NORFOLK, VA., August 7.—By bunching hits and taking advantage of the misplays of the opposition in the first inning this afternoon, Richmond won from Portsmouth 3 to 2.

Portsmouth made a strong effort to regain the lost ground in the third inning, and again in the seventh, making one run in each of these innings; but Carter and Long, who did the pitching for Richmond, stopped the run-getting there. Hallman, the Portsmouth twirler, was in great form, and pitched a game that wins nine times out of ten. With proper support in the first inning he would have shut out the visitors. The score:

Portsmouth.

SHOEMAKERS WIN IN BOTH GAMES

LYNCHBURG, VA., August 7.—Lynchburg played rings around Norfolk in both games this afternoon, winning both of them by the score of 5 to 1. The champions outplayed the leaders at every stage of the game, injecting more ginger and life into their plays, and the Crew never had a look in on the game on account of the brilliant work behind Kline in the first and Stewart in the second. Otey pitched the first game for Norfolk. While he was effective at most of the critical stages, he was very wild, walking eight men and hitting one. These, however, figured only in one of the runs.

Moore did not meet the support Otey did, and he was hit harder. In the first game Hooker's batting and the work of Evans were easily the features of the game. In the second Stewart, in addition to holding the Crew to a single and two scratch hits, found Moore for two doubles, driving in two runs and scoring the other three himself. Evans's work was again brilliant until he retired in the seventh, when a foul tip hit his injured finger.

PETERSBURG IS SLAUGHTERED

PETERSBURG, VA., August 7.—The game here to-day between the local team and The Times-Dispatch team, of Richmond, was, from a local standpoint, the worst of the season, the visitors winning in hollow style by the score of 11 to 0 in a six-inning game, which was called on account of darkness.

The visiting players hit the local twirlers at will, and the game was a procession from start to finish. Miles, the visitors' big first-baseman, did the twirling to-day, and was very effective, holding his opponents down to three measly hits, one of which was the rankest kind of a scratch.

Ellyson kept up his great hitting, and duplicated his home run drive of yesterday, besides securing two clean singles.

F. Sitterding, at short, also played fine ball for the visitors, handling all of his eight chances without a miscue.

For the locals, Thompson, at short, in spite of his errors, played fast ball. The game which was to have been played to-morrow between the same teams has been canceled.
