SPECULATION AT HAZARDOUS STAGE

Sequel to Market's Performances Opens Eyes of the Conservatives.

NEW YORK, November 11.—To-day's sequel to yesterday's market performances in the two Harriman Pacific stocks opened the eyes of the more conservative element to the fact that the speculation was entering on a reckless and hazardous stage. Then came a pause to take stock of the situation, and a development of greater caution in the conduct of market operations, which was shown by the evident lessening of speculative holdings and decline in the rates of activity in the market.

There was a belief prevalent in the financial district that these results were caused to some extent by regulative measures amongst the large financial interests. Sales of Southern Pacific recorded to-day numbered 183,200 shares, on which the price fell back to 114 3-4, closing at 116. The two days' dealings in Union Pacific reach a total of 460,200 shares, with a total capitalization of 1,954,879 shares. It was the reasoning from these facts that caused a hasty unloading of speculative holdings and invited professional attack, which broke the market.

News from all quarters continued uniformly favorable. The time money market continues to harden, and there is reported a notable increase in the supplies of mercantile paper reflecting the enlarged activities of the jobbers and manufacturers. A date was fixed to-day for the sale on November 23d of $12,500,000 of 4 per cent. corporate stock of the city of New York.

A widespread general demand continued in evidence and helped to absorb the profit-taking. Foreign markets were relieved by the clearing of the international outlook. Vigorous supporting measures were employed at all stages of the selling, showing the continued control exerted by the organized forces on the speculation.

Low priced stocks were strong at various periods of the day, some gains reaching to substantial proportions.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $4,728,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales to-day, 1,641,600 shares.

NEW YORK, November 11.—Money on call easy, 1 3-4@2; ruling rate, 1 3-4; closing bid, 1 1-2; offered at 1 3-4; time loans firm and quiet; sixty days, 3 1-4; ninety days, 3 1-2@3 3-4; six months, 4 per cent. Closing bid: Prime mercantile paper, 4 to 4 1-2 per cent.; sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills, at $4.8365@$4.8375 for sixty-day bills, and at $4.8570 for demand; commercial bills, $4.84 3-4; bar silver, 50 3-8; Mexican dollars, 45.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, November 11.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled to-day with the close barely steady at a net decline of 6@9 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 1 point, which was just about as due on the cables, and during the first few minutes the active months sold 1@3 points net higher on over-night buying orders and scattered covering. But as soon as local bears saw that hedge selling and selling against purchases in Liverpool was in sufficient volume to supply immediate demands, offerings increased, and the market weakened, reaching the lowest point during the late trading, when it was remembered that one of the leading English statisticians had estimated the crop at 13,550,000 bales. The close was at practically the low level of the day. The difference between Liverpool and New York at the opening of the latter's market this morning was the smallest for the season, and a good part of the selling was supposed to reflect undoing of old straddles. Southern spot markets as officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c. lower. Wall Street bulls were much less in evidence to-day, but still professed confidence in ultimately higher prices. Receipts continue heavy, and there has probably been some selling in expectation that the next census report will make a bearish showing.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 75,935 bales against 62,544 last week and 36,204 bales last year. For the week 430,000 bales against 482,433 last week and 257,242 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans were 8,651 bales against 17,594 last year and at Houston 25,921 bales against 10,135 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

Cotton, quiet; middling, 9.30; gross receipts, 5,737 bales; sales, 1,500 bales; stock, 76,270 bales.

Total to-day at all ports—Net receipts, 75,935 bales; export to Great Britain, 7,000 bales; to France, 3,611 bales; to the Continent, 27,144 bales; to Japan, 1,300 bales; stock, 882,007 bales.

Consolidated at all ports—Net receipts, 315,399 bales; export to Great Britain, 87,818 bales; to France, 20,404 bales; to the Continent, 86,297 bales; to Japan, 1,300 bales.

Total since September 1st at all ports—Net receipts, 3,395,622 bales; export to Great Britain, 772,709 bales; to France, 247,926 bales; to the Continent, 1,098,747 bales; to Japan, 11,447 bales; to Mexico, 3 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, November 11.—COTTON—Spot cotton easy at a decline of 1-16c.; middling, 8⅞c. Sales were 2,100 bales on the spot and 1,000 to arrive. Futures opened steady, 1 point up to 2 points off. Extreme dullness ruled all day, under which prices sagged, and the trading was mainly professional in character. The decline continued until prices were 10 points down from the top. A feature of the afternoon session was a bearish crop estimate from a very prominent London cotton house, which aided in keeping prices down. At the close the market was steady with prices showing a net decline of 6@8 points. Closing bids: November, 8.80 nominal; December, 8.73; January, 8.70; February, 8.73; March, 8.76; April, 8.79; May, 8.84.

OCTOBER EXPORTS

Those of New Orleans Show Evidence of Renewed Prosperity.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., November 11.—Evidence of renewed prosperity throughout the Mississippi Valley was presented to-day in the publication of the amount and value of exports at the port of New Orleans for the month of October, 1908.

The total value of all exports at this post during the period mentioned was $12,884,029, an increase of more than $4,000,000 over October, 1907. It exceeds that of the month of October during every year since 1900, except 1906.

Entertains at Luncheon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 11.—Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, of the Republican National Committee, was one of a number of guests entertained by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt at luncheon, the other guests being the British ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Wright, Vice-President-elect James S. Sherman, Robert J. Wynne, consul-general at London, and Mrs. Wynne, William L. Ward, Republican national committeeman from New York; Timothy L. Woodruff, Republican State chairman of New York; Seth Lowe, of New York; William Berri, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean and Dr. Albert Shaw, of New York, editor of the Review of Reviews.

While it had been understood that the luncheon was to be of a political nature, the edge was taken off of it by the inclusion of a number of other guests. However, the New York politicians remained with the President after the others had departed, and with him discussed politics.

Band Can Compete.

WASHINGTON, November 11.—The Marine Band will be free to play for compensation without regard to the statute providing that navy bands or members thereof shall not receive remuneration for furnishing music outside the limits of military posts when in competition with local civilian musicians. This is the effect of a decision rendered by the Attorney-General and received by the Secretary of the Navy to-day. The Attorney-General cites many decisions to show that while the Marine Corps is a part of the navy, yet it has frequently been held to be a separate institution so far as legislative enactment is concerned.

Given Life Sentence.

SAVANNAH, GA., November 11.—Solomon Reilly, a negro boy ten years old, was yesterday convicted and given a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Wilbur Torrence, at Pooler, near this city. Mrs. Torrence, for whom the boy had been working, discharged him, and the following day he secured a shotgun, returned to her home, and shot Mrs. Torrence, killing her instantly. The boy stated that he did the shooting because "she did not have any right
