New York Stock Market

New York, January 5.—Much of the week's elasticity in the stock market was lacking to-day. Business fell off perceptibly, and prices moved irregularly without apparent initiative. Certain of the specialties displayed market strength, this being particularly true of the gas stocks, United States Steel held its leadership in point of activity, but reflected intermittent selling. Despite the optimistic utterances of recognized authorities, the financial interest sees little grounds for encouragement in the immediate future for the steel industrials. A fall in the Bank of England's proportion of reserves to liabilities, bringing this item down to 55.10 per cent., the lowest figure but one in eleven years, was not well received here. The average for the past decade has been over 41 per cent., and substantial recovery is expected next week. To-day's showing was largely the result of government interest payments aggregating $30,000,000. Money conditions worked easy here to-day; the rates for call being no higher than 5 per cent. Numerous out-of-town institutions loaned free around that figure and as low as 14 1-2 cents.

Belated railroad reports for November were issued. Among them were the Atlantic Coast Line, which reported a heavy increase in operating expense, with a net loss of $150,000. The Seaboard Air Line returns were more favorable, in that the net for November increased $31,000. This, however, is more than the total net gain for the previous four months. The bond market was irregular, with especial weakness in the Wabash extension 's. The day's business was fair, with a total of $1,591,000.

Sales of stocks to-day were 411,800 shares.

New York, January 5.—Money on call firm, 4 1-2@5 1-4 per cent; ruling rate, 5 per cent. Time loans fairly active and strong; sixty day and ninety day, 3 1-2@3 3-4 per cent; six months, 3 3-4@4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4 1-2 to 5 per cent. Sterling exchange strong, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.8225@$4.8250 for sixty day bills and at $4.8540 for demand. Commercial bills, $4.81 3-4@$4.82 1-4. Bar silver, 54 1-2. Mexican dollars, 45.

COTTON MARKET.

New York, January 5.—After showing continued nervousness and a further decline during to-day's early trading, the cotton market rallied and the close was firm at a net advance of 5@11 points. The opening was steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5@6 points, which was just about in line with the cables. Prices weakened, however, right after the call and during the morning sold off to a net loss of 5 to 9 points on the active months under aggressive bear pressure stimulating liquidation, while just before 12 for May stop-loss orders were uncovered. Liquidation appeared to reflect apprehensions that a large ginning report would be given out next week. While local bear pressure was undoubtedly encouraged by the appearance of long cotton coming on the market in the absence of any support. But after the execution of the stop-loss orders there seemed to be less cotton for sale, suggesting that the realized long interest had been pretty well liquidated, by which time it appeared around 12M for May. At first the spinning demand became largely concerning by reason of the recent rallies, but as the market worked higher reports of a further reduction in the status of the East Indian crop and private reports from the south claiming a good export demand seemed to inspire a renewal of buying, and the market regained the highest level of the day during the last few minutes, closing at practically the top. Cable advices gave little heed to the trading Indian merchants have reduced their estimates of this year's crop 100,000 bales. Southern spot markets on Friday reported early were unchanged to 5 points lower.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 29,102 bales against 30,341 last week and 155,041 last year. For the week they were 160,845 bales against 191,116 last week and 1,000,000 last year. Receipts at New Orleans 2,836 bales against 11,677 last year, and at Houston 1,442 bales against 4,223 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed firm.

New Orleans, La., January 5.—Spot cotton firm and unchanged; middling, 14 15-16c. Sales on the spot 850 bales and 875 to arrive. Futures opened barely steady, unchanged to 2 points up, compared with yesterday's close. Cables were about as expected. After the call the trading months stood 1@3 points up, but quickly eased off on rather aggressive short selling. At the end of the first half hour of trading prices were 5@8 points under yesterday's last quotations. Toward the middle of the morning the market began to look oversold and shorts, anxious for their profits, found offerings scanty. Prices gradually rose on moderate, but steady buying, in spite of much bearish gossip that was circulated. Many telegrams were shown telling of heavy rains recently in the most important cotton-producing sections of Texas. They had no effect on the market, however, and at noon prices were 5@8 points over yesterday's close and 11@13 points up from the lowest of the morning. In the afternoon session the market was quiet, but very steady. At 2 o'clock the trading months were 9@12 points over yesterday's close. The market closed steady at a net advance of 11@13 points. Closing bids: January, 14.81; February, 15.01; March, 15.12; May, 15.32; July, 15.41; August, 14.96.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Ill., January 5.—Wheat to-day sold at the highest since October 26 and closed firm at 1⅛@1¼ to 1⅜c. net advance, the top price of the session. From start to finish offerings were unequal to the demand. General lessening of receipts formed the chief cause, seconded by strength of corn. The latter cereal finished ⅝@¾c. above last night's level; oats up ¼ to ⅜@½c., and provisions at a rise of 2½@20c.
