At the Richmond Bazaar

I will have one hundred and fifty (150) horses and mules for next WEDNESDAY'S SALE, JUNE 24TH, consisting of Southern chunks, heavy draft, general purpose horses, and, in fact, any kind desired. The most of them will be fresh, arriving next Monday. The mules run in size from 900 to 1,300 pounds; good kind.

Be with us if in need, as you can be suited in any kind you may want. We are holding our sales on Wednesday now and will continue to do so until September. Smyth Bros. are dividing the day with me, one selling one-half day, and the other firm the other half, so as to give buyers the opportunity of attending both sales the same day.

I am satisfied that it will be to your advantage to be here next Wednesday, as there will be plenty horses and mules, and the right kind, for any demand.
