SPECULATION IS AT A STANDSTILL

Traders Tried to Boom Market by Rumors of Increase in Reading Dividends.

CALL MONEY WAS HIGHER

Dullness in Stocks Is Attributed to the Money Outlook and Labor Troubles.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Speculation in stocks was practically at a standstill to-day. The professional traders attempted to make something of the Reading dividend incident, but little success attended the efforts to revive expectations that the dividend would be increased. The trading in Reading during the first hour represented the effects of three efforts. Small was the result. The market mounted to a large proportion of the day's aggregate transactions. The price movement was almost equally insignificant. The $2,500,000 gold engaged for shipment to Paris added to the $1,000,000 which went out by to-day's steamer, was about equal to estimates.

Paris also took $1,190,000 from the Bank of England to-day. Foreign exchange showed some slight effect, but the recession was not sufficient to preclude the possibility of a continuance of the gold outgo, which has not reached the sum of $15,000,000 since the movement began.

The rate for call loans was higher again to-day, in spite of the almost stagnant condition of the stock market, and rates for time loans rose. The profound apathy with which the stock market is being treated is explained by the money outlook. The threatening prospect of labor trouble in the telegraphic field was not a help to the market, while not directly hurtful. Weather conditions reported in the crop regions continued favorable and confidence in the progress of the crops was undisturbed. Some attention was paid to ships of an intended strengthening of the naval force in the Pacific with a view of possible eventualities with Japan. The adjournment of the directors of Reading without action in the dividend resulted in a rise in Reading, but there was no revival in the rest of the market, the closing tone remaining irregular and uncertain.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $750,000. United States old 4s advanced 1-8 per cent. on call. Total sales stocks to-day, 239,600 shares.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Money on call, firm, 2 3-4@3 1-2; ruling rate, 2 3-4; closing bid, 2 3-4; offered at 3 1-4. Time loans stronger; 60 days, 4@4 1-2 per cent., and 90 days, 4 1-2; six months, 5 1-2. BALTIMORE STOCK MARKET.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 19.—Seaboard Air Line, common and preferred—Nothing doing.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The cotton market was less active to-day, sales being estimated at 200,000 bales. Fluctuations continued irregular with the close steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher. The opening was steady at an advance of 6@10 points in response to higher cables and covering of shorts. But the weather map was thought to be favorable in the main, and the early forecast called for cloudy or showery weather in the western belt, and prices eased off soon after the opening under a renewal of scattered liquidation and selling by yesterday's buyers. After declining to about the closing figures of yesterday the market was rallied during the middle session by private complaints of hot, dry weather in the western belt, and in the afternoon sold up to a net advance of 11@14 points, led by July. Shorts were buying on the advance, and there was some Wall Street bull support, but the demand was not sustained, and prices eased off during the last hour under local selling. The active new crop positions close dat practically the final figures of the previous day. Trading was mostly local, but there was some selling here at the initial advance by New Orleans and Liverpool. Exports for the day were over 3,000 bales in excess of port receipts, and so far for the season are about two million bales heavier than to the same day last year. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 7,030 bales against 5,816 last week and 5,719 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 34,033 last week and 32,102 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 2,586 bales against 1,882 last year, and at Houston 534 bales against 6,681 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed steady.

Cotton, steady; middling, 2.95; gross receipts, 305 bales; sales, 465 bales; stock, 172,059 bales.

Total to-day at all ports—Net receipts, 7,030 bales; export to Great Britain, 8,828 bales; to the Continent, 1,477 bales; to Japan, 458 bales; stock, 294,146 bales.

Consolidated at all ports—Net receipts, 20,052 bales; export to Great Britain, 13,811 bales; to France, 5,250 bales; to the Continent, 16,326 bales; to Japan, 458 bales.

Total since September 1st at all ports—Net receipts, 9,726,250 bales; export to Great Britain, 3,683,813 bales; to France, 888,228 bales; to the Continent, 3,317,081 bales; to Japan, 242,358 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—COTTON—Spots closed quiet and unchanged; middling, 12¼c.; sales were 500 bales on the spot with none to arrive. Futures opened steady from 1@5 points below the close yesterday, more favorable crop reports having been received from various points through the belt. Later advices from Texas and elsewhere telling of continuous dry weather and damage by boll weevil, created a somewhat bullish sentiment and brought the market up. At no time was there marked tendency toward either an upward or downward move in the market, however, and the close, which was barely steady, found the active months a point below the close of yesterday.

Cotton futures closed barely steady: January, 11.74; March, 11.84; June, 12.50; July, 12.65; August, 12.44; September, 12.24; October, 11.79; November, 11.70; December, 11.71 bid.

ON THE LOCAL MARKETS

SUPPLY AND DEMAND FOR PRODUCE EQUAL.

The demand for country produce was lighter yesterday. Supply and demand were about on a par, and there was but little change in prices. Eggs were somewhat scarcer and advanced a cent on the dozen for crate lots. Fowls of all kinds were steady at former quotations. Cucumbers were in more active demand and prices advanced somewhat. All other vegetables could be had at the prices that have been prevailing since Monday's marked decline.

Fruits of all kinds are steady at former figures and are selling readily at those quotations. New potatoes are selling low enough to be in the reach of everybody.

NO TOBACCO BREAKS: SOME PRIVATE SALES.

There were no leaf tobacco auction sales yesterday, and there will be none until to-morrow when the warehouses look for good breaks. Receipts by rail are coming in for Friday's breaks already and a number of wagons will probably be in to-morrow night.

The warehousemen made a few private sales yesterday, and the commission merchants were showing samples. Some business can be done in leaf every day in the year, whether there are breaks or not.
