Lewis—Segar.

Schlater, Cornelia Lindsay, May Tabb and Cornelia Segar, of Hampton; Miss Katherine Kratzer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Virginia Nottingham, of Cape Charles, Va.; the best man, Mr. Edward B. Lewis, of Brunswick county, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Ralph Gunn, of Richmond; Joseph A. Mabide, of Newport News; Winder Segar, Selwyn E. Bickford, Richard M. Hoolier, Jr., William C. L. Taliaferro and Thornton F. Jones, of Hampton, and Dr. William Price, of Brunswick county.

The bride will come in with her brother, Mr. Arthur S. Segar, Jr. She will be gowned in white crepe de chine and carry lilies of the valley. The maid and matron of honor will be attired in white Japanese silk, and have arm bouquets of white moth chrysanthemums. The eight bridesmaids will be gowned in white silk and carry yellow chrysanthemums.

On Tuesday evening after the church rehearsal, the bridal party will be given a reception by Dr. and Mrs. William Herndon Pearson, of Hampton. Mrs. Sue Segar, the mother of the bride, will entertain the party at a reception after the ceremony.

The bride and groom will go North for their wedding trip.

Newton—Oliver.

Mr. Willoughby Newton, formerly of Richmond, and now of Bristol, Va., was married to Miss Alice Oliver, of No. 1809 First Street, Louisville, Ky., on Tuesday, October 16th, at the home of the bride, by the Rev. John H. Mason.

Owing to recent affliction in the family of the bride, only the nearest relatives were present.

Those from a distance in attendance were Mrs. Maxwell and little daughter, Margaret, of San Antonio, Texas; Mr. H. W. Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Newton and Mr. Otway Byrd Newton, of Bristol, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stanard, of Richmond, Va.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Newton left for a bridal tour, including a visit to Richmond and Norfolk. They will be at home after the 1st of November in Bristol, where Mr. Newton is superintendent of the Crescent Iron Works.

Mrs. Newton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oliver, formerly of Texas, recently removed to Louisville, and Mr. Newton is the son of Mrs. John H. Newton and the late Bishop Newton, of this city.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Anne Gordon Keith to Mr. Edward M. Sollman, of Warrenton, Va. Miss Keith is the daughter of the late Johan Keith, of Woodburn, a sister of Mr. Thomas B. Keith, of Leesburg, Va., and a niece of Judge James Keith, president of the State Supreme Court. Mr. Sollman is the son of the late Luther Sollman, of Richmond, and a nephew of Judge E. M. Sollman, of Warrenton. The marriage will take place in St. James Episcopal Church, Warrenton, on December 12th.

Johns—Herndon.

The wedding of Miss Mary Lewis Herndon to Mr. James Edward Johns will be celebrated at 11 A. M. on October 24th, in St. John's Episcopal Church, the Rev. C. Ellis Mead officiating.

Miss Herndon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Herndon, and her fiance is the son of Mrs. T. L. Johns and the late T. L. Johns, of this city.

Miss Dora Joyner will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. William Herndon will be best man to the groom. The ushers will be Messrs. John Udriet, Nelson Fletcher, Luther Blankenship and Norman Duggins.

MISS MARY LEWIS HERNDON.

Miss Herndon's marriage to Mr. James Edward Johns will take place in St. John's Episcopal Church, October 24th, at 11 A. M.

WOMAN'S MEETINGS.

The Helping Circle.

The annual convention of King's Daughters of Virginia will be held in Portsmouth from October 23d to October 25th inclusive, of this month.

The Helping Circle of King's Daughters, in Richmond, at its last meeting elected Miss Hattie Williams and Mrs. E. H. Bell as delegates to the State Convention.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Leigh Street Church held the first regular meeting of the autumn in the committee room of the church on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Sarah Allen, president; Mrs. Woody, first vice-president; Mrs. Everett Perkinson, second vice-president; Mrs. James H. Lester, secretary; Mrs. Everett Britton, assistant secretary; Miss Juliet Woody, treasurer; Mrs. James H. Allen, financial secretary; Mrs. West and Mrs. Allen, purchasers, and Mrs. Hooker, distributor.

Talk at Art Club.

The talk at the Art Club on Tuesday afternoon will be on "Greek Sculpture." Tea will be served from 5 to 6 o'clock, by Miss Elizabeth Hammond.

Art Appreciation.

The beginning of a series of studio talks to be given by Miss Moselle Dibrell Appleton, of No. 12 East Main Street, was given last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will be followed each week at the same time.

The talk last week was on "Art Appreciation," and was practical, suggestive and helpful. Afterward tea was served informally by Miss Dibrell, and a social hour was much enjoyed by those present.

School of Expression.

Mrs. Thurston's School of Expression will give an attractive dramatic entertainment in Belvidere Hall at 8:15 o'clock, on the evening of Thursday, October 25th. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the building fund of West End Christian Church. It is hoped that the entertainment, the program of which will be specially enjoyable, will be largely attended.

Rebekah Peterkin Circle.

At a meeting of the Rebekah Peterkin Circle of King's Daughters, Mrs. George T. King and Mrs. Charles Gillis Taylor were elected delegates to the King's Daughter's convention meeting in Portsmouth, Va., next Wednesday, October 24th. Mrs. King will represent the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital.

Several circles of this order throughout the State will give most substantial aid to the institution.

The Sheltering Arms board has decided upon the 7th of November as Donation Day. As the hospital is in great need, it is hoped the response will be liberal.

Dance at Northside.

Several of the young ladies of Northside will give a dance at Northside Hall, on Thursday evening next, for the benefit of the Northside Citizens' Association.
