities are that it will require the National Commission to settle whether W. F. Moser, late of the Lynchburg team, shall go to Philadelphia or to the Cincinnati team of the National League.

Some time ago Moser was sold by the local management to the Phillies, and he joined the team some time ago. He is said to have signed a contract with the Phillies, but the Philadelphia management failed to notify the commission of the purchase until after the Cincinnati team placed itself in line for drafting the player.

Moser is in Philadelphia, and Manager Hanlon wants him. If he gets him, the neatest of Philadelphia will cost that team the services of the crack pitcher of the Virginia League, and the management of the local team the difference between the draft allowance and the amount that Moser was sold to Philadelphia for. This difference is said to be about $1,000.

HERMITAGE FINDS WATERLOO AT LAST

Times-Dispatch Wins from Crack Team by the Score of One to Nothing.

The eagerly anticipated game between the Hermitage Club and The Times-Dispatch team was scheduled to be played at 4:30 P. M. yesterday, but it was after 5 when The Times-Dispatch took the field. The Hermitage fared badly in the first inning, although McNeill got a hit, with one down. He got no further than first bag. Gardner, first man up for the Sluggers, got a hit and stole second. Richardson was hit by a pitched ball. Gardner stole third. Richardson was caught stealing second. Trevillian was caught stealing second, after having been given a base on balls. Sitterding got his base on balls and stole second, but Gardner scored on a passed ball, with Stout at bat, the latter being struck out after this event. After this everybody settled down to play ball, and it was a pitchers' battle to the end. "Puss" Ellyson was hit freely, and there were anxious moments to both sides, but the Hermitage men were unable to hit Burnette, and the score remained 1 to 0 in favor of The Times-Dispatch till the end.

Burnette pitched a champion game, didn't walk anyone, and had seven strikeouts to his credit. Trevillian, at second, and Stout's catching were particularly conspicuous, whilst the entire line-up supported the best they knew how.

For the Hermitage, "Puss" Ellyson was unfortunate in losing his game on a passed ball, for, as the following score shows, everybody played good ball, although their base-running might have been a bit smarter. The tabulated score follows:

Report is Unfounded.

GOLDFIELD, NEV., September 6.—The report that Batting Nelson was dangerously ill and was likely to die as a result of the beating at the hands of Joe Gans Monday is so far from true that Nelson left Goldfield this morning for Truckee for a fishing trip. Aside from some few bruises and internal hemorrhages, Nelson was not severely hurt in the fight with Gans. His face was beaten up as a natural consequence of frequent collisions with Gans's fists, but nothing more serious.

AMERICAN BOAT WINS THIRD IN THE SERIES

The Vim, owned by Commodore Park, is Victor for Second Time in Series.

MARBLEHEAD, MASS., September 6.—Today's race, the third of the series between Germany and America for the Roosevelt cup, was won by Vim, owned by Commodore Park, of the American Yacht Club, of New York. The Vim was the winner of yesterday's race, the second of the series. The victory of the New York boat to-day was made certain a mile and a half from the finish by the withdrawal of Ask, the winner of the first race of the series. The Ask withdrew because she fouled the Vim. The action of her owner in voluntarily surrendering the opportunity of taking the race was generally hailed as a most unpopular sportsmanlike act.

The Tilly VI (German) was the second boat to cross, but a protest was entered against her by the Wannsee (German) because of a buoy which was alleged took place on the line just as the boats started. The matter was taken up by the racing committee and a decision will be announced Saturday.

The Columbia (American) was the third boat across the line, five minutes and 35 seconds behind the Tilly. Next came the Wannsee, 61 seconds behind the Columbia, while the German Yacht Club brought up the rear nearly two minutes astern of the Wannsee.

The race was practically a contest between the American boats Vim and Ask, and it has been many a day since the spectators witnessed a yacht race as closely and cleverly fought.
