

AFFECTING INCIDENT.—Chas. Watterson an industrious blacksmith at Hickman, Ky., had by hard work and close economy, accumulated sufficient means to send for his wife and family, whom he had left in England. They arrived at Hickman some three weeks since, in charge of a friend, when his cup of happiness was full. But alas! the joy of the happy family was soon turned into mourning. The friend was only a few days after his arrival attacked with cholera and in a few hours his earthly course was run. The same day Watterson was attacked and in five hours he had gone the way of all the living. The wife, a very intelligent and pleasant woman, overwhelmed with grief, was making arrangements to return to England, when she too was attacked by the fell destroyer, and in a few hours had joined her husband in the spirit-land. —Louisville Courier, July 10.

CONSUMPTION AND SPITTING BLOOD.—See the certificate of Mr. Turner H. Ramsey, for many years proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel, Frederickburg, Va., and late of the City Hotel, Richmond, Va. Dr. John Minge, of the City of Richmond, though a regular physician, and of course opposed to what he called quack medicines, was obliged to say that his good effects in the case of Mr. Ramsey, were wonderful indeed.

He had been given up by several physicians; had tried most of the quack medicines, and was on the verge of despair, as well as the grave, when he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture.

We refer the public to his full and lengthy certificate under the bottle, stating his cure.
