IRON AND STEEL AFFECT MARKET

Great Confusion of Opinion Exists Over Results to Follow.

NEW YORK, February 19.—The latest developments in the iron and steel trade have resulted in great confusion of opinion over what consequences are to follow. This state of confusion was responsible for the lull in speculative activity in the stock market late to-day, rather than any conviction that the market had adjusted itself to the new conditions in the sharp fall in prices. The belief is common that a large waiting requirement exists in the steel trade, which will come out with signs of revival in industry. That the recently maintained level of values of the steel industrials was an artificial one in view of the state of the trade was the opinion expressed with sufficient explicitness by the price movement which has followed the knowledge of the new move by the leading authorities in the steel trade.

The liquidation of United States Steel continued on a very large scale, both for home and foreign account. The whole market was affected, but in varying degree. The copper industrials showed more sympathy with United States Steel to-day than yesterday. The Southern Pacific bond issue, although expected in an indefinite way, came as a surprise in many of its details.

The $2,000,000 to be offered proved larger than generally looked for. The two Harriman stocks were inclined to firmness after the bond issue was announced. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,716,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks to-day were 716,900 shares.

NEW YORK, February 19.—Money on call easier, 1 3-4@2 1-4 per cent.; ruling rate, 2; closing bid, 1 3-4; offered at 2 per cent. Time loans slightly easier; sixty days, 2 1-2 to 2 3-4 per cent, and ninety days, 2 3-4 to 3 per cent.; six months, 3 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3 1-2 to 4 per cent. Sterling exchange strong, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.8505@$4.8515 for sixty-day bills, and at $4.8723 for demand. Commercial bills, $4.84 3-4@$4.84 7-8. Bar silver, 50 3-4. Mexican dollars, 44.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, February 19.—The cotton market continued very quiet to-day with fluctuations narrow and the close being steady at a net advance of 1@3 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 1@3 points in response to lower cables than expected and further mail advices concerning the rains of last Sunday in Texas. But offerings were not aggressive, and shortly after the opening prices steadied up on covering by nearby shorts and commission house buying of new crop positions, which seemed to reflect continued confidence in a bullish relationship of demand to supply during the coming season. Reports of a better demand for spots for exports were circulating during the afternoon, but failed to stimulate business, and after selling about 2@4 points net higher the market showed little further feature. Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged. The intelligent figures showed a considerable falling off as compared with last week, and estimates for to-morrow's receipts were moderate, while exports for the day were heavy and offerings of cotton bills were reported in the exchange market. It is claimed that the rains in Texas were confined chiefly to Eastern sections of the State, and that important areas in the West have not had any relief of consequence from winter drought. Sales for future delivery were estimated at 100,000 bales.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 24,702 bales against 41,423 last week and 31,911 last year. For the week 145,000 bales against 201,891 last week and 140,495 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 4,155 bales against 11,115 last year, and at Houston 9,212 bales against 4,342 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed quiet but steady.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., February 19.—COTTON—Spot cotton steady and unchanged; middling, 9 7-16c.; sales on the spot 1,100 bales and 400 to arrive. Futures opened steady with prices unchanged to 1 point off. Immediately following the first call shorts who sold yesterday on rumors of general rains in Texas started to cover because the weather map showed practically no rain in the drought-stricken area in the West. The buying continued until prices were 5@6 points higher than yesterday's closing. In the afternoon session heavy exports, which caused the decrease in port stocks to appear marked, supported the market in the face of some little liquidation by longs. The closing was steady with prices at a net advance of 2@3 points. Closing bids: February, 9.42 nominal; March, 9.52; April, 9.52 nominal; May, 9.60; June, 9.65; July, 9.71; October, 9.35.

Dun's Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, February 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say: Improvement in the structure of business is much more pronounced than it has been in the activity of business. While financial and political developments, both in Europe and the United States, are distinctly better, the progress toward the eagerly expected revival of trade is slow, and especially in the iron, copper and coal trades is disappointing. Cotton goods are firm. Woolen goods are chiefly active in the better grades of fancy worsteds. Continued firmness of raw material indicates little likelihood of a revision of prices in cotton goods, and some lines even show a tendency to advance, although trade generally is quiet. There is no resumption in the export demand, but the fact that China has already taken 50,000 bales since December 1, as against 80,000 bales during the entire year of 1908, materially strengthens this branch of the market.

The footwear market is decidedly dull. Mail orders are infrequent, and the jobbing trade buying only to meet immediate requirements.

Lynchburg Tobacco Market.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., February 19.—The sales of loose leaf tobacco on the local market to-day aggregated about 175,500 pounds, with the prices and conditions surrounding the breaks about as during the week. There was a considerable portion of fine tobacco on the breaks to-day, this bringing good prices, some of the weed selling as high as $25 per 100 pounds.

NEW YORK, February 19.—Directors of the Southern Pacific Company, which controls and operates the Southern Pacific Railroad, to-day authorized an issue of $82,000,000 twenty-year 4 per cent. bonds, which are convertible into common stock at $130 per share.

At the same time the directors increased the common stock of the Southern Pacific Company by $100,000,000 to provide for the conversion of the bonds.
