SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

I miss thee everywhere,
The places dear to thee
Familiar shadows wear
As if for memory;

And where thou hast not been,
Thou seemest to repose
As near, tho' never seen,
As fragrance to the rose.
—John B. Tabb, in December Harper.

Lacy—Dickins.

The marriage of Miss Dora Braxton Dickins, daughter of Mrs. D. B. Dickins, to Mr. Benjamin Watkins Lacy, took place last evening at 6:30 o'clock in the home of the bride, No. 115 North Lombardy Street. The Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, was the officiating clergyman.

Beautiful decorations were in yellow and white chrysanthemums and palms.

Miss Virginia Dickins, of St. Louis, Mo., as maid of honor, and Mr. Lane Lacy, as best man, were the only attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy will make their home in Rome, Ga. The groom is the son of the late Judge B. W. Lacy, of the Supreme Court of Virginia. For some years Mr. Lacy lived in Richmond.

Among those who came from a distance to attend the marriage were: Dr. and Mrs. James H. Garlick, of Staunton, Va.; Miss Semple, of Louisville, Ky.; the Hon. A. C. Braxton, of Staunton, and Colonel Randolph Dickins, of the United States Navy, the uncle of the bride.

Robinson—Montague.

A very pretty marriage took place last afternoon at 6 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian Church, when Miss Inez Montague, daughter of Mrs. Percy Montague, became the bride of Mr. James Taylor Robinson, the Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil, pastor of the church, officiating.

Miss Mary Willie Smoot was at the organ, playing the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," as the processional, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional.

Miss Marion Lee Montague attended her sister as maid of honor, and Mr. Joseph Taylor was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Neville and Percy Montague, Jr., Walter Taylor, J. Ross McNeal, of Norfolk; Robert Alsop and William Turner.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline. Her veil was caught with sprays of lilies-of-the-valley, her ornaments were pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor wore a dainty gown of white mull with a yellow satin girdle, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

After December 15th, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home at No. 116 West Avenue.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: Miss Frances Moncure Lyon, of Baltimore; Miss Edmonia Fitzhugh Lawrence, of Washington; Miss Nancy McClelland, of Washington, and Mrs. Samuel Lyon, of Baltimore.

Peake—Taylor.

The Third Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, November 28th, at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Lewis Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Watt Taylor, became the bride of Mr. William Turner Peake, of Churchland, Va. The Rev. Dr. H. B. Eggleston, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was prettily decorated with palms. Mr. Minetree Wells presided at the organ and rendered the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March after the ceremony.

Miss Lucy M. Taylor, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and was charmingly gowned in white crepe de chine, with a white picture hat, and carried pink roses.

Mr. Richard Peake, of Portsmouth, was best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Leo Meagher, Arthur Lipscomb, Ernest King, of Portsmouth, and Henry C. Taylor.

The bride, who entered with her father, wore a stylish going-away gown of brown chiffon broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried bride roses.

The bride's mother was handsomely gowned in black silk, with jet ornaments. Mrs. J. B. Elam was in black lace, and Mrs. R. H. Roberts, Jr., wore a beautiful creation of duchess lace. Miss Jackson, of Petersburg, who is Miss Lucy Taylor's guest, wore a charming gown of pale gray crepe de chine.

The bridal party was informally entertained in the bride's home, No. 2717 East Grace Street, Tuesday evening, when a magnificent array of wedding presents was shown.

After a Northern tour Mr. and Mrs. Peake will be at home in Churchland, Va.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. King, of Park View, Portsmouth, and Miss Julia Peake, of Churchland, Va., with both sisters of the groom; Miss Gertrude Armistead, of Churchland, Va.; Miss Jackson, of Petersburg.

McCaul—Wingfield.

Miss Genie Wingfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wingfield, was quietly married last evening at 7 o'clock to Mr. Charles Ransburg McCaul. The ceremony, which took place in the bride's home, No. 212 West Marshall Street, was performed by the Rev. T. V. McCaul, of Charlottesville, the groom's brother.

Smilax, ferns and pink chrysanthemums were effectively used to carry out the color scheme of green and pink.

The only attendants were the best man, Mr. Lewis Jenkins, and the groomsman, Mr. Richardson.

Miss Grace Shepperson played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the parlor, and "O Promise Me" during the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of dark green cloth with hat and gloves to match. Her flowers were Bride roses.

After a brief Northern tour, Mr. and Mrs. McCaul will be at home at No. 212 West Marshall Street.

Coleman—Ferguson.

The marriage of Miss Helen Ferguson, daughter of the late Robert H. Ferguson, of Leesburg, Va., to Mr. William Abbitt Coleman, of Appomattox, Va., took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. W. Foley, in Berryville, Va., the Rev. J. Harry Smith officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the bay window of the large dining-room, which was beautifully decorated with palms and chrysanthemums to carry out the color scheme of white and yellow.

Miss Margaret Clay Ferguson presided at the piano.

Miss Janet Ferguson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was gowned in white organdie over chiffon, and carried Marechal Neil roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth Rogers, of Hamilton, Va.; Florence Hewitt, of Bramwell, W. Va., and Margaret Ross, of Washington, D. C., looked charming in gowns of white mull with yellow sashes. They carried long-stemmed yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride's niece, little Miss Virginia Hanson Foley, was flower girl and made a pretty picture in her white silk frock, with a yellow sash and a bunch of white carnations.

Mr. James Pitt Dillard, of Lynchburg, Va., was best man, and the groomsmen were: Messrs. Benjamin F. Oden, of Washington, D. C.; George Coleman, brother of the groom, of Appomattox, Va., and John D. Hewitt, of Bramwell, W. Va.

The bride entered with their brother-in-law, Mr. James W. Foley, by whom she was given away. She was beautifully gowned in a princess dress of white organdie over taffeta. Her veil was fastened by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered the bridal party and their friends.

After a Northern tour Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will be at home in Appomattox, Virginia.

Guests from a distance attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strother, Miss Chappelear, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Green, of Fauquier county, Va.; Mrs. Alfred Ferguson and Miss Belle Ferguson, of Winchester, Va.; Miss Vivian Coleman, of Appomattox, Va.; Miss Margretta McGhee, of Riverton, Va.; Messrs. J. F. M. and Calvert Hoore, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. O. H. Henderson, of Rockville, Md.; Mr. Norton Clagett, of Bramwell, W. Va.; Miss Kathleen Ferguson (sister of bride), of New York.

Christmas Sale.

On Monday next, December 3d, the First Baptist Church Guild will open a Christmas sale at Miller's drug store, on Broad Street.

Contributions may be sent to the store or to No. 3118 Grove Avenue.

Jackson—Littlepage.

Miss Lucy A. Littlepage and Mr. Thomas P. Jackson, of King William county, were quietly married in the presence of a few relatives Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, November 27th, by the Rev. W. A. Langhorn at his home in this city.

Dwarf Reception.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Comforter will give a most attractive entertainment—"A Dwarf Reception"—in the Sunday-school room on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Madame Petite will entertain her guests with various games, and refreshments will be served.

Committee to Meet.

A meeting of the Jamestown committee, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held in the home of Mrs. N. V. Randolph on Tuesday next. Bids are being taken for the U. D. C. building at the exposition.

Rosemary Circle.

At 10:30 o'clock, on Tuesday, December 4th, in the home of Mrs. Henry Landon Cabell, No. 211 West Franklin Street, the members of the Rosemary Circle of King's Daughters will hold a sale for the benefit of the Anne Bruce Page cot, at Sheltering Arms Hospital.

The articles offered for sale are most attractive and the ladies interested extend a cordial invitation to all interested to avail themselves of an unusual opportunity for purchasing.

Reception This Afternoon.

From 5 to 7 o'clock this afternoon a reception will be tendered by the Woman's Club to the committee of college presidents and principals of schools for girls in Virginia, who will hold their business meetings in the club audience room on Friday. This distinguished body is composed of fifteen or twenty ladies and gentlemen who are at the head of the leading educational institutions for girls in this State, and of several presidents of Northern colleges, who are to confer with them. Dr. Mark K. Benedict, president of Sweet Briar Institute, will make an address during the reception.

A large and representative audience gathered at the Woman's Club on Tuesday evening to witness the spicy little farce, "Breezy Point," which was cleverly acted by the members of the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mr. C. C. Walker, on whom too much praise cannot be bestowed for the truly artistic way in which the play was rendered.

When all did so well, comparisons would be odious, still, probably the most popular actresses were Mrs. Baldwin Buchanan, as Ashrail; Miss Sherrard Wilcox, as Fantine, and the inimitable twins as personified by Miss Mary Davenport, and Miss McCabe, of West Virginia; Mrs. C. M. Ferrell, Mrs. Chesterman, Mrs. Franklin, Miss Martha Landstreet were all excellent in their roles, as were also Misses Rebecca Walker, Daisy Boykin, Rosa Mills and Mrs. John A. Rogers, as the pretty girls.

At the reception which followed, ices were served by Mrs. H. L. Spilman and Mrs. Webster.

Reception to Visitors.

The reception to be given by Dr. James Nelson and the Alumnae Association of the Woman's College, promises to be a social event of importance in the attractive program arranged for the many prominent educators, who will be in the city on Friday, to attend the conference now being held in the interest of woman's schools and colleges throughout the State.

The reception will be held at the Jefferson Hotel from 5:30 to 7 P. M. Mrs. L. C. Tucker will have charge of the music for this occasion, and Dr. Mitchell will present the guests to those receiving, who will be Dr. James Nelson, president of Woman's College, and Mrs. Nelson, Miss Becker, Miss Orrie L. Hatcher and Dr. Charles Kent, of the University of Virginia.

Committee of Arrangemets.

Mrs. R. B. Van Buren, chairman of the committee of arrangements, will be assisted by Miss Lucy Scott, Miss Marion Forbes, Mrs. W. H. Matthews, Mrs. Sally H. Harris, Mrs. Mary B. Turpin, Mrs. L. C. Tucker, Mrs. Charles B. Winston, Misses Becker, Katherine Foster, Mrs. R. Leslie Spence, Jr., Misses Virginia Roberts and Marion Terrell.

Over two hundred invitations have been issued. Beside the alumnae, those to be present will include, among others, Miss M. L. Coke, of Hollins; Dr. M. K. Benedict, of Sweet Briar; Miss C. L. Campbell, of Westminster School, this city; Miss M. P. Duval, of the Virginia Female Seminary, at Staunton; the Rev. J. J. Scherer, of Marion Female Seminary; the Rev. H. C. Mitchell, of Martha Washington College, Abingdon, Va.; Miss E. C. Weimar, of Mary Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, Va.; Dr. W. W. Smith, of Randolph-Macon College; the Rev. H. W. Tribble, of Rawlings Institute; Dr. R. C. Hatton, of Roanoke Female College; Professor A. K. Davis, of the Southern Female College; Professor J. T. Henderson, of Southwest Virginia Institute; the Rev. James Cannon, of Blackstone Female Institute; Mrs. L. May Willis, of Chatham Episcopal Institute; Miss Dora Bryant, of Clifton Forge Seminary; Miss M. P. Davis, of this city; the Rev. William C. Marshall, of Episcopal Female Institute, Winchester, Va.; Mr. John B. Brewer, of Franklin Female Seminary; Miss Bessie P. Fitchett, of Hampton Female College; Miss Callie Campbell, of Ingleside Female Seminary; Mrs. E. B. Davis, of Englewood Home School; Miss A. D. West, of Leachwood Seminary; Miss S. D. Morris, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Porter, of Oak Grove Academy; Miss Jennie L. Peters, of Lynchburg; the Rev. E. L. Rowe, of the Southern Female Institute; Miss Kate Hunt, of Stonewall Jackson Institute; Mr. Edgar Stinson, of Woodlawn Academy; Mr. E. S. Phelps, of Bowling Green; Miss Hardlaw, of Montgomery College, and Mr. Charles E. Evans, of Randolph-Macon; also Dr. E. A. Alderman, Dr. Charles Kent, Professor Bruce R. Payne, Mr. Harris Hunt, Dr. J. S. Jarman, Mrs. A. H. Tuttle, Mr. R. C. Stearnes, Miss L. M. Snow, Dr. W. E. Hatcher, Dr. R. E. Fulton, Professor Metcalf, President F. W. Boatwright, of Richmond College, and Dr. S. C. Mitchell.

Tea for Young Girls.

Miss Willie Crutchfield made a charming hostess yesterday afternoon, when she entertained her young friends at a Japanese tea.

The parlors and dining-room of Miss Crutchfield's home, at No. 122 North Morris Street, were beautifully decorated to carry out the Japanese effect in red and yellow, lanterns, fans and parasols being used.

The receiving party stood directly beneath a huge Japanese umbrella, with tiny lanterns suspended from the handle and at intervals along the edge.

Miss Crutchfield wore a beautiful frock of Nile green crepe de chine, and the other young ladies of the receiving party each wore a different color, so that the effect was really gorgeous.

From 9 to 12 o'clock in the evening Miss Crutchfield entertained her receiving party and her gentlemen friends at progressive dominoes. Attractive markers were the tiny Japanese idols, which were dropped into beautiful little willow baskets.

Those present in the evening were Miss Lucy Witt, Miss Sylvia Augustine, Miss Mary Todd, Miss Sarah Chamberlayne, Miss Lucy Coalter, Miss Lelia Betty, Miss Helen Stagg, Miss Katherine Gun, Miss Annie Laurie Haynes, Miss Allie Nelson, Miss Louise Crump, Miss Camilla Wellford, Miss Anna Luthicum and Miss Alice Crutchfield; Messrs. William Griggs, Lewis Larus, Westwood Williams, Hugh Rose, Trevillian Turner, Walter Lefew, Hunter Camp, Fred Carrington, Wortham Spilman, Alfred Grant, William Price, Eugene Sutton, Mitchell Brown, Ernest Allen, George Betty, Larkin Glazebrook, Jr., Edward Cardoza.

General Meeting.

The General Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will meet Tuesday, December 4th, at noon in the house of the Virginia Historical Society.

Invitations Issued.

Cards of invitation have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Rush Cowherd, of Columbia, Va., for the marriage of their daughter, Eliza George, to Mr. Dabney Cosby, also of Columbia, the marriage to take place in St. John's Church on December 5th.

The bride-elect is a very handsome brunette and is extremely popular. She has many friends in Richmond, where she has often visited. Her fiance is a young man who is well known in the social and business world of his community.

In Honor of Mrs. Stellinius.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tucker Carrington entertained a number of friends in honor of Mrs. Stellinius, formerly Miss Judith Carrington, who, with her children, is spending the week in Richmond.

Mrs. Stellinius has an elegant home on Staten Island, where she spends most of the year. Her old friends are always delighted to see her in Richmond.

Will Return Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrington Mayo are now in New York, and are expected to arrive in Richmond Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Harris are spending several days of this week in New York.

Church Social.

A harvest home social will be given by the Home Mission Society of Park Place Methodist Church, in the lecture-room, Friday evening, November 30th, at 8 o'clock. The ladies having envelopes, containing the circle money for the benefit of the repair fund, are requested to bring them in on that date. An interesting program has been arranged, and refreshments will be served. There will be no admission fee, and a cordial invitation to be present is extended the congregation and friends of the church.

Mrs. Hubard to Entertain.

Mrs. James R. Hubard, of Norfolk, has issued invitations for a reception to be given on Friday evening at 9 o'clock, at her home on Freemason Street, Norfolk, in honor of Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, of this city, and Hon. and Mrs. Harry St. George Tucker.

Date of Dance.

The date of the dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Levin Joynes in honor of Miss Julia Joynes, is Thursday evening, December 6th. The dance will be given at the Richmond Hotel.

Annual Sale.

The six societies of the First Presbyterian Church will hold its annual sale on Friday, December 7th, when each society will have a separate booth.

The Ladies' Aid Society will have charge of the cake table on which will be displayed different varieties of cakes. The Gleaner, the Young Ladies' Auxiliary, the Junior and Senior Auxiliary, the Covenanters and the Junior Covenanters will all have booths, filled with beautiful and useful articles. There will also be a home-made candy table. The sale continues through the day Friday and until 11 o'clock in the evening.

Thanksgiving

BY EDITH HOPE KINNEY.
(From The Outlook.)

How oft, O Lord, do we forget to pay
Our tithes of thanks to Thee at morn and eve;
How oft the thankful word unsaid we leave
Before Life's laden table, day by day!
Thy golden gifts we grasp, and go our way—
So used are we Thy bounty to receive.
But now, for our ungratefulness we grieve,
And grace for the whole year are fain to say.

We thank Thee, Lord, for thy great Fatherhood,
That doth with our child-waywardness forbear,
In token of Thy love's infinity.
We thank Thee for the Past, with all its good,
And for the Present, anchored in Thy care,
And for the Future, Thou alone canst see.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day.

FOR THANKSGIVING.

United States Circuit Court of Appeals Takes Recess.

The United States Circuit Court was in session for about three-quarters of an hour yesterday, and after finishing up the argument in the case, adjourned over from Tuesday until Monday next for Thanksgiving. Judge Pritchard presided and Judges Waddill and McDowell sat with him.

The case argued was that of the Palatine Insurance Company, appellant, vs. Katherine T. O'Brien, appellee; appeal from the Circuit Court at Baltimore, Md. Continued from yesterday, further argued by John J. Donaldson, of Baltimore, Md., for the appellant, and submitted.

Judge Goff left a few days ago for his home at Clarksburg, W. Va. Judge Pritchard left yesterday for Washington, and Judge McDowell last night for his home at Lynchburg. Clerk Henry T. Meloney and Deputy Clerk Claude M. Dean will spend Thanksgiving in the city.

The court will meet Monday next at 10 o'clock, and will likely remain in session between December 15th and 20th, which will make it the longest session ever held in the history of the court. The business of the court is growing very rapidly.

Frank D. Zell yesterday filed the bond of $50,000 required by the court on Monday.

INSURANCE ADJUSTER.

Mr. Robert M. Friend to Open Independent Office Here.

Mr. Robert M. Friend, of Atlanta, is now in the city, being here to arrange for the opening of an office for the adjustment of fire insurance losses in this section with the beginning of the new year.

Since the recent death of Mr. Robert L. Campbell, there has been no one in the independent adjustment business in Richmond, and Mr. Friend proposes to establish an office. The agency will operate in Virginia and North Carolina.

While he has been in the South for the past twenty years, Mr. Friend's home is in Petersburg. He has been often in Richmond from time to time, and is well and favorable known here.

New Carolina Banks.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—The First National Bank of Lenoir, N. C., has been authorized to begin business, with $50,000 capital. T. J. Lutz, president; J. B. Atkins, vice-president; O. P. Lutz, cashier.

We Are Thankful

to announce our birthday. OUR BEAUTIFUL RICHMOND STORE is one year old to-day. We are thankful to our good friends—the public of Richmond—for their loyalty in helping us to make such a phenominal success.

We had determined to give Richmond a magnificent store, and have spent more than $25,000 in doing so. How well our efforts have been appreciated is proven by your liberal patronage and support.

WE FEEL PROUD OF OUR RECORD: Over 50,000 gallons Ice-Cream, and over 50,000 pounds of our famous Chocolates and Bon Bons; over 150,000 glasses delicious beverages have been served at our fountain, and thousands have dined in our beautifully appointed Cafe. This is our record for the first year, of which we justly feel proud.

THE SECRET OF OUR SUCCESS is the HIGH QUALITY maintained in every department, regardless of cost. Hundreds of thousands in different cities wherever the Guth stores are located are familiar with our superior methods—and that is why we are becoming nationally famous.

WE HAVE MANY REASONS TO BE THANKFUL, for we have more than quadrupled our business in five great cities during the past year. We have added over 500 agencies where our famous Candies are now sold in nearly every part of the United States and Canada.

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE the opening of two additional stores at 1224 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and 320 Charles Street, North, Baltimore, Md., giving us seven handsome stores in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Richmond, owned and controlled entirely by us.

FOR THE FUTURE we will be untiring in our efforts to please, and in every way add to the charms and excellence of our Richmond home.
