Bristol Is Now Good.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., August 21.—The inhabitants of the red light district of Bristol have suddenly vanished in obedience to an edict of Mayor W. L. Rice, who recently called the keepers of those houses to his office and notified them that they would have to vacate within a given time or be subject to a fine of $200 each and an imprisonment of twelve months.

This policy was determined upon for the reason that the city recently let the contract for the erection of a $60,000 municipal building on its square adjacent to the red light district.

Brick Plant to Rebuild.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., August 21.—The Cape Henry Granite Brick Company's plant, destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon, will be rebuilt at once, and a modern fireproof structure will arise where the woden one previously stood. The plant is located about two miles from Cape Henry, and has made quite a success in manufacturing granite-colored brick from the white clay of that section. Architects have been engaged to draw the plans and specifications for the new structure.
