New York Stock Market

New York February 24.—Dealings in stocks to-day were scarcely larger than yesterday. The thinness of the market was as marked on the selling side as on the buying side, and it required but a small absorption to lift prices.

To-day's movement lacked authoritative explanation as completely as did the action of Reading last week. A supposition naturally arose that some financial project was working out, designed to change the relation between these properties, already very close by reason of the control of Louisville and Nashville held by Atlantic Coast Line and a mutual control of other properties held by Louisville and Nashville and properties held by Southern Railway.

Until the stocks showed some vitality in the rest of the market it was perfectly lifeless. An early attempt to depress prices met with little success, and this prompted the later upward movement. The abstract of the reports to the Controller of the Currency of the national banks of the country as of January 31, showed the loan expansion since the November 16 report well distributed, the New York banks being responsible for less than $18,000,000 of the $80,715,000 aggregate increase for that period. The stock market liquidation effected in that interval explains this relative showing. In the yearly comparison, however, there is shown an increase since February 5 of last year of $388,736,887 in the loan account of the national banks, the cash reserves having been shrunk in the same time over $27,000,000. The credit condition, is, in consequence, still considerably extended, in spite of the substantial deflation which has occurred in the stock market.

Bonds were steady. Dealers report an improved demand for bonds. Total sales, par value, $2,692,000. United States 2's, 3's, coupons, and 4's advanced 1-4 per cent. on call to-day. Total sales of stocks for the day were 437,700 shares.

New York, February 24.—Money on call easy, 2 3-4@3 per cent.; ruling rate, 2 7-8; closing bid, 2 7-8; offered at 3 per cent. Time loans very dull and steady; sixty days, 3 1-2 per cent.; ninety days, 3 1-2@3 3-4; six months, 3 3-4@4 per cent. Close: Prime mercantile paper, 4 1-2@5 per cent. Sterling exchange firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.8455@$4.8460 for sixty-day bills, and at $4.8675 for demand. Commercial bills, $4.83 3-4@$4.84 1-4. Bar silver, 52. Mexican dollars, 44.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, February 24.—Reports of an improved European trade demand and claims of relatively firm interior spot markets imparted a decidedly better tone to cotton futures to-day, and after some early irregularity prices advanced sharply with the close steady at a net gain of 15@41 points. The opening was steady at an advance of 9@10 points in response to better Liverpool cables than expected and covering. There was a good deal of cotton for sale at the start, and after the close of Liverpool, which shut out arbitrage buying orders, prices eased off to within 3@6 points of last night's close and continued liquidation and bear pressure. But offerings of new cotton were much smaller than they had been on the break of the previous day, and during the early afternoon the reports of a better spot demand from the South, expectations of bullish week-end figures and rumors that leading interests would take any cotton that might be tendered on March contracts started a covering movement. Spinning became general on the advance, and many contracts sold up from 15.98, the low point of the morning, to 14.27, closing at 14.26 bid, while March advanced to 14.20, or 9 points over the closing figures of last night and showed the maximum gain at the close.

It is reported that part of the cotton tendered on March contracts will be shipped to Liverpool for delivery on March-April at that market. Part of the early selling may have been due to reports that Fall River mills will curtail by shutting down on Saturdays for the next three months, but local statisticians figured that this curtailment would not cause a reduction of more than 8,000 bales in the requirements of spot cotton. Southern spot markets were unchanged to ⅛c. lower. Private wires reported a better demand from exporters, and a sale from Austria claimed that spinners were bare of stocks. Leading Chicago interests were credited with buying March.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 20,728 against $1,152 last week and 21,228 last year. For the week 70,000 bales against 164,258 last week and 121,644 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 6,518 bales against 6,974 last year, and at Houston 2,807 bales against 4,348 last year.

Cotton futures opened and closed steady.

New Orleans, La., February 24.—Spot cotton firm and unchanged. Sales on the spot, 1,400 bales and 1,200 to arrive; hedged cotton, 2,720 bales. Cotton futures opened steady at an advance of 7@11 points on favorable cables. Liverpool futures were higher than expected and private messages told of good buying in that market for the account of Manchester and the continent. After the call the more active months rose to a level 14 points ever yesterday's closing on the quick stopping of the few March notices circulated and on continued unfavorable weather in the Western cotton belt. So far as could be learned only about 2,000 notices were issued. In the first half hour of trading the demand for March was good at the advance, exporters being the best buyers. The market was steady and active throughout the morning. Toward noon shorts put out free offerings and caused a net loss of 2 points on July. This reaction attracted fresh long buying, and around the noon call a sensational spurt was seen, amounting to $1 a male on July and putting all the active options to new high levels for the day. The advance was caused by cables that Manchester was again resuming full time.

In the afternoon session the advance was continued on reports from New York that bulls had made arrangements to stop all March notices issued to-morrow. Shorts became nervous, and their buying was added to that for long account. At the highest prices the more active months were 36@41 points over yesterday's closing. Longs showed little inclination to take profits, and the markets closed steady at a net advance of 34@35 points on the old crops and 20@22 points on the new. Cotton futures closed steady. Closing bids: February, 14.43 nominal; March, 14.31; May, 14.48; July, 14.58; August, 13.82; September, 12.96; October, 12.49; December, 12.32.
