RECEIVER NAMED BY HOSTILE CROWD

President Robinson, of M., J. & K. Railway, Says There Was No Occasion for Step.

NEW YORK, December 27.—Bird N. Robinson, president of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City Railroad, to-day issued the following statement:

"The appointment of temporary receivers in Alabama for the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City Railroad Company was made without any notice or intimation to any one connected with the company, the proceedings being entirely ex parte. The company is not in default in the payment of any interest due the bondholders, and is not in default in the payment of any creditor of any character or description. It has met every obligation promptly, and all preparations had been made to pay the interest due on the bonds of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City Railroad Company and the Gulf and Chicago Railway Company on January 1st, but now we understand that the court has enjoined the disbursement of any of the funds of the company.

"The company has employed counsel to take immediate steps towards the removal of the receivers and the restoration of the property to the management.

"That the proceedings have been brought by certain interests hostile to the railroad is made evident by the fact that one of the receivers, F. E. Dewey, is a discharged employe of the company.

"The earnings of the railroads are more than sufficient to meet all operating expenses and interest on obligations."

YOUNG MILLIONAIRE TO WED MRS. COX

FRANCIS BURTON HARRISON.

BURTON HARRISON IS TO WED AGAIN

His Bride Mrs. Rowland Cox, Who Secured a Divorce a Week Ago.

HAVE LONG BEEN ENGAGED

Groom Is a Virginian Whose Father Was Secretary to Jefferson Davis.

NEW YORK, December 27.—Investigation yesterday showed that Mrs. Mabel Judson Cox is absolutely free to be married to Francis Burton Harrison. A final decree of divorce in her suit against Dr. Rowland Cox, Jr., was signed by Judge Fitzgerald, of the Supreme Court, on December 20th, an interlocutory decree having been signed by Judge Newburger on September 20th.

Mrs. Cox started for Europe with her mother, Mrs. Henry I. Judson, and her sister about six weeks ago. Mr. Harrison followed them shortly afterward. News of their engagement has attracted general interest among friends of both families, as few had heard of the divorce.

Members of Mrs. Cox's family yesterday admitted that they knew of her engagement to Mr. Harrison, whom she met on a trip to the West Indies several months ago. When she returned to this city it is said, she wore a large ruby ring that was formerly the property of Mr. Harrison's wife, who was killed in the wreck of an automobile a little more than a year ago. Mrs. Harrison was a daughter of the late Charles F. Crocker. Her estate, valued at $3,092,000, was divided equally between her husband and her two children.

Henry I. Judson, Mrs. Cox's father, is a member of the Stock Exchange. He said he did not know when his wife and daughters would return from abroad.

Mr. Harrison is a son of Burton Harrison, who was secretary to President Jefferson Davis. His mother was Miss Cary, of Virginia, one of the Fairfax family, and a well known author.
