Played at Hearts.

Hearts was the game played at a charming card party of ten tables given yesterday by Miss Alice Nelson, of No. 1114 West Avenue, to a number of her friends.

As hostess, Miss Nelson, gowned in blue crepe de chine, was assisted by Misses Martha Fitzgerald, Elizabeth Noel, Janie Moore, Lucy Winn, Mary Todd and Daisy Wilson.

Christmas decorations with bells prevailed in the parlor where the game was played. In the dining-room the table was ornamented with a Christmas tree, a veritable Santa Claus and gayly prancing reindeer. Cakes, ices and bonbons were Christmas surprises and appeared in December colors, the cream being moulded as snowballs.

Young ladies invited were Misses Frances Wheat, Sylvia Augustine, Lucile Nelson, Willie Crutchfield, Lena Miller, Eliza Christian, Virginia Watkins, Marie Harwood, Hawsie Glazebrook, Katherine Robinson, Mary Ervin, Elizabeth Montgomery, Anne Royall, Charlotte Bemiss, Gwendolyn, Rutherfoord, Nannie Patton, Emma Conquest, Rose Archer, Anna Lanthkant, Mabel O'Ferrall, Rena King, Helen Gray Wattson, Myra Chambers, Sarah Chamberlayne, Mary Brown, Carey Valentine, Lucy Gwathmey, Katherine Cann, Josephine Elliott, Camilla Wellford, Mary Chalmers, Elizabeth Wingo, Louise Shields, Helen Tanner, Louise Watkins, Jessie Evans, Imogen Riddick, Anna Lanthe Haynes, Margaret Waddey, Virginia Fleming, Rosalie Valentine, Emily Clarke, Louise Crump, Elsie Parrish, Alice Reed, Ophelia Nelson, Laura Nelson, Agnes Nelson, Annabel Hayes and Sarah Temple, of Petersburg.

Floral Decorations.

The mansion will be beautiful as to floral decorations. Mantels will be banked in foliage plants and Boston ferns; palms will be grouped as a setting for elegant gowns and to serve as a foil to the official uniform of staff members; American Beauty roses and crimson carnations, intermingled with white Roman hyacinths, the gleam and glow of holly leaves and berries and the pearly white of mistletoe, will suggest the idea of the old-time Virginia Christmas that extended far into the New Year.

Mrs. Swanson will, in the meantime, entertain a holiday house party on her own behalf, that will include Mrs. Holt Easley and Miss Easley, of Houston, Va.; Mrs. T. M. Terry and Miss Terry, of Lynchburg; Miss Bison, of Danville, and Miss Anderson, of Alexandria.

At Woman's Club.

At the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon tea will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Tuesday being Christmas Day, the club will be closed, as usual, and the History Class will be omitted on Wednesday afternoon.

The monthly whist tournament will be played on Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

A musicale is scheduled for Monday afternoon, the 31st instant, at which time Miss Franowska Kaspar, of Washington, and Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt will be the principal artists. Miss Kaspar is most pleasantly remembered here, having sung her way into the hearts of her audiences last winter.

The Milton C. Work Whist Club will hold its regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, Tuesday being Christmas Day.

Miss Boudar's Tea.

Miss Helen Louise Boudar will give an afternoon tea on December 29th, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The receiving party will be entertained from 9 to 12 in the evening, when the gentlemen will come in.

Miss Boudar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boudar, of No. 185 West Grace Street.

The Princeton University Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs are taking an extensive holiday trip this year, giving concerts in all the leading cities on the Atlantic coast, from Baltimore to Jacksonville. The clubs travel in three special cars, and about sixty men in all are taken on the trip.

The collegians have spared neither time nor expense in order to make their musical clubs the best that have ever represented Princeton, and to judge from the manner in which they have been received in the concerts already rendered, the desired end has been attained.

With the Southern tour in mind, the men have worked hard and faithfully since the opening of college in September, and have been carefully trained by Mr. C. E. Burnham, one of the best professional coaches in the country. The glee club is composed of twenty-four voices, six to a part, and is led by Mr. Charles A. McClintock, of Pittsburg, Pa. The mandolin club is made up of eighteen pieces, with Mr. Leo C. Smith, of St. Louis, Mo., as leader, and the banjo club, of eighteen pieces, is led by Mr. George C. Duff, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Miss Booker is a special favorite of King Edward, and sang at the celebration of Queen Alexandra's birthday at Sandringham Palace on December 1st.

The celebration consisted of a dinner party, at which, besides the King and Queen of England, were present King Haakon and Queen Maud, of Norway, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Earl and Countess of Gasford, Lady Theodosia Acherson, and others of the blood royal and nobility.

Following the dinner came a concert in the Queen's honor, given in the ballroom of the palace before their majesties and their guests. His Cigar Doesn't Taste Right.

And Yet It is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Relish After Dinner, Last Night. Out of the Very Same Box, Too.

IT ISN'T THE SEGAR—IT'S THE STOMACH.

Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

Such men are usually high livers, hard workers mentally living under high pressure and high draught, and it doesn't take a great deal to disorder the stomach or render the liver torpid.

They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.

The use of these tablets is not to be confounded with the patent medicine habit. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, but are composed of the very elements which nature provides the healthy stomach to do the work of digestion—pepsin, diastase, golden seal, etc. There is no secret in their preparation;—they are absolutely pure, and therefore all the world uses them.

No matter how disordered the stomach may be, it will right itself if given the chance. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest food where the stomach can't, give the abused stomach and intestines a rest, and offer renewed strength to the worn out glands and muscles.

Brain workers can rely on Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter how tense the strain. All druggists carry them in the fifty cent packages, or if you prefer a free trial package can be had by sending your name and address to-day. F. A. Stuart Company, 71 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

LAD OF THIRTEEN AS AN INVENTOR

Has Devised Method for Controlling Switches Which May Revolutionize Block System.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 22.—Portsmouth has a boy wonder. He has invented something that promises to revolutionize the block signal system of the railway systems of the country, and the experts of the Patent Office at Washington have officially declared that it is all right.

The youthful phenomenon is Charlie Lee Key, and he is barely thirteen years of age.

He lives with his widowed mother in Park View, Portsmouth, and attends the Annex School, conducted by Miss Brittingham, in Dinwiddie Street.

Charlie is a close observer of everything. He has a turn for mathematics and a consuming love for locomotive engines and machinery of all kinds.

Early in the course of his observations Charlie decided that existing methods of controlling switches on railway tracks were cumbersome and slow, and the so-called automatic switch was an inspiration to him.

He thought very little of a switch that has to be controlled by a lever and started out to invent one that will set itself.

The details of his invention, for which a patent has been obtained, are as yet his own property, but roughly indicated, it is operated by the weight of the engine resting on the switch.

The greatest advantage claimed for the automatic switch is that it will obviate the danger of "open switches," which cause more than their share of the fatal railway collisions in this country.

Charlie is not buying any automobiles or building any castles as yet, but practical railway men who have examined the plans drawn by the youthful inventor are of the opinion that he will be able to do so if he places his invention with as much business skill as he has shown evidence of mechanical ingenuity.

CHARLOTTE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTE, N. C., December 22.—One of the chief events of the holidays, to which the society folks of the county are looking forward with great interest, is the forthcoming wedding of Miss Hazeline Paterson and Mr. Van B. The marriage will be celebrated at the home of the bride-elect's parents on the evening of the 27th, and will possess all the delightful and romantic features of an old-time country wedding.

The Southern Manufacturers' Club will tender a reception to the members of the club and their lady friends the evening of December 28th.
