VANDERLIP SPEECH HAD NO INFLUENCE

Wall Street, Sensitive Heretofore, Forgot Former Warning.

STOCK MARKET STAGNANT

Prices Stable, but No Effort to Lift Higher Met Success.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Apart from the wider significance of a stagnant stock market, such as to-day, the effect on brokers who are under heavy expenses for clerk hire, high rents, and in many cases for leased wires, a dull market is generally depressing. And yet considerable encouragement of a negative kind might be derived from such a market as to-day's in the power of resistance shown to what were substantially unfavorable factors. Demand, indeed, was almost utterly prostrate, but selling orders were insignificant in volume and vibration of prices was of the feeblest. Prices are not thus sustained in a dull market held up by artificial forces. The small effect produced by to-day's advance influences is a proof of the practically stable equilibrium of the market at presence. The development that attracted most attention during the day was the engagement of $1,100,000 of gold for shipment to London to-morrow, while the movement to Paris was extended by the engagement of an additional $1,500,000. The disorders in the South of France induced liquidation for Paris account in London. Selling of securities here for foreign account was insignificant, as it was indeed for any account, but the sentimental effect of the foreign situation was considerable. The banks have lost on subtreasury operations since the last statement $4,469,000 and receipts on balance on the interior movement offset this probably less than a million. This does not count in to-morrow's shipments of $2,600,000 of gold. Last week the surplus reserve stood at only $4,514,625. The preservation of the surplus seems to depend, therefore, on a scaling down of credits. Call money rates, however, were somewhat lower than yesterday.

A tone of warning in an address by a banker whose utterances Wall Street has been sensitive to in the past seemed to be without influence. The St. Louis and San Francisco bond issues caused a weak tone in the bond department. The closing tone was decidedly firm.

Bonds were weak. Total sales par value, $796,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stock to-day, 209,800 shares.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Money on call firm; 2 1-4@3 1-2; ruling rate, 3 1-2; closing bid, 2; offered at 2 1-2. Time loans strong; 60 days 4 1-2 per cent, and 4 3-4; six months, 5 1-2@5 3-4. Close: Prime mercantile paper, 5 1-2@6 per cent.; sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.8725@$4.8730 for demand and at $4.8400@$4.8405 for sixty day bills. Posted rates, $4.84 1-2@$4.88. Commercial bills, $4.83 3-4. Bar silver, 57 1-4. Mexican dollars, 52 1-8. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds weak.

BALTIMORE STOCK MARKET.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 21.—Seaboard Air Line, common and preferred—Nothing doing.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The cotton market was not more than moderately active to-day, but after selling off to a new low point for the movement during the early session had quite a sharp rally in the late trading and closed very steady at a net advance of 3@9 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 200,000 bales. The opening was barely steady at a decline of 2@6 points in response to lower cables, and shortly afterward the active new crop months showed a net loss of the points on favorable weather reports in the western belt and a forecast for continued showers in that section. July was relatively firm, however, selling only 2 points net lower and around 11.26 for October the market was steady on covering of shorts and ruled generally steady during the balance of the session, becoming more active and firmer toward the close on buying by houses with western connections and rumors of fresh bulls support. The close was within a point or two of the best on the active months. Twenty-five points in Texas, according to the detailed reports of the Weather Bureau, reported precipitation ranging fro mabout .02 to3.00 inches. The intensity for the week was smaller than estimated, according to the New York figures, at 37,816 bales against 53,966 bales, and expectations of bullish visible supply figures may have had some influence during the afternoon.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 2,879 bales against 4,478 last week and 6,368 last year. For the week 28,600 bales against 34,035 last week and 32,102 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 803 bales against 996 last year, and at Houston 218 bales against 1,357 last year.

Cotton futures opened barely steady and closed very steady.

Spot cotton closed firm; middling uplands, 12.85; middling gulf, 13.10; sales, 795 bales.

Cotton, firm; middling, 12.85; gross receipts, 50 bales; sales, 795 bales; stock, 167,640 bales.

Total to-day at all ports—Net receipts, 2,879 bales; export to Great Britain, 2,622 bales; to the Continent, 4,395 bales; to Japan, 168 bales; stock, 365,527 bales.

Consolidated at all ports—Net receipts, 25,727 bales; export to Great Britain, 33,745 bales; to the Continent, 23,703 bales; to Japan, 626 bales.

Total since September 1st at all ports—Net receipts, 9,731,925 bales; export to Great Britain, 3,773,747 bales; to France, 888,228 bales; to the Continent, 3,324,458 bales; to Japan, 242,473 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, June 21.—COTTON—Spots closed steady and unchanged; middling, 12¾c. Sales were 1,450 bales on the spot and 50 to arrive. Reports of general showers in Western Texas proved of great benefit to the growing crop, causing the future market to open at a decline of 7@9 points as compared with the closing yesterday. Later weather reports were to the effect that while rain had proved of much benefit in Western Texas, that it had been injurious to the crop in North Texas, and a reaction set in, which ultimately ended in bringing all the active months up to a position 11 points above the close yesterday, discouraging crop reports from other sections and a better spot demand also serving as factors in the general absence. July shared to the extent of 5 points of the advance that marked other months, and at the close, which was steady, was 5 points below the close yesterday.

Futures closed steady. Closing bids: July, 11.76, March, [illegible]; June, 12.35; July, 12.55; August, 12.40; September, 11.22; October 11.78; November, 11.70; December, 11.72.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Increased shipments of wheat from Argentina and continued favorable weather for the crop in this country and Canada had a depressing effect to-day on the local wheat market. Prices at the close, however, showed little change, the September delivery being down only a shade. Corn was off ¼@⅜c. Oats were up ¼@⅜c. Provisions were 2½c. lower to 7½c. higher.

ON THE LOCAL MARKETS

LEAF TOBACCO BREAKS WERE LARGE

The leaf tobacco breaks yesterday were large for this season. All the houses had good breaks and the sales aggregated 65,000 pounds. Though there was some damaged stock in the breaks, the offerings as a whole were of superior working grades. Good fillers predominated, and they sold well, the manufacturers being eager for that kind of stock. Many first-class wrappers also showed up, some going as high as $44.

W. D. Butler & Co., of Stonewall Warehouse, sold 26,320 pounds at an average of $10.78 per hundred pounds. C. D. Mahon sold some splendid wrappers at this house, for which he got $44, $40 and $33. He sold some fillers at $11.50 and $10.75. Joseph B. Martin got $35 and $25 for his wrappers. E. G. Pitts sold at $25 and $20. E. W. Wright realized $31 and $24.50. J. H. Hecke sold at $27, and H. J. Motley sold three lots at $21, $34 and $37.

PRODUCE MARKET IS ACTIVE WITHQUT CHANGE

There was but little change in the produce market yesterday. Receipts, which are always large on Fridays, were about on a par with the active demand, and business was good all day on the block.

Fowls of all kinds, especially spring chickens, are more plentiful, and the figures are low enough to allow everybody to eat broiled chicken. Eggs are a little scarcer, but the prices have not advanced any. The warm weather of the past few days has brought many vegetables in the nearby gardens to perfection, and as a consequence the figures for these goods on Cary Street are weakening some, but the changes so far are only fractional, except in the matter of potatoes.
