STOLEN JEWELRY HAS BEEN FOUND

Much of Plunder Secured by Thieves at Southern Pines Recovered.

NEGROES WEARING DIAMONDS

They Lead to Discovery of Thirty-Nine Valuable Pieces.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 3.—A small box containing thirty-nine pieces of valuable jewelry, which, together with a lot of other jewelry, was stolen from the Southern Express Company at Southern Pines, February 9, was recovered yesterday afternoon, being found at the home of a colored boy residing at the corner of East Sycamore and Clinton Streets, in this city.

Yesterday morning Mrs. T. H. Mayo noticed that the colored housegirl was wearing a beautiful diamond ring, and upon inquiry the girl said a colored boy had loaned it to her. Mrs. Mayo borrowed it and took it to J. B. Ellington, the West Market Street jeweler, who told her it was worth at least $75, and that he knew where it came from. He showed Mrs. Mayo a circular of the Southern Express Company, giving a description of the stolen jewelry and this ring was described in the list, the ring containing the same figures and letters appearing on the circular.

Mrs. Mayo told Mr. Ellington that she would go and see the girl, but would return later in the day. Instead she reported the matter to her brother, O. F. Pearce, who in turn notified Chief of Police Needley, and they instituted an investigation. They ascertained that the ring had been loaned to the girl by the janitor of the Davie Street School. They saw him and he stated that he purchased it from a negro boy who worked at Whittington Bros' store. He was found and on his finger blazed another ring. In turn he stated that he had secured the two rings from a small negro boy living on the corner of East Sycamore and Clinton Streets.

Mr. Pearce remained with the boy, and Chief Needley and the the other negro went to the above described house. Here they found the boy, who attempted to hide. His mother was accosted and stated that the articles were in a trunk.

After some difficulty the key was procured and a box containing the valuable pieces of the stolen jewelry was taken from the trunk. The boy stated that he found the box on East Washington Street last Saturday. It was lying just off the sidewalk beside a fence, and from its appearance looked like it had been lying there for several days.

Claims He Found It.

Ten days ago a strange negro answering the description of the man who was seen in Southern Pines the day of the robbery appeared in a pawn shop on South Elm Street and offered to sell a valuable ring for $2. Chief Needley was promptly notified, and he gave chase, the negro going down East Washington Street at a lively clip, and it is thought that in his flight he dropped the box, which fell in the gutter and was afterwards picked up by the negro boy.

This morning a superintendent of the Southern Express Company arrived from Norfolk, Va., and he and Chief Needley made an inspection of the jewelry recovered here and found by examining the price list that the box contained $2,150 worth of jewelry at wholesale prices.

More Jewelry Found.

When Harry S. Donnell, of the firm of Hicks-Donnell-Medearis Company, went home to dinner to-day he saw a bright object lying in the dirt at the side of the front gate of his home on East Washington Street, and stooping down he picked it up and found it to be a diamond ring. He made a careful search for several feet around the gate and found washed under the fence, and some of them buried in the leaves, fifteen pieces of jewelry of all kinds. He took them to police headquarters, and they were compared with the Southern Express Company's circular, and found to contain the numbers by which the stolen articles were designated. In the lot found by Mr. Donnell there were several beautiful diamond rings, and a rough estimate places the fifteen pieces to be valued at probably $500. The point where Mr. Donnell found the jewelry was not over twenty feet from where the boy picked up the box.

CATTLEMAN HAS MANY TROUBLES

Sentenced to Prison, Goes to Asylum, Escapes, Again in Custody.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 3.—Convicted and sentenced to prison in Tennessee, then developing a case of "brain-storm" and being confined to an asylum, later fleeing the confinement of the last named, J. H. Davis, a former Charlotte cattleman, was apprehended this morning while in the act of telephoning to secure an attorney to assist him in disentangling himself from his complex predicament.

Davis was charged with illegally shipping cattle from Tennessee to this market, and was tried last summer and found guilty in the lower courts of Tennessee. Davis took an appeal to the higher court of the State of Tennessee, and that court sustained the decision of the lower court, Davis in the meantime having been released on bond.

In the interim, however, the accused man developed a case of temporary insanity, and was ordered confined in an asylum in Tennessee.

Escapes From Asylum.

About one week ago Davis made his escape from the asylum, and notices were sent out at once to all neighboring cities and to Sheriff Wallace here, that the former Charlotte man had escaped from the asylum, and that a lookout should be kept for him. Sheriff Wallace notified the county officials and also the local police, and this morning Policeman Henderson, while on his beat about 8 o'clock, traced a man whom he took to be Davis to the Law Building, and, following the clue, he found Davis in the building attempting, it is said, to telephone to a lawyer to come and help him out of his difficulties.

The prisoner was taken to the police station and Sheriff Wallace was notified by the city authorities that Davis had been arrested. The sheriff immediately wired to Tennessee to receive instructions about the man and to ascertain what course he should pursue with him.

NORFOLK, VA., March 3.—At a mass-meeting held to-day on the United States battleship Virginia, now at the Norfolk Navy Yard, the petty officers and crew formulated, adopted and sent the following telegram to Rear Admiral Schroeder:

"The chief petty officers and crew of your old ship, the Virginia, wish to congratulate you on your appointment as commander-in-chief of the United States Atlantic fleet.

It was while en route around the globe that he was advanced to a rear admiralty and put in command of one of the divisions. He is held in the highest esteem by the men of the ship, who reluctantly gave him up as commanding officer, but are rejoiced that he should have been so signally honored.

CONTROVERSY SETTLED.

Ashland Council Takes Final Action in Long Dispute.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHLAND, VA., March 3.—The Town Council settled to-night the long standing controversy between the town and the Western Union Telegraph Company by passing an ordinance permitting the telegraph company to erect on the east side of Railroad Street a line of poles upon which the company is required to run its wires in cables. The Virgina Light and Power Company is given the right to place its wires and fixtures on the poles of the telegraph company. The ordinance passed January 22, 1909, giving the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company the right to widen the space between the tracks eighteen inches for the purpose of placing the telegraph poles between the tracks, and all other ordinances in conflict with the one passed to-night were repealed.

RUSH IS NOW ON FOR ADJOURNMENT

North Carolina Solons Clearing Calendars of Many Local Bills.

PENSION FUND INCREASED

State Will Appropriate Half Million Dollars for the Old Soldiers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., March 3.—Three sessions of the House and two of the Senate again to-day made it possible for large numbers of local bills to be cleared from the calendars in the rush that is being made now by the Assembly to clear up all work by Saturday and have the formal adjournment Monday.

The Senate spent some time discussing a committee bill to make the public school fund $225,000 instead of $200,000 and the pension fund $450,000 instead of $400,000. An amendment by Senator Means, making the pension fund $500,000, was adopted. The bill passed second reading and was forced over on objection to the final reading.

Another Contest.

The Senate had another contest over the electric headlight bill, Senator Dockery succeeding in getting his original bill in as an amendment for the Basset substitute that passed second reading yesterday, referring the whole matter to the Corporation Commission.

Dockery's bill requires all engines, except on roads of less than 125 miles and independently owned, to use the electric light and install one-fourth each year until 1913. The bill passed the Senate in this shape.

The House passed the bill establishing the State Board of Optometry and requiring a license to fit eyeglasses, but exempting local dealers.

Bill Is Defeated.

The House defeated the bill to amend the Constitution as to homestead exemption, and the bill to allow married women to trade as if single.

The House passed the Senate general education bill and balked on the Senate oil inspection bill by referring it to the Finance Committee, which had reported adversely on a similar bill a few days ago.

The general appropriation bill, carrying $1,635,100, was introduced in the House to-day from the Joint Appropriations Committee, through Representative Gordon, this being about the most important bill yet to be considered by both branches.

Negro Is Executed.

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 3.—William Ward, a negro halfbreed, was hanged at Clinton, N. C., privately to-day for a criminal assault upon Mrs. Mollie McLeod, a white woman, near that place. He made no confession. A party of curious spectators, who had climbed a tree to witness the execution inside the jail inclosure, were precipitated to the ground by the breaking of a limb, and several of them were slightly injured.

WRECKER DITCHES SOUTHERN TRAIN

Double-Header Derailed at Tye River, and Both Engines Turn Over.

SIX PEOPLE ARE INJURED

Lock Is Broken With Stone, and the Switch Deliberately Turned.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., March 3.—Train No. 35, the southbound United States mail on the Southern Railway, was deliberately wrecked this afternoon near Tye River, twenty-three miles north of Lynchburg, and six persons were injured. Engineer Herbert Fairfax, of Alexandria, whose condition to-night is serious, was the most seriously hurt.

There is no doubt that the switch was thrown by a white man who broke the lock with a stone and ran off just before the wreck occurred. The train was being double-headed and the coolness of Engineer Lynn, of Alexandria, who was on the front engine, saved the entire train from going over a forty-foot embankment.

The switch was turned just far enough to derail the train, but not far enough for the red signals to show.

Traffic was tied up for seven hours, two trains filled with persons bound for the inauguration in Washington being delayed from two to six hours.

Engines Turn Over.

When the engines entered the switch the train was traveling thirty miles an hour.

The train ran five car lengths, when both engines turned on their sides. The postal and baggage cars were derailed, but remained on their trucks.

Engineer Fairfax had both legs pinned under his engine, and he was not released for three hours. He was brought here to-night and was given treatment at St. Andrew's Home. The other injured remained on the train.

The injured: Engineer Herbert Fairfax, of Alexandria, bruised about arms and both legs scalded; condition favorable.

Engineer H. T. Lynn, Alexandria, Va., bruised about the arms and legs.

Mrs. M. T. Elam, of Macon, Ga., left shoulder bruised.

Miss E. A. Ward, Macon, Ga., bruised about the head and right knee.

George Turner, of Alexandria, bruised about the hip and shoulder.

Cook, news boy, shoulder bruised.

General Manager Ackert to-night offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the man who caused the wreck.

No Place Like Home.

LYNCHBURG, VA., March 3.—After six years in the navy and on the recent cruise of the world, W. F. Tolley, a former resident of Lynchburg, has returned here, declaring, after seeing almost every country in the world, that there is no place quite so good as the Old Dominion.

MAKES REPORT ON SECRET SERVICE

Committee Says Should Be Some Provision for It at Law.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Legislation should be enacted by Congress giving a permanent character to the secret service force of the government, according to the report of the select committee of the House to investigate this force, submitted to the House to-day.

The committee consisted of Representatives Olmsted, of Pennsylvania; Currier, of New Hampshire; Young, of Michigan; Brantly, of Georgia, and Bowers, of Mississippi. It was appointed to investigate the amount of appropriations devoted to secret service work, and the number of employes engaged therein. The report is unanimous.

No Authority in Law.

"We deem it proper," says the committee, "to call attention to the fact that the secret service division of the Treasury Department now exists without permanent authority of law, dependent entirely upon appropriations made from year to year, and that the like force in the Department of Justice is similarly without permanent authority of law, and is paid out of a lump sum appropriation for incidental expenses.

Whether the separate forces of secret service men now existing in the Treasury Department and in the Department of Justice should be combined in one, under control of the Attorney-General, we do not attempt to decide, but suggest that, whether separately maintained or under one control, they should be permanently provided for and their duties clearly defined and limited by law."

The total number of employes engaged in the detection or prevention of fraud, whether called secret service men, detectives, special agents, special inspectors, or by other names, in all the departments combined, the report says, is found to have been just 100 more than in 1908.

The committee found that $1,980,708 had been appropriated in lump sums which might have been, but was not, used in detective work.

Originated Years Ago.

In speaking of the secret service division of the Treasury Department, the supply of men to meet the demands of the Department of Justice in the past was touched upon.

"The committee finds," the report says, "on this loan of men that while not strictly within the authorization of the statute, it had originated years ago in the exigencies of the case."

Again the committee says:

"Except in the few instances indicated in this report, we have found no branches of the public service, or persons employed therein, engaged in any duty not contemplated by law; but whether any such persons have been or are engaged in any duty not contemplated by law or the appropriation establishing or providing for such service could be accurately ascertained only by an examination of each person so engaged in any such service, which examination could not be made within the life of the present Congress."

Membership Contest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., March 3.—The local Y. M. C. A. will begin a unique membership contest on March 15, to run six days, for membership. The association is the largest south of Washington, and the contest is to secure the renewals of a large number of expiring memberships. The association has 1,300 members.

The case will go to the jury to-morrow. In a former trial the jury failed to agree.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

It is a generally recognized truth that medicines made from vegetable ingredients are a great deal better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer in every way, than those composed of strong mineral mixtures and compounds. Mercury, potash, arsenic, etc., which are used in the manufacture of most blood medicines, are too violent in their action, and frequently derange the system by disturbing the stomach and digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period often cause Rheumatism. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine guaranteed absolutely and purely vegetable. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying and healing qualities. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood diseases, because it cleanses and purifies the blood, and at the same time builds up the entire system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. S. S. S. may be taken by young and old with absolute safety, and with the assurance that it will cure the diseases and disorders due to an impure and poisoned blood supply, even reaching down and removing hereditary taints. News of the Southside

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch,
No. 1102 Hull Street.

The meeting of citizens of Swansboro, to be held to-night in Cersley's Hall, for the purpose of considering incorporation, just the night before the meeting of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association, at which time that body will take up the question of making a move towards annexing the town, is exciting much interest. Both meetings will undoubtedly be largely attended. From what can be learned a large majority of the citizens are in favor of obtaining a charter for the town. Many are against the move, while some are in favor of annexing to Manchester. According to a citizen spoken to last night, these, however, are comparatively few. Even those who have been the hardest workers in arranging for the meeting, and who are the most enthusiastic in favoring incorporation, do not expect to reach any definite conclusion to-night. The meeting is held for the purpose of getting at the views of the majority of the residents. It looks at present as if the sentiment will be largely in favor of chartering the town.

To-morrow night the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association will meet and receive the report of a committee appointed to look into the advisability of annexing Swansboro and some adjacent territory.

Of course, this cannot be done without the consent of the citizens of the desired territory, and it may cause a prolonged fight.

Many Manchester people are opposed to taking the question up at present, and a large majority of the residents of the district are opposed to it. A member of the Business Men's Association stated last night that he believed the report of the committee would be rejected.

Another question of importance which will be presented to the meeting, will be that of changing the name of Manchester to South Richmond. W. W. Workman will present this resolution.

Many Attend Inauguration.

A large crowd left here yesterday and last night for Washington to witness the inauguration of President-Elect Taft to-day. Many more will leave this morning. Among those who left last night and yesterday were: C. A. Fortune, George A. Blankenship and daughter, Miss Vernell; Paul Tunstall, Allen Taylor, William Wright, Mr. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Toney and Miss Ethel Fuqua and J. E. Rowlett.

Fell From Pole.

J. C. Dillan, of 109 South Pine Street, Richmond, a lineman employed by the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, had a narrow escape from death last night shortly after 8 o'clock, when, while attempting to repair a wire on one of the company's poles at Fourteenth and Hull Streets, a bar on the cross-arm broke, pitching him to the ground below. Dillan was picked up, and upon the examination of a physician it was found that his injuries consisted of a severely sprained wrist and ankle. An ambulance was called, and he was taken to his home. The damage to the wire was done by a heavy charge of electricity passing through it from a bolt of lightning, which struck somewhere in the vicinity during the storm yesterday.

Storm Stops Business.

Although wrapped in a severe storm nearly all day, the city suffered but little. In the city the only accident reported was the blowing out of a switch on one of the light poles, though in the surrounding country trees were blown down and the country suffered generally.

Business here, however, was at a standstill, only the bravest venturing out. The streets were practically deserted.

Miss Jenkins Surprised.

Miss Owen Jenkins was delightfully surprised by her friends Tuesday night when they appeared in a body at her home. Games were indulged in and refreshments served. Among those present were: Misses Annie Gray, Odie Andrews, Pearl Patram, Mary Selbe, Louise Collier, Jose Caroll, Hazel Kidd, Louise Neisley, Gladys Jones and Florence Clements; Raymond Nunnally, Tom Borows, Willie Owen, Robert Taylor, Ryland Schonberger, Arthur Jenkins, Willie Burroughs, Harvey Nunnally, Frank Jones, Willie Caudle, Bernard Kidd, Eddie Holloway and James Bowers.

Mayor's Court

Mayor Maurice doesn't like to have Manchesterians before him on the charge of getting drunk, but when it comes to foreigners from Fulton, he gives the limit. Charles Jacobs, who claimed that place as his home, and who had the nerve to come over here and get drunk on the streets in broad daylight, was given a heavy fine when he appeared yesterday morning.

Norman Grimes, a young white boy, was before the Mayor, and it was claimed that he was incorrigible. He has just been released from the Reformatory, and the Mayor thought it best to send him back.

Hattie Watkins (colored) was ordered held until her record could be investigated.

Personals and Briefs.

Dorothy Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Gilbert, of 1022 Perry Street, fell while skating yesterday afternoon and sustained a fracture of her left arm. The broken bone was set and her condition is considered favorable.

A meeting of the laymen of all the Manchester churches, to be held for the purpose of considering the advisability of reopening the Sunday afternoon meetings at Leader Hall, will be held in Bainbridge Street Church to-morrow night.

George Purcell (white) was arrested by Sergeant Wright yesterday on the charge of being drunk and disorderly on the street.

Miss Thomas, of Rocky Mount, N. C., is visiting Miss Reams on Fifteenth Street.

Miss Julia A. Stratton and B. F. V. Camp, both of Swansboro, will be married this morning in the parsonage of the Clopton Street Baptist Church.

PIRATES RAIDED

Three Men Arrested in House Filled With Loot From Yachts.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A house which the police say is the headquarters of a gang of "Sound pirates," at the foot of Hall Street, Corona, Long Island, near the outlet of Jackson's Creek into Flushing Bay, was raided last night by Police Captain Thomas Darcy, with Detectives Hennessey and Smith and a detail of police from the Astoria station. Three men were arrested—Ernest Krause and his two sons, Max and William. They were locked up in the Astoria station, charged with burglary and grand larceny.

Suspicion was directed toward the house several days ago, and as soon as the police were convinced that the men were inside the place was raided. The three accused men drew revolvers when the police appeared, but a show of force caused them to submit to arrest.

In the house was almost everything that goes to make up the outfit of a private yacht, from a brass cannon to a rope's end. A rough estimate of the value of the loot is $3,000. Organizations that have reported losses of property from their boats are the Williamsburg, the Knickerbocker, the Bayside and the Manhasset Yacht Clubs.

Chesapeake and Ohio Orders Cars.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has placed an order with the American Car and Foundry Company, of Huntington, W. Va., for 200 new freight cars. These cars will be of various types, including box, flat and coke cars.

Eastern Star.

Mizpah Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon in the Masonic Temple at 3 o'clock. Besides work in the degrees of the order the worthy grand matron of the State of Virginia will pay her official visit to the chapter.
