Norfolk Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., December 7.—Following a long season of festivities, incident to the Jamestown Exposition, without the usual midsummer hold-up in the round of pleasures, with the close advent of the Christmas holidays, Norfolk society has been dull during the past week. Those not too busy Christmas shopping are "catching" their breath before the advent of the social season that precedes the Lenten season.

The feature of the week was the second cotillion of the Senior German Club on Tuesday evening at the Ghent Club. There was a large number present, and the figures were led by Mr. Wallington Hardy. The chaperons were Mrs. Wallington Hardy, Mrs. Floyd Hughes and Mrs. Caldwell Hardy. Among those present were Misses Clara Godwin, Lucy Thom, Diana Walke, Mary Sharpe Lucy Quimby, Emily Johnston, Virginia Gray, Mary Minitree, Honoria Mitchell, Bessie Dey, Lida Martin, Margaret Pannill and Fannie Etheredge; Miss Lucrece Godwin, Miss Mary Lou Cooke, Miss Alice Kelly, Misses Marguerite and Baynie Taylor, Alice Old, Kitty Hardy, Kate Maude Ryan, Miss Alderman, of Louisville, Ky., Miss Lina Shield, of Richmond; Misses Dorothy Walke, Ena Voight, Eloise Hunter, Jean Cooke, Mary Duncan, Noble Wilson, Louise Jones, Mary Payne and Arabella Hitch; Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Mr. Neff, Dr. R. L. Payne, Jr., Dr. Winston; Messrs. Washington and John Tarber, Robert Johnston, Jr., Ned and Hugh Henry, Holt Page, Penn Turner, Phillip Prescott, Plant Osborne, Whittle Tunstall, W. H. White, Jr., Conway Sams, William Reed, John Tilton, Percy Jones, George Hatte, Fred Brockenborough, Lieutenants Coates, Bagby and Campbell; W. W. Old, Jr., Gray Tunstall, Mr. Neff, Richard Cooke, Dick Noble, Renzie Johns, Randolph Cooke, George Wilkinson, James Martin, James Goode, Sidney and Robert Hughes.

Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Freemason Street, Mrs. Victor Browne entertained at a delightful tea party in honor of her guests, Miss Browne and Miss Delk, of Suffolk. The rooms were handsomely decorated. The guests assisted the hostess in receiving. Miss Jane Lovitt, of Petersburg, presided at the punch bowl, and those assisting in serving were Mrs. William Cooke, Mrs. W. A. Allen, Mrs. Harry Riddick, Mrs. Clarence Hill, Miss Bessie Marsden, Miss Elizabeth Brooke, Miss Alice Old and Miss Delia Borum. The callers were numerous.

Miss Mary Leigh, of Botetourt Street, entertained her guests, Miss Penn and Miss White, of Abingdon, Va., with a delightful tea on Tuesday afternoon.

The following marriages of note have been heralded during the week: Miss Emma Deal to Mr. Elmer Trent, at Deep Creek Baptist Church, Norfolk county, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ethel Deal, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Meanley, of Norfolk, best man. The couple went North on a bridal trip.

Miss Nellie Lenora Jones and Mr. Joseph Dennison, both of Norfolk, were married Wednesday night at the Cumberland Street Methodist Church parsonage in the presence of a few friends.

Another marriage celebrated during the week united the lives of Miss Daisy Hartley, of London, Eng., and John H. Warden, of Norfolk.

An announcement of general interest throughout the State is the coming wedding of Miss Rosa Inez Dalby and Mr. John Linwood Morecock, at the Dalby residence, Olney Road, December 11th. Miss Dalby is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Dalby. She is one of the most popular girls in Ghent.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., December 7.—The social event of the week was the concert given in Cabell Hall at the university by David Bispham, the eminent baritone, on Wednesday night. Like the voices of Schumann-Heink, Emil Fisher and a very treasured few great singers, Bispham's art has ripened and mellowed, until now it seems to be in the very zenith of its perfection and tonal sympathy. The program opened with Handel's time honored "O, Ruddier Than the Cherry," than which there are few songs better calculated to tickle the palate, and closed with Liza Lehmann's "The Mad Dog," which has to do with the Vicar of Wakefield, and an old Irish lot of vocal legerdemain arranged by Herbert Hughes, entitled, "The Stuttering Lovers." The audience was quite a select one.

Following the recital, a reception was tendered the distinguished singer at the home of Professor and Mrs. William M. Thornton. The guests included the members of the faculty and their families, and a few members of the student body.

Mrs. Micajah Woods and her daughter, Miss Lettie Woods, left Tuesday for Birmingham, Ala., to attend the wedding of Dr. Lewis Coleman Morris and Miss Bessie Jemison, which will be celebrated on next Wednesday, the 11th instant.

Miss Anne Keith Rogers, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Louie Antrim, at "Riverside," near this city.

Mr. W. S. Rodes, who has been in charge of the Albemarle and Charlottesville exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition, has returned to his home at Afton.

The Rev. J. T. Whitley, who succeeds Dr. W. W. Lear as presiding elder of the Charlottesville District, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has reached the city, and now occupies the parsonage on Ridge Street.

Miss Maggie Myers, after a delightful stay of two weeks as the guest of Miss Mattie Thomasson, on West Main Street, returned Thursday afternoon to her home in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Lansdale, of the University, left Monday for Bristol, Tenn. She was joined at Roanoke by her sister, Miss Gertrude Pyle.

Mr. J. G. Carter and daughter, Miss Lottie, of the University, are on a visit to relatives in Washington.

Mr. Walter Sinclair, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Sinclair, on Park Street.

Miss Cary Cox, on her way from an extended trip South, spent a few days this week with relatives, and left Wednesday for her home, in Washington.

Mr. Thomas F. Norris, a graduate of the engineering department of the university, is at home from Connellsville, Pa., where he holds a position with the West Pennsylvania Railway Company.

Miss Adeline Rodes, who came home for the Thanksgiving holiday, has returned to her studies at the Woman's College, Richmond.

Misses Rosa and Mabel Goode, the accomplished daughters of Mr. Chambers Goode, of Boydton, Va., are guests of their brother, Mr. Douglas Goode, at Mrs. Rodes's, on Fourteenth Street.

Newport News Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., December 7.—Mrs. J. Stuart Lottier entertained very charmingly at cards Tuesday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Catlin, of Richmond. Among those present were Misses Ethel Cottrell, Lucille Cooper, Susie Brett, Adelaine Lapsley, Agnes Epes, Alma Barnes, Blanche Sinclair and Nannie Reynolds, Messrs. W. L. Shumate, Stribling Ballard, Jack Tignor, James Reynolds, Charles Epes, George Parker, Louis A. McMurran and Latane Gregory.

President Harry St. George Tucker, of the Jamestown Exposition, and his family, have taken up their residence at the Sherwood Inn, Old Point Comfort.

Mrs. R. Elliott Palmer, of England, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Bailey, has gone to New York, where, on December 12th, she will board a steamer for home. During her visit here, Mrs. Palmer was the recipient of a great deal of social attention.

Mrs. W. W. Harwood has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Priddy, in Baltimore.

Mrs. O. D. Batchelor, who has been visiting her mother in Lynchburg, has returned to the city.

Miss Harriet Rogers has returned to the Columbia University, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Garfield Harwood, on Thirty-third Street.

Mrs. E. J. Bailey has gone to Fredericksburg to spend several weeks.

Mr. W. J. Wyatt has returned to his home on the Eastern Shore, after a visit to his son, Mr. J. W. Wyatt, in East End.

Mr. Daniel Adams, of San Francisco, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Mr. J. H. Coleman is spending a few days at Hot Springs, Va.

Miss Helen Bowman has returned home after a visit to relatives in Richmond and Petersburg.

Mr. John Van Ryn, who for a number of years has been chief clerk in the office of the Holland-American Line, in this city, has gone to Philadelphia to accept a position in the Philadelphia office of the same company. Mrs. Van Ryn will leave in about two weeks to join her husband.

Mr. C. F. Hundley, formerly one of the leading hotel men of the Peninsula, but now of New York, is here to spend a week attending to business matters.

Miss Olive Elliot, of Alexandria, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. P. Bergen, on Thirteenth Street.

Dr. Lambert, of Charlottesville, has returned home after a visit to relatives in this city and Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Cox, of Richmond, have returned to their home, after a visit to relatives in this city.

Miss Louise Dean, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyer, on Twenty-eighth Street.

Miss Mildred Mitchell, of Tomkinsville, N. Y., is the guest of relatives in this city.

Charlotte Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, December 7.—Among the notable receptions of the week was the one tendered Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Oliver to her guest, Mrs. Joseph George Meyers, Jr., of Philadelphia. Despite the snowstorm many prominent society folks called to meet Mrs. Oliver's guest, and the afternoon was enjoyably spent.

Mrs. Charles W. Parker entertained at her home in Piedmont Park Tuesday morning, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Walter Anthony, of Williamsport, Pa., who is her guest. Among the invited guests were Mrs. T. J. Pritchett, of Virginia.

The reception given Tuesday afternoon at Heathcote, the beautiful Piedmont Park home of Mrs. B. D. Heath, was an elaborate social function, and one of the most largely attended of any that has been given in Charlotte this season. Mrs. Heath was at home in honor of her sister, Mrs. Walter C. Johnson, who was Miss Lucy Haley, of Columbia, Tenn., and who was married two weeks ago in that city. During the receiving hours several hundred of Charlotte's most prominent maids and matrons called to meet Mrs. Heath's guest and partake of her hospitality. The hall, parlor, library and dining-room were arranged in bridal colors, white and green, with no touch of any other shade, save in the library, where pink carnations added to the pretty effect. Fruit punch was served in the hall, tea and waters in the library and ice-cream and cake in the dining-room. Richardson's orchestra furnished the music.

Mrs. Walter W. Watt entertained Thursday afternoon from 4:30 to 8:30 at her home on Ninth Street in honor of her sister, Mrs. B. B. Bedford, of Ohio, and Mrs. Joseph George Meyers, Jr., of Philadelphia.

Mrs. R. C. Brunson will receive next Wednesday afternoon at home on East Vance Street in honor of Mrs. John J. Andrews.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Peter Marshall Brown received at her home on East Avenue in honor of Mrs. Walter Christopher Johnson, of Columbia, Tenn. The affair was one of the most delightful social events that has taken place in Charlotte the current season. The elegant Brown home was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and Mrs. Brown was assisted in receiving by some of the city's most prominent society folk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. L. Rea announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Maybelle Rea, to Mr. Bruce H. Voris, of Smithfield, O. The wedding will take place at the home of the parents of the bride-elect, in Providence township, the last of December.

Do People Turn Away?

You Can Be Instantly Freed from the Humiliation of Knowing that Others Detect Bad Odors on Your Breath, Arising from Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking and Eating.

Trial Package to Prove it Sent Free.

Breath perfumes do not strike at the root of the evil. They only conceal the odor for a time. But charcoal kills the gas that causes the odor, purifies the food lying in your stomach and intestines, facilitates the process of digestion, acts as a mild laxative, gives tone to the system; in short, gives you a clean bill of health. And all the charcoal necessary to obtain these results you can get in a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; price, 25c.

The uses of charcoal are many. In art and electricity it is constantly used, but it is especially valuable where absolute purity of product is required. As an absorbent and disinfectant it has no equal. That is why you will invariably find it in every water-filter.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal, with a slight mixture of honey to render them palatable. They will filter your blood for you, destroy every particle of poison and impurity, absorb all gases in your stomach, give you a sweet clean breath and relieve you from the awkward feeling you sometimes have when you detect by the expression of other people that they smell your bad breath. Many who are fond of onions avoid eating them because of the odor they leave. One of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges immediately kills this, however. The same applies to smoking, drinking or chewing.

We are so convinced that you will find these lozenges indispensable after once using them that we will send you a sample package by mail, free, if you will send your name and address to-day to F. A. Stuart Co., 260 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Danderine

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Dipped From The Stream

AN ODE TO MEMORY.

November 10, 1869—1907.

I.

As is "The Ides of March" to Caesar the great,
So, too, November the tenth sealed my fate;
For 'twas on that ever fateful day
She promised to love me, honor and obey;
And before God's altar made that solemn vow,
With orange and myrtle decking her brow.
And now her accents still within me thrill,
As she softly answered, I always will!

II.

A hundred moons have come and waned
Since those lips that promise stained,
And her promise just as soon forgot
As the fickle moonbeams on the spot
Which hallowed there our trysting place
By the sad seaside, where face to face,
She swore by the moon—by stars—by sea—
By the God above—she loved but me.

III.

Ah! time and place, could I forget!
Those eyes of love like violets wet;
Could I but weep for thee as dead!
Then this living heart of lead
Might melt in grim relief,
In tears of honest grief.
"But ah! the dreary, dreary moorland,
Ah! the barren, barren shore
Amy, Amy—mine—no more"!

At the Grave of Jefferson Davis.

(Written for The Times-Dispatch.)

Here let him rest!
Above his sleep
The quiet Southern stars
Their vigils keep.
Here let the native creeper twine
A verdent guard above his mound;
For here old Nature, mingled in her dust,
One of her noblemen hath found.

What need of bronze
To spell his deed,
That grateful, loving hearts
His worth may read?
His is no dreamless sleep of death—
Here in the land he loved so well,
The spirit of his courage still inspires,
And we in reverence feel its spell.

But raise the shaft,
And round it let
The seals of sovereign States
Their watches set.
Here, as in life, the hand that guides
Their destinies is lifted high;
Ah, who will say that cause is lost,
That baffled, points toward the sky?

LESLIE BAYLISS.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2, 1907.

IN JAIL.

By Theodore Low.

Up the stairways steep, and steeper,
Guided by the Christian keeper,
Iron cages dark and dreary,
Human beings sad and weary,
All huddled close, like rats in traps,
Some wide awake, some taking naps—
A first glance view inside the jail!

White men, black men, caged men, and O
Lord save our eyes such sights of woe!
And tender boys, all under ten,
Locked up with old and vicious men!
O Lord, how long! O Lord, how long!
Break Satan's chains from boys so young!
Make all see Thy Soul's great travail!

And women, too? Yes, white and black,
Most of them young, some old, all lack
The one, the all great essential—
And lacking Christ, they so lack All!
Far are their thoughts from things sublime:
"Say, boss, a nickel—or a dime?"
Cruel paymaster, thou false Devil!

Our souls cry out, our tears do flow,
And ache our hearts to see such woe!
We fain would do, as Christ did do,
Would gladly die for sinners, too.
But yet we hear that same sad cry:
"Ye will not live, why, sinner die?
My death, for thee, is of avail!"
'Tis Sunday, bright the afternoon,
When Christ's own Light all fully shone
With'n the dark and crowded jail,
Brought in by loving Christians, frail
In their own strength, but strong in Love,
Reflecting Christ from Heaven above!
Praying that His rule will prevail!

Though foul the air, and dark, and damp,
Yet now 'tis Light through Jesus' lamp,
The organ plays, a child's voice sings,
A Gideon the Message brings
From Jesus Christ to each sad heart,
Which tells them of that better part—
Freedom from self, and all evil!

Papers and books brought the ladies;
Bright flowers, too, gladden the sad eyes,
Heart prayers ascend for each sick soul,
Asking Jesus to make them whole.
O men, like wild beasts shunned and caged!
Come claim the Law, that you've outraged,
And freedom get, The Christ's your bail!
