BASEBALL RESULTS, NATIONAL, STATE, LOCAL

and had not Salve grasped the situation quickly and run to the rescue the game would have been a goner.

Loos also pitched a very good game, but the seven hits he allowed were good for eleven bases and were bunched, and came in close sequence to a batter hit in one case and a base on balls in the other, both of which blossomed into runs. After the third inning he steadied down and pitched a fine game. While both teams played cleanly and without error, the first game was devoid of sensational fielding for lack of opportunity, chiefly. The Portsmouth outfield got only two chances and the Colts' fielders but three during the entire game. Cowan and Carroll, catcher and first-baseman, had seventeen of the twenty-seven putouts. "Rube" Carroll, the new first-baseman, was given a warm welcome and did excellent work in both games. He made a decided hit, and was christened "Rube" by the fans.

Salve had an auspicious start, retiring the Truckers in order in the opening round. Cooke sent an easy fly to Carroll; Hevener gave Gettig a similar putout, and Siebrie tossed Sullivan's sharp bounder to Carroll. For Richmond Heffron waited for four wide ones, Reeve cleverly sacrificed him to second by a neat bunt to Loos, and he took third when Hevener retired Titman at first. Wallace's fly to left ended the inning.

In the second Salve fanned Hennager, Warren drove a long fly to Heffron, and Clark popped up one to Carroll. Richmond got in its work in this inning. Loos gave Siebrie a chunk on the arm, and Gettig attempted a sacrifice successfully, being retired by Loos, who touched him out. Carroll sent a high one to Warren, and it looked like another runless round. Cowan came up and met the situation and the ball landing for a safe drive, which scored Siebrie, Cowan going to second when the ball was fielded to the plate. Gus Salve then came up and surprised himself and everybody else most agreeably by smashing one out for two bases to left field, scoring Cowan. Heffron sent an easy one to the pitcher and was touched out. Result, two runs.

Moss began the third for the visitors by ambling to first, but Cowan threw him out at second, Reeve covering the bag. Burns fanned, and Loos was out, Siebrie to Carroll. Richmond duplicated the performance of the previous inning, realizing two more runs, in this way: After Reeve had flown out to Clark, Loos walked Titman. Bob Wallace picked out one to suit him, and slammed it to the scoreboard in right-centre, landing on third before Sullivan could return the ball, Titman scoring.

Siebrie struck out, but Gettig was the man of the psychological moment, his single to left scoring Wallace. Loos then settled down and fanned Carroll.

Fourth inning: Cooke popped up a foul to Cowan, and Hevener and Sullivan were unable to locate the sphere in three tries each. For Richmond, Cowan gave Hevener another put-out of the aerial variety; Salve was retired at Clark's corner by the second baseman, and the same energetic infielder took care of Heffron's popfly. Nothing material.

Fifth inning: Hennager flew out to Gettig, and Warren to Heffron; Clark got transportation and swiped second; Moss sent one to Carroll, which took a bad bound and is scored as a hit, the first off Salve's delivery, and this very scratchy. The hitter was immediately retired. Cowan to Reeve, on an attempted larceny. For the locals, Reeve went down, Hevener to Clark; Titman was retired, Warren to Clark; Wallace cracked out a two-bagger to the club-house, but Siebrie was touched out by Loos, who fielded his position brilliantly.

Salve gave Burns one on the shoulder-blade and he walked; Loos gave Titman a put-out on a long drive, Cooke struck out, and Hevener popped a fly to Siebrie. Gettig fanned, Carroll landed a hit in left centre, thanks to Alphonse Moss and Gaston Sullivan, who courteously allowed the ball to find lodgment on terra firma, Loos retired Cowan at first, and Salve fanned.

In the seventh Salve fanned Sullivan and Warren, and Siebrie retired Hennager at first. For the Colts, Heffron was down, Hevener to Clark; Reeve beat out a bounder; Loos fielded Titman out at first, and Salve again sliced the atmosphere.

In the eighth the visitors found Salve and gave the local fans a great scare. Big Chief Win Clark led the onslaught with a pretty bingle to right-centre, and Moss's out, Siebrie to Carroll, advanced the runner. Burns saw the opportunity to avert a shutout, and biffed a safe bounder, scoring Clark. Burns immediately stole second, and scored on Loos's timely hit to right, Loos taking second. He scored on Cooke's bingle, and Cooke attempted to score when the ball got by Cowan, but Salve was Gussie on the spot and received the throw from Cowan, retiring the runner and cutting off the run that would have tied. In Richmond's half Siebrie was out, Hevener to Clark; Gettig was hit by a pitched ball, but was cut off at second by Hevener on a drive to Moss by Carroll. Cowan retired the side, Hevener to Clark.

In their last chance the visitors gave the locals another case of nerves. Sullivan fanned and Salve fielded Hennager out at first; but Warren hammered a beauty single sacker to left. Manager Clark could do no better than send a fly to Siebrie, and the game was over. The detailed score follows:

SHOEMAKERS WIN BOTH CONTESTS

Danville Able to Score But Two Runs in Eighteen Innings.

LYNCHBURG, VA., August 17.—The Danville team was the victim in both games here this afternoon, the Champions winning the first by the score of 6 to 1, and the second by 7 to 2. The last game was called in the seventh inning on account of darkness. The Shoemakers were victors in each game on account of hard stick work and excellent fielding. The Dugs fielded splendidly in the first game, but the last one was a Chinese exhibition. In the first game Kline and Walsh were pitted against each other, and the visitors were unable to get more than two scratches up to the ninth, when Kline cased up, but retired the side quickly after two singles. Walsh was hit hard, the eight safeties on his delivery being good for fourteen bases.

Stewart allowed but one scratch hit in the four innings. He worked in the second game, but he had to retire on account of a sore shoulder. Cummings, who relieved him in the fifth, was found for two triples, resulting in one run. Errors by Kirkpatrick and Wynne in the seventh, added another to the score. Lavender was hit hard after the second inning, the seven hits being good for fifteen bases. Cooper droped two balls at the plate, which would have meant two runs less, if he had held them. All of the pitchers were hit much harder than the score indicates, as is evidenced by the fact that in the two games the visiting outfield had fifteen chances and the home team, thirteen. ## COLLIFLOWER AND BRODIE IN CLASH

Roanoke Manager and Umpire Almost Fight in Norfolk's First Game.

NORFOLK, VA., August 17.—The Tercentennials vastly strengthened their uncertain hold on the pennant this afternoon by taking both divisions of a double-header from the Roanoke colts, their nearest competitors, the first 10 to 0, and the second 2 to 0—a six-inning contest called on account of darkness. Norfolk experienced no trouble in turning the double trick. Otey was all but unhittable in the first game, while Willis was pounded by the locals regardless of mercy. The second game was a famous pitchers' battle, but the bunching of hits turned victory for the locals.

The dissatisfaction with the work of the umpires, which has been so pronounced on the local diamond during the week, was still evident this afternoon. Brodie, manager of the Roanokes, was fined five dollars and benched by Colliflower in the sixth inning of the first game. It was cloudy and dark, and it was alleged that Brodie spiked a dark ball to get it out of the game. Another dark ball was substituted. Brodie objected and threw the ball at Colliflower, so the umpire thought. He was fined. Words followed, and it is alleged that Brodie cursed Colliflower. The two men clinched for a few seconds, Colliflower being the aggressor. Brodie was next ordered out of the game by the umpire, but the two men later made up, and Brodie was back in the second game.
