COCKADE CITY IS WELL REPRESENTED

Large Delegation of Veterans at Reunion, and Military to Go.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., October 23.—The Cockade City is one of the best represented communities in the South at the Confederate Reunion in Norfolk, if many representatives and much interest can make it so. A large array of delegates from A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans and A. P. Hill Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, left for Norfolk this morning, escorting the sponsors and maids of honor from this congressional district, and early Friday morning A. P. Hill Camp itself will leave for the reunion, escorted by the Petersburg Grays, Company G, Seventy-second Regiment, Infantry, Virginia Volunteers, under command of Captain Benjamin Harrison, who to-day issued orders that the company report at the armory, Thursday evening in full dress uniform for inspection, preparatory to the trip, for which it is ordered to report Friday morning at half-past 5.

As previously stated in The Times-Dispatch, the sponsor for the veterans from this district is Miss Irma Jeffress, of Chase City, and the maid of honor is Miss Mary G. Cole, of Petersburg. Miss Nan Spotswood Jones, daughter of Mayor William M. Jones, is sponsor for the Sons of Veterans from the district, and Miss Helen W. Harrison, also of this city, is maid of honor.

Wells—Traylor.

There are weddings galore in Petersburg nowadays, and two very attractive ones took place to-day. The marriage of Miss Annie Estelle Traylor to Mr. Joseph Wesley Wells was solemnized at Grace Episcopal Church at noon, the Rev. Dr. C. Braxton Bryan, rector of the church, performing the ceremony.

The wedding was made as quiet as possible because of the recent death of the bride's father. The bride, wearing a princesse gown of crepe de chine, trimmed with princesse lace, her tulle veil crowned with lilies of the valley, and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, was escorted to the chancel by her brother, Mr. Robbert J. Traylor, who gave her away. The maid of honor was Miss Ida Traylor, sister of the bride. Mr. Everett Wells, brother of the groom, was best man, and Messrs. Vernon Wells, of Richmond, cousin of the groom, and Albert Traylor, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. W. J. Traylor, of this city. Mr. Wells is a well known young business man.

Pope—Jones.

A beautiful home wedding took place at the residence of Dr. J. Bolling Jones at 6 o'clock this evening, when Miss Louie Osborne Jones, a cousin of Dr. Jones, became the bride of Mr. Claiborne McDowell Pope. The parlors were tastefully decorated in green and white for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Frank Jones in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends of the bridal couple. The bride wore a handsome white silk gown with lace trimmings, and carried Bride roses. Miss Nan Bryor Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was beautifully attired in crepe de chine, carrying white chrysanthemums.

His Hand Ground Up.

While Thomas Gardiner, a tenant on the farm of Jacob Ruedy, in Prince George county, was feeding corn to a shredding machine yesterday his right hand was caught in the machine and so badly lacerated that amputation became necessary, the operation being performed at the Petersburg hospital.

Dr. W. F. Drewry, superintendent of the Central State Hospital, in Dinwiddie county, and Mr. Robert Gilliam, of this city, a member of the board of directors of that institution, will attend the Richmond convention of the National Association for the Study of Epilepsy. Dr. D. D. Willcox, a prominent young oculist of this city, will read a treatise on the subject of "The Relation of Affections of the Eye to Epilepsy."

Mr. Edward Harrison, formerly a well-known engineer on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, was operated on at the Petersburg Hospital to-day, and is in a serious condition.

Death of Miss Mary West.

Miss Mary West, daughter of Mr. J. Thomas West, died this morning at the Petersburg Hospital after an illness lasting several weeks. Miss West is survived by her father, three sisters and three brothers. Her mother died several months ago.

Mr. W. T. Williams, better known as "Billy" Williams, and formerly a policeman in Petersburg, died about 7 o'clock this morning out at the almshouse.

COAL TRADE NOT AFFECTED BY STRIKE OF ENGINEERS

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 23.—There seems to be every reason to believe that the strike of the coastwise engineers will not seriously affect the coal trade of this port or Norfolk. Many of the tugs which were laid up when the strike was first called have been put back in commission, and all of the companies who are short of engineers are steadily replacing the strikers with non-union men.

The steamer Chisholm and tug Coastwise, of the Seaboard Transportation Company's fleet, are still tied up at the local shipyard, but it is expected that new engineers will be signed for them in the very near future.

SLATE STRIKE SETTLED.

Agreement, Which Is Satisfactory to All, Signed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ARVONIA, VA., October 23.—Arvonia is rejoicing to-day over the amicable settlement of the great strike in the slate fields, which came last night. All the papers of agreement have now been signed by the local union here and also by all the operators on Hunt's Creek.

The principal articles in the agreements, which were signed, were fixing a 10-hour day, paying off on the Saturday nearest the 15th of each month and fixing terms for the working of apprentices in the quarries. The fact of the operators treating with the union in the matter, discussing the various points and finally signing up with them proved a recognition of the union and a desire to get on amicably with the men in every way.

The wheels in all the quarries here are about to begin again. Large quantities of slate have been uncovered by the common laborers since the strike begun on the 20th of July.

MR. ADAMS IS EXONERATED FOR KILLING LEWIS WEAVER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOYLTON, VA., October 23.—An inquest was held yesterday at the store house of Lee Adams over the dead body of Lewis Weaver, who was killed on Monday afternoon by Mr. Adams by striking him on the head with a hammer. The verdict of the jury was that the killing was justifiable, and the jury further exonerated Adams from any blame in the matter. Justice Dugger, the acting coroner, discharged Adams.

Gift to Hospital.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WINCHESTER, VA., October 23.—Colonel George H. Byrd, of New York, formerly of Virginia, to-day gave the Winchester Memorial Hospital $5,000 to be used as deemed best by its officers.

EXCELLENT RACES AT EMPORIA FAIR

Dan Patch, Jr., a Promising Three-Year-Old, Wins Trot.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

EMPORIA, VA., October 23.—The Emporia fair grounds contained a large and enthusiastic crowd, and something like thirty-five hundred people were present.

To-day's attractions proved a winner, and from present indications five to six thousand people will visit the fair to-morrow, which is designated "Emporia Day," as all the banks will be closed, to celebrate the occasion.

The free attractions are among the best seen at any fair this fall throughout the South. The balloon ascension made this afternoon by W. W. Hutchison was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

The side shows are doing good business. "Teddy," the forty-five-pound horse, pleases the children.

Iardella's Band is growing in popularity, and is always well received. The races to-day held the attention of the large crowd, and great enthusiasm was manifested throughout each heat. The harness horses did some clever work. Dan Patch, Jr, owned by A. A. Slagle, of Emporia, a three-year-old, was an easy victor to-day, and gives promise of a big winner with good handling. Rodia D., driven by George I. Palmer, of Savannah, is a good, substantial horse that is capable of doing fine work. In the 2:35 class pace, Rodia D. won first money to-day. To-morrow's races will be the best of the series, no doubt.

To-day's summaries follow:

2:35 Trot—Latonia, 4, 6, 3; Topsy B., 1, 1, 1; Alex. P., 2, 2, 2; Millie Tips, 6, 3, 5; Lit, 3, 5, 6; Rex, 5, 4, 4.

2:35 Pace—Carrie Woodnut, 3, 5, 6; Radio D., 1, 1, 1; Annie B., 4, 4, 5; Cora Wiggins, 5, 3, 4; Dadie Lou, 6, 6, 3; Daring Maid, 2, 2, 2.

2:23 Trot—Harold, 3, 4, 4; Cadet, 4, 3, 2; Ethel Bradstreet, 2, 2, 3; Dan Patch, Jr., 1, 1, 1; Bravo, 5, 5, 5.

In 5-8 mile dash H. L. Frank won.

WINCHESTER FAIR.

Large Crowds Are Attending and Financial Success Is Assured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WINCHESTER, VA., October 23.—The second day of the thirty-eighth annual exhibition of the Shenandoah Valley Agricultural Society on the Winchester fair grounds was more attractive and successful than for several years. The grounds were crowded with people from all sections of the Shenandoah and Cumberland valleys, while Frederick county farmers were there in large numbers, meeting their friends and neighbors. The judges finished their awards in most of the departments, and the premiums will be paid in full.

A feature of the fair are the drills and manouvres of Troop H, United States Cavalry, from Fort Myer, which is encamped on the grounds.

MECKLENBURG FAIR.

Immense Crowd Enjoys Races, in Which Good Records Are Made.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 23.—The turnstile at the gates of the Mecklenburg Fair this afternoon showed the record-breaking attendance of 18,000 people. The chief events to-day were the horse-races, the card showing three heats, and these were run in record time. Following are the results:

First race—2:19 pace; purse of $300—Sweetheart, by C. F. Bunch, Pleasanton, Cal., first; Doctor Zim, S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va., second, and Alton Clark, Virginia Breeding and Training Association, third. Time, 2:18 1-2.

Second race—2:27 trot; purse of $500, best three heats in five—Golden Roco, S. Walton, Falls Mills, Va., first; Possum, T. M. Arrasmith, Greensboro, second. Time, 2:24 1-2.

Third race—2:15 pace; purse of $300—Fleety Jay, Virginia Breeding and Training Association, first; Jack Gilliam, A. H. Tyson, Wilmington, Del., second. Time, 2:14.

The special event of the day was the handsome cash prize for the best buggy horse, twenty local horses entering. To-morrow is Veterans' Day and Friday night the fair will come to an end, with the marshals' ball.

THE NEWS OF CHESTER.

Rvival Meeting Closes—Visit of School Inspectors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHESTER, VA., October 23.—Rev. Mr. Whitehurst, who has been conducting a tent meeting here for the past two weeks, closed the services to-night.

State Inspector of Schools E. H. Russell and Dr. C. M. Hazen, county superintendent, visited the high school here yesterday, and were met by a number of the patrons. The school officials think they have secured a good corps of teachers for the present session. Miss Fannie Briggs, of Emporia, has been selected as a teacher at the Enon School, which, until recently has been unsupplied.

Mrs. G. E. Robertson, Mrs. Johnson McKenzie and others, of Chester, will visit the Jamestown Exposition tomorrow.

Mr. Chas. E. Peebles, agent of the Coast Line Railroad, at this place, with his wife, left here on Monday for ten days' leave, and will visit Emporia and the Jamestown Exposition while away.

NEGRO KILLS WOMAN.

Shoots Her Because She Had Money of His; Then Wanted to Shoot Himself.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CARTERSVILLE, VA., October 23.—Willie Toney (colored) was shot and killed this morning near Eades Store, in Goochland county. The shooting was done by a negro man named Sam Hughes, who gave as his reason for the deed the fact of her having money belonging to him.

After he had shot her five times he left the place and came to Pemberton. He rushed in the store and asked for bullets with which to kill himself, and said he had killed the woman. He tried to run then, but was captured and kept until he was later turned over to the authorities.

ONE GIVEN TWO YEARS AND THE OTHER SIX MONTHS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., October 23.—The Circuit Court of Mecklenburg, now in session here, has convicted Charles Jones of breaking into the store house of J. H. Wall & Son at South Hill, and stealing a lot of goods. He was given two years in the penitentiary.

John Walker, a colored preacher, who was tried as an accomplice, by reason of having concealed the goods, was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $25.

To Have School for Apprentices.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 23.—The Newport News Shibbuilding and Dry-Dock Company in the near future will establish a school for apprentices. The institution will occupy a new brick building, which has been erected to replace a frame structure that was destroyed by fire last Christmas Day.
