COLTS RETURN HOME TO BATTLE TIGERS

Having Gained Two Out of Three Over Newport News, They Hope for Clean Sweep of Series Against Roanoke—Vance Against Garvin Is Probable Selection.

With two out of three games to their credit as a result of the visit to Newport News, the Colts return to the home yard to-day to do battle with Buck Pressly and his clan from Roanoke. Though Pressly managed to annex the final argument with the Garvinians, he lost two out of three, and his most recent stroll from the peaceful hills and valleys of his native heath has not been marked with any great or impressive success. Therefore the conclusion is naturally reached that he should not offer too great resistance to the Griffithian avalanche, which will be hurled at the now regularly entrenched first place, the same being temporarily held by the Buschmen, or, in polite phraseology, Petersburg.

While Busch is trying his best to prove to the men who compose the directorate of the Cockade City Baseball Corporation that he has a perfect right to lead the procession by taking the measure of Portsmouth in a week-end amusement for the Portsmouth willing workers, Richmond will do all that can be done to remove the Peanut craft from its moorings and occupy the wharf privileges now controlled across the Appomattox.

In the first engagement, meaning the engagement this afternoon, Manager Griffin will send Jim Vance to the front, while Pressly is more than apt to have Lee Garvin as his gunner. The result should prove highly entertaining to the faithful who attend.

Charlie Strain added another shutout contest to his record yesterday, while his teammates were garnering nine tallies. Bob Austin, who was the other fellow to the Matthews scrap some days ago, opposed Strain. For a considerable period it was a pitchers' battle, but after that there was nothing to it but Richmond. All of which will be gratifying to the folks at home.

COLTS WIN ANOTHER FROM SHIPBUILDERS

Easy Victory of 9 to 0 Largely Due to Brilliant Pitching by Strain—Austin In Poor Form, and Fielding Behind Him is Worst in Weeks.

Newport News, Va., June 18.—Brilliant pitching by Strain enabled the Colts to make it two out of three in the series with the Shipbuilders to-day, 9 to 0. Austin was in poor form, and the fielding behind him was the worst seen on the home grounds since Matthews took charge of the team two months ago. The visitors bunched their hits with errors to score the locals and sewed the game up in the fifth with five runs, Raley's triple to left field clearing the paths after two were out. Newton's double sent home two more in the eighth, and Mace scored Newton with a single, making Richmond's total nine.

Strain had the locals guessing all the way, allowing but three scattered singles and striking out seven men. He passed one and hit another, only five men reaching first base, and all of those were left. The fielding of John Raley was the feature of the game. The score:

WEIDELL IS WILD, AND PIRATES LOSE

Gardin Hit Safely Twelve Times, but Has Brilliant Fielding Behind Him.

Portsmouth, Va., June 18.—Weidell's wildness to-day lost the game for the Pirates. The locals hit Gardin twelve times, several of them for extra bases, but were unable to get more than two runs in any one inning. Weidell threw the ball into the bleachers with two men on bases, and both of them scored.

Hudkins's hitting was a feature of the game. Out of four times up he secured as many hits, two of which were two-baggers. He put up a remarkable game behind the bat, too, and but for his marvelous fielding Weidell would have made several wild pitches.

Roanoke showed a decided improvement in fielding, not making anything that looked like an error. The score:

SWEEP OF SERIES BY PETERSBURG

In Best Game of Week Norfolk Is Defeated by Score of 1 to 0.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., June 18.—Petersburg made a clean sweep of the series by defeating Norfolk to-day, 1 to 0. It was the best game of the week, and, in fact the only exhibition of baseball the Tars have put up since they returned from their last disastrous road trip.

Gaston was on the mound for the locals, and he pitched an excellent game. All the luck that goes with baseball broke against the home team, and the lone tally that the visitors scored was due to wild heaves.

In the eighth inning, with two men on bases and none out, Kircher tried to bunt and popped up a weak little fly that the catcher smothered. The next two batters hit into the hands of waiting fielders.

Keller's brilliant fielding and the playing of Jones at second base, were features of the game. Heinie Busch also played a star game for the visitors at short.

Mr. Levy is one of the city's most prominent Broad Street merchants, and with his firm enjoys a very large circle of influential friends. He is one of the largest real estate dealers in Richmond, and one of the city's most popular citizens.

41 A. H. HARRIS, secretary of the Virginia State Insurance Co., a Richmond company having been established many years ago. All of its officers and directors are well known Richmond people, having a record of strength and fair dealings ever since it was chartered. It is now located in its own magnificent building, corner Fifth and Main Streets. Mr. Harris is considered an expert in his line, and has done much for the company since he was elected secretary.

42 STEVE GRIFFIN, manager of the Richmond baseball team. He is not only one of the best second basemen in the league, but is a manager who means business and has selected a team made up of the very best material. He has led his club to the second place, and with a fair show will land Richmond number one. Mr. Griffin is a man of ability, and not only beloved by the baseball fans, but by the citizens generally.

TAKES 14 INNINGS TO WIN FROM YALE

Cambridge, Mass., June 18.—Harvard took the second of the annual series with Yale to-day in the fourteenth inning, 4 to 3, after one of the most exciting games ever seen on the local diamond. The score was tied three times, once by Yale and twice by the Crimson, the last time being in the ninth inning, when Harvard supporters had almost given up hope.

Felton pitched the whole of the gruelling contest for the locals and held the Blue to six scattered hits. Whenever a run was needed, however, Yale managed to combine two of those and push the tally over. Felton also struck out fourteen men. His record would have been brilliant had he not passed eleven. Gannett doubled in the fourteenth and counted on Hardwick's single.

Riddell at first and Clark at second furnished the fielding features, while Clark's home run clout saved his team from defeat. Fifteen thousand fans viewed the game.

The score: R. H. E.
Harvard 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1—4 11 1

MRS. GREENWAY WINNER.

Mrs. Greenway defeated Mrs. G. Jones in the women's championship golf finals yesterday afternoon at the Hermitage Club. This makes her the champion player of the club.

There will be a mixed foursome this afternoon on a course of eighteen holes, ten couples being entered.

Norfolk Signs Blausser.

Norfolk, Va., June 18.—Infielder Blausser, who started the season at second base for the Roanoke Tigers, has been signed by the Norfolk club and will report here in time to go with the team to Newport News to-morrow. Blausser is a good ball player and did splendid work for Roanoke at the Keystone station. He will probably cover second base for the Crew and fill a gap that has needed filling since the opening of the campaign.

Ismay Gets Injunction.

Boston, June 18.—C. Ismay, owner of Cragsmoor, the disqualified winner of the Derby, was to-day granted an injunction until Friday restraining the stewards of the Jockey Club and the stakeholders from parting with the funds in their hands. He maintains that Cragsmoor was the winner of the race and that the action of the defendants in disqualifying the horse was invalid.

HERBERT'S TEAM DEFEATS DUPLEX

It required the services of three umpires to handle the indicator and judge plays in the game yesterday afternoon in which the George Herbert Athletic Club defeated the Duplex Envelope team, 5 to 3. The game was interesting and exciting, and was marked by several sensational plays. One of the features of the game was the batting of Amos, who, up five times, secured five hits, two being for the circuit.

The Duplex team played an errorless game. An enthusiastic audience, among which were many women, witnessed the game.

DOG SHOW TO BE FEATURE OF FAIR

The Virginia State Fair Association has decided to add a most attractive feature this year in having a great kennel show at the fair in October. It will be held under the sanction of the American Kennel Club, with George F. Foley, of Lansdowne, Pa., as superintendent. The judges will comprise the best that money can secure, and of a national reputation. Liberal cash prizes will be offered in the various classes.

Dogs will be on exhibition from all parts of the United States, and the show will be the first dog show ever held in Richmond under the sanction of the American Kennel Club, of New York.

It is confidently expected that nearly all of the bench show handlers in this country will be in attendance with their strings of dogs, and it will prove quite interesting watching these experts and their charges in the show ring.

Superintendent Foley will arrive here in a few days to arrange the necessary preliminaries.

OLD ROSEBUD WINS HAROLD STAKES

Latonia, Ky., June 18.—The Harold Stakes, one of the richest juvenile classics decided annually in Kentucky, was won in a common canter by Old Rosebud this afternoon. The affair was decided over a track deep in mud, but Old Rosebud made every post a winning one. Big Spirit was the closest in pursuit at the end, having nipped Ohagan out of the place money in the last couple of strides. Only three horses started, and the winner's portion of the purse was $2,965.

Despite the inclement weather, a big crowd turned out. Favorites fared very poorly. An unfortunate happening marred the running of the fifth race, Chinook being so badly cut down that he had to be destroyed.

PHILLIES SMEARED WITH WHITEWASH

For Second Time in Two Days Leaders Fail to Get Runner Across.

TRICK DONE BY HUMPHRIES

Yields Only Three Scattered Hits and Allows Only Two to Reach Second.

Chicago, June 18.—The Phillies were again smeared with whitewash to-day, the second time within two days, the final score being 4 to 0 in favor of the Cubs. Humphries did the trick to-day, holding the league leaders to three scattered bingles and allowing only two visitors to reach second. Four hits and two sacrifice flies in the fourth round off Seaton netted the Trojans three of their four tallies. Rixey relieved Seaton in the eighth and fanned two of the three batters who faced him in that stanza. The score:

GRINER IS JUICY MORSEL

St. Louis, June 18.—It was the same story, just a little difference in the score, in to-day's game between Brooklyn and the crippled and pitcherless Cardinals. Brooklyn drew the long end of an 8 to 1 score.

Griner, who essayed to do the pitching for St. Louis, proved a very juicy morsel to the hard-hitting Brooklynites, who hammered out eight runs before he was relieved in the seventh and Burk went to the mound. No more runs came across, and Burk, in addition to holding the Terrors runless, whiffed three. Ragon was never in danger, though in the eighth inning his support cracked, and a single and two errors allowed a lone tally. The score:

GIANTS WIN QUICK DECISION

Cincinnati, O., June 18.—By knocking Johnson out of the box in the first inning to-day, the Giants won a quick decision in their third straight victory over the Reds.

The lead of four runs scored in the first inning was a safe one, as Demaree pitched cleverly. He shut out the Reds until the eighth inning, when he weak-

MIGHTY JOHNSON SUCCUMBS TO NAPS

First Man Up for Cleveland Opens Game With Home Run.

HITS BUNCHED IN EIGHTH

Umpiring at Several Stages of Game Almost Causes Trouble. Score is 4 to 0.

Washington, June 18.—The mighty Walter Johnson succumbed to the Naps to-day, the visitors winning 4 to 0. Johnston, the first man up, opened the game with a home run, but from then until the eighth inning Johnson held them runless. In the eighth the Naps bunched their hits and two men crossed the plate. The umpiring at several stages of the game almost caused trouble. At one time the entire Washington team was crowded around Dineen trying to persuade him he was wrong, and the bleachers were on the point of crowding the field. The score:
