Norfolk, Va., April 26.—Clean, heavy, timely hitting, sensational fielding, with questionable decisions by Umpire Travis, and balloon ascensions by the pitchers, afforded the several hundred fans a genuine exhibition of the uncertainty of baseball this afternoon, when the Truckers took the second of the series from the Colts by a score of 7 to 5.

Bobby Vail mounted the firing line in the first inning for the Truckers, but did not seem equal to the occasion. Three singles, a free pass and a double netted the Colts four tallies before the end of the inning, and when the dust cleared away Bobby was seen wending his way to the club house.

Welscher, the latest addition to the Truckers, relieved Vail at the beginning of the second inning, and showed the boys that he had the goods, allowing but one run, and five well scattered hits during the remainder of the game.

Opening Game at Danville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, Va., April 26.—Danville took the opening game of the season here before a large number of enthusiastic fans, despite the very cold weather, by the score of 2 to 0. Shaughnessy was put out of the game in the first inning for disputing a decision at second. He was replaced by Pritchard, who was succeeded by Andrada later in the game.

Hanks, who pitched for Danville, was in great form, allowing only one hit. He was given almost faultless support by his teammates. Jenkins, who pitched for Roanoke, started off well, but weakened towards the last. Pender, who umpired, gave satisfaction. The score follows:

Ragged Game at Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., April 26.—Lynchburg defeated Norfolk 5 to 4 to-day, in a ragged game, the bad play being due to cold weather, through which 400 fans shivered. The game came to the locals by timely hitting, Woolums leading with three singles and a sacrifice in four times up, his hits scoring three runs. The winning run was due to Woolums's third single and Brandon's two bagger over centre. Score:

William and Mary Defeated.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Williamsburg, Va., April 26.—Randolph-Macon defeated William and Mary here yesterday afternoon by the score of 7 to 5.

The game was devoid of sensational plays, with the exception of Alfriend's beautiful catch in centre field, when he went back to the high board-fence, running in mud over his shoe tops, and pulled down a long fly, which looked good for a two-base hit.

M'GUIRE'S WINS OVER HIGH SCHOOL

Timely Batting at Close of Game Brings Over Winning Runs Yesterday.

In an exciting game McGuire defeated John Marshall High School yesterday at Broad Street Park by the score of 2 to 1.

McGuires clearly outplayed their opponents. The game was characterized by sharp fielding, each side making three double plays. Few hits were made until the eighth inning, and then by bunching three safeties McGuires shoved over a run. In the ninth another run was made by timely hitting.

The twirling of Hulcher and Van Pelt was good, Hulcher slightly outpitching Van Pelt. Spectacular catches by Hargrove, H. Gruner and Smith and the pitching of Hulcher were features. Montgomery and Sweeney played good ball for High School. The score:

WASHINGTON & LEE DEFEATS CAROLINA

One of Prettiest Pitchers' Battles Ever Seen in Lexington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lexington, Va., April 26.—The fast University of North Carolina team lost to Washington and Lee to-day, 3 to 2, in one of the prettiest pitchers' battles ever seen on Wilson Field. Hedgepeth, the Tar Heel portwheeler, was opposed to Moran, the varsity's crack southpaw, and both did great box work, though Moran had the better of the argument. He allowed the visitors but five scattered hits to Hedgepeth's eight, each fanning six men.

The varsity had abundant scoring chances long before they could get a man across the plate, but Carolina was not so dangerous after the first.

The varsity's base running was great, they having seven stolen bags to their credit, while Carolina pilfered but one.

Waddill's pretty throw from deep centre, and the hitting of Captain Stras and Turbyfill, featured for the locals, while Duncan's batting was the feature for the Tar Heels. Both Moran and Hedgepeth fielded their positions perfectly, but Moran injured his game knee again in the seventh.

But Those Who Expect to Join Party Must Send Names by Saturday Night.

Entries for the Virginia endurance run are coming in very rapidly. All those who contemplate taking part should remember that each entry must be made out on an official blank, which is printed in The Times-Dispatch, and each entry must be in before 12 o'clock on the night of Saturday, April 30.

Arrangements have been made with the Standard Oil Company to have gasoline, oil and grease at each point where there is a noon control and at each point where there is a night control, so that the owners of automobiles can secure supplies without leaving the parking place.

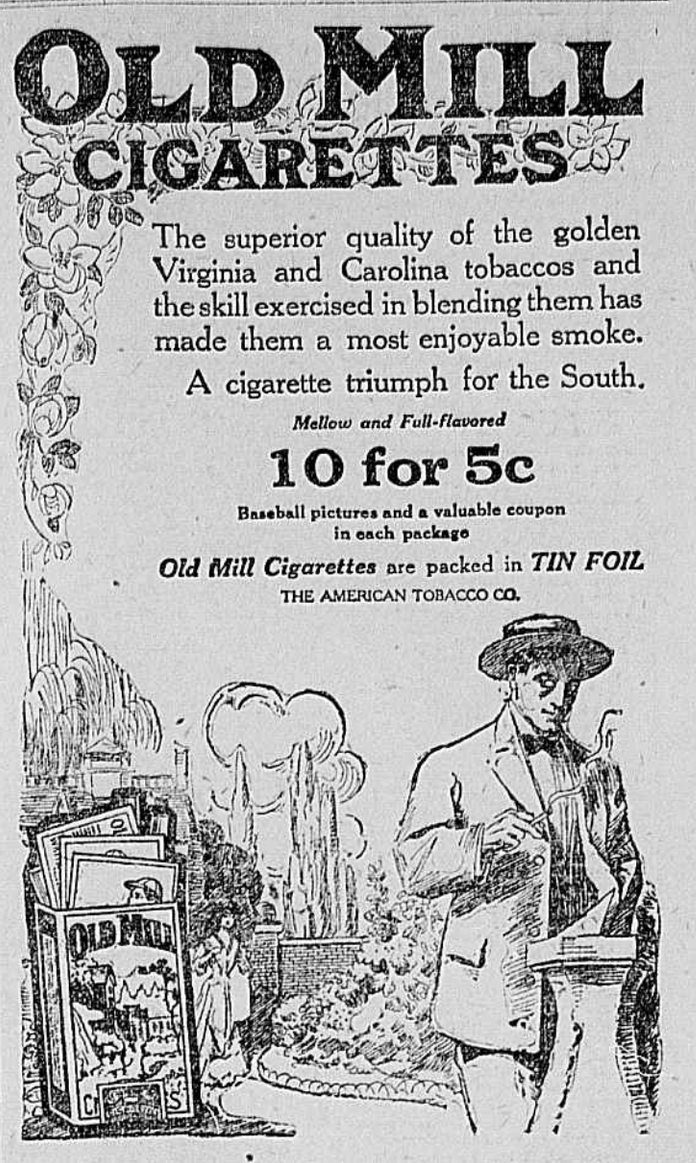
The Chamber of Commerce of Charlottesville and the business men of Louisa have written The Times-Dispatch offering to do everything in their power to further the run. The committee of the business men of Louisia is as follows: Geo. H. Johnson, Dr. H. W. Porter, P. B. Porter, H. Q. Dickinson, W. C. Bibb, Dr. Eugene Pendleton, W. W. Turner, W. M. Perkins, James E. Porter, J. A. Kent, W. O. Smith, R. H. Lide, V. L. Perkins, W. J. Crank, E. M. Crank, J. J. Porter, R. L. Gordon, Hon. Carl H. Nolting, Hon. F. W. Sims, A. B. Woodward.

Louisa is an intermediate control. No machine can pass the control point before 10:30, and if cars reach Louisa before that time they will have to allow their engines to run, although the cars are stopped, until 10:30 arrives, when they can proceed.

The Times-Dispatch has communicated with Judge George Shackelford at Orange, asking him if he will act as starter from that point.

The President of the United States will receive the party at 10 o'clock on Friday morning at the White House, after which the cars will be started from the White House grounds.

The officials appointed by the A. A. A. for the run are: Referee, Dr. H. W. Bassett; Alternate, Otis M. Alfriend; Chief Observer, Mr. Allport; Timer and Checker, Mr. Nelson, and an A. A. A. technical representative, who will be sent by Mr. Burler from New York. There will also be in the party a representative, a staff writer and an official photographer from The Times-Dispatch.



The superior quality of the golden Virginia and Carolina tobaccos and the skill exercised in blending them has made them a most enjoyable smoke.

A cigarette triumph for the South.

Spending Summer In Fanland

Few people are able to spend the summer where it is always naturally cool. And no one really needs to. For this is the day of electric fans. The Virginia Railway and Power Company's fanland is accessible to everybody all the time. A few cents spent for electric current, which comes from any lighting fixture, will give you a refreshing, never failing breeze for a whole week. Get your fan now. Phone 3400.
