ANOTHER LARGE CROWD ATTENDS HORSE SHOW

(Continued from First Page.)

Longhorns, an official of the show; Colonel C. C. Vaughan, of the Seventy-first Regiment; Colonel H. C. Marshall, of Portsmouth; Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk; Mr. John Stratton Williams, of this city; Mr. H. M. Jarrett, of the Lynchburg bar; Mr. D. W. Sale, and former State Senator Tom P. Hulcey, of Lynchburg, and many others.

Despite the chilly temperature, the brick building was very comfortable, especially to those who wore not too chilly clothes. Many of the ladies wore wraps, however, and not a few gentlemen wore their overcoats.

DETAIL STORY OF SECOND NIGHT

The bugle sounded on time at 7:30 o'clock, and Master Joe Allen, looking immaculate in white breeches, black stockings and silk hat, cleared the ring once from the ring.

Little Miss Anne Gray, riding her "Pinch," was the first to obey the summons, followed by Mr. Nolting's "Jan Dan," ridden by Master Worsham Beattie, and Mr. Osborne's "Super Mack," ridden by Master Harry G. Beattie.

The three made up the small class of small ponies.

Little Miss Gray made a wonderful show up. Pinch, like a veteran, "Jan Dan" gave her little trouble, and around he canter.

The way a pony can "pull" with a young lady's hand to Mr. Howard's "Hie Mistress" and "Hand to Mouth" Ellen.

The crowd filled the ring, and gave the winner a good round of applause.

Over the Jumps.

Great interest in the number of vacancies left in the jumping class. Four horses had been withdrawn, leaving only six to contest. Mr. Morgan's "Rip" was the first over the jumps, followed by Mr. McGrann's "Hurlbert," Captain Jno. H. Wilson's "Worsham," Mr. Vanderbilt's "Wood Thrush" and Dr. Pierce's "Black Jack."

Black Jack went with two rails, followed by Mr. McGrann, who had three rails up.

Mr. Morgan's "Rip" was the only one to go through the jumps without knocking down a rail.

Captain Wilson's "Worsham" was the last to go, and he had two rails down.

Mr. Howard's "Hie Mistress" was the only one to go through the jumps without knocking down a rail.

Black Jack went with two rails.

Mr. Howard's "Hie Mistress" and Mr. McGrann's "Hurlbert" were the only two to go through the jumps without knocking down a rail