LIQUIDATION IN SOME ACCOUNTS

Particular Damage Was Done to Prices of the Trans-Continental Railroad Stocks.

BANK STATEMENT STRONGER

Cash Gain Reaching Nearly $3,000,000—Estimates Did Not Exceed One Million.

NEW YORK, November 24.—A liquidating movement in speculative accounts developed in the stock market to-day which attained considerable proportions during the course of the two hours' session. Particular damage was done to prices of the trans-continental railroad stocks, owing to the extensive advances which had occurred previously in their prices. The action of Great Northern preferred since the announcement of the plan of participation in the ore contract rights, and the course of the quotation for the rights when issued on the curb market have had a bad effect upon speculative sentiment. The evidence that speculation had been overdone in that case arouses uneasiness over the outcome of other speculative factors which have been followed with confidence on very vague information. Some apprehension finds expression over the adjustment of loans in which Great Northern preferred figures as collateral when the ore rights come off the stock, the suggestion having found circulation that banks will require additional collateral and will be unwilling to accept the beneficiary certificates to make up the gap, owing to the inactive market which may exist for them when separated from the stock itself. The consideration of the recent wide decline in Standard Oil in the outside market had an important effect on sentiment, although that stock was supported to-day. The bank statement was stronger than was expected in the matter of cash gain, the addition to reserve reaching nearly $3,000,000, against estimates which did not exceed a million for the maximum. The $4,000,000 loan expansion in the face of the supposition that interior banks were lending freely here during the week was not so well liked. The market rallied on the appearance of the statement, but the higher prices induced resumption of the liquidation and caused the severe break in prices from which there was only slight recovery. The closing was weak. Total sales of bonds par value, $876,000.

Total sales stocks were 428,600 shares.

NEW YORK, November 24.—Money on call nominal; no loans. Time loans very dull and strong: sixty days, ninety days 7 bid; six months 6 bid. Prime mercantile paper 6@6 1-2 per cent. Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85@$4.8575 for demand, and at $4.82@$4.8250 for sixty day bills, posted rates $4.81 1-2 and $4.86 1-2. Commercial bills $4.80 1-4@$4.80 3-4. Bar silver 70 1-4. Mexican dollars 54 1-4. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds irregular.

LYNCHBURG TOBACCO MARKET.

Lynchburg, Va., November 24, 1906.

Sales of loose tobacco on the Lynchburg market for the two weeks ending November 23, 1906, reported by John L. Oglesby, of Lynch's Warehouse:

Sold week ending November 16th, 339,500 pounds; sold week ending November 23d, 906,700 pounds; increase for week ending November 23d, 456,200 pounds.

Sold from September 1, 1906, to November 23, 1906, 3,375,300 pounds; sold from September 1, 1905, to November 23, 1905, 2,836,600 pounds; increase for 1906, 548,700 pounds.

The receipts the past week have been quite heavy, and were composed of the common and medium grade. The condition was fairly good, except there was some mould on many lots. The size of the leaf was very good, but the quality, color and texture was considerably off, which was the result of the very wet season for maturing, housing and curing the tobacco crop. The prices were rather higher on all grades than last week, and was generally satisfactory to the planters.

The quotations were as follows:

Primings	$3.00	@	$5.00
Lugs	4.00	@	5.00
Leaf, common	5.50	@	6.50
Leaf, medium	8.50	@	9.00
