[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Portsmouth, Va., August 6.—Richmond won two games from Portsmouth to-day, and incidentally blanked the home team for sixteen innings. The second contest, by agreement, only went seven innings. The Colts wanted to catch the night boat back to Richmond.

Doc Ayers was on the mound for the Colts in the first game, and while he was in several tight holes he managed to wiggle out of them without a scar. Brown pitched better ball than usual and held the visitors to seven hits. The first game was marked by fine fielding and little hitting. Newton, whose error lost yesterday's game, was in better form to-day, and covered lots of ground.

In the second game Strain faced Howell. The Colts' twirler was hit oftener than Howell, but none of them came together, and his teammates prevented a runner from scoring. A bad decision by Kelly rifled the Colts in the second game, but play was resumed when the umpire threatened to bench several players. The scores:

The News Leader team of the Newspaper League won its second game of the season yesterday by defeating the fast Journal team. The score of this seven-inning contest was 6 to 5.

The game was called in the seventh by mutual agreement.

Harper, who pitched for the Leaderites, was given good support and allowed only three hits, while Bunting, who pitched for the Journals, was tapped for six safeties. Bunting caused many of the Eighth-Streeters to fan the air, but he was given bad support in one inning, which resulted in his downfall.

West, The Times-Dispatch third-sacker, played centrefield for the Journals. Those who featured at bat for the Journals were Bunting, Whaley and West.

By winning this game the News Leader boys are tied with both Journals and Virginians for second place, with The Times-Dispatch still leading.

On Monday the News Leader and The Times-Dispatch teams will play at Broad Street Park. The game will start at 5 o'clock.

TENARA WINNER OF $12,000 STAKE

Driven by Bill Andrews, Kentucky Mare Has an Easy Time Cashing.

Kalamazoo, Mich., August 6.—The Kentucky mare, Tenara, driven by Bill Andrews, won the $12,000 pace stake for 2:14 trotters at Recreation Park this afternoon. It was the richest stake for which the aged trotters will race this season. Tenara was better than an even money favorite over the field, the short end players depending mainly on Judson Girl, from the Cox stable, and Reusens, driven by Geers, to cash for them. The event was raced on the four-heat plan, $3,000 for each heat, and the drivers drew for positions before each heat. Tenara won easily. Judson Girl was very unsteady, which spoiled her chances. This is the third rich stake to go to the credit of Tenara in as many weeks, she having won $10,000 events at both Fort Erie and Grand Rapids.

The talent got a hard jolt in the 2:16 trot, in which the Detroit trotter, Grand Marshall, was a $50 to $15 favorite over the field. He broke in the first and second heats, his mistake being so bad in the second that he caught the red flag. With the favorite out of it, "Pop" Geers had no trouble in winning with Frances Graham.

Summaries: 2:16 class; trotting, three in five; purse $1,000. Frances Graham, br. f., by Frazee (Geers), 1, 1, 1. Scienna, b. f. (Gerrity), 2, 2, 3. Ringarion, br. h. (Rodney), 4, 3, 2. Junior Watts, b. c. (Heap), 3, 4, 4. Grand Marshall also started. Best time, 2:11.

BOREL'S RIDING FEATURES MEET

Rides Lahore to Victory Over All Favorites Picked by Wise Ones.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., August 6.—Charles Borel, Western rider, gave an exhibition of pinskin ability that would have been a credit to Snapper Garrison, Dare Devil Fitzpatrick or Ted Sloan when they were in their prime.

Borel had the mount on John Talbott's chestnut gelding, Lahore, in the $1,000 Delaware Handicap. Smart players thought so little of him that odds went to as high as twenty one on the son of Delhi.

Borel got Lahore off in forward position and tried to drive to a shooting. He put up a drive-home finish and won by a short nose from Light of My Life, Guy Fisher was beaten a third, while Adams Express, Spring Board and Shakelton, the entries that the wise boys fancied, were out of the money. Judge Hall's company up the stretch.

While Borel's star was in the ascendency after his ride on Lahore, his effort on Roth-age failed to exhilarate with brilliancy. Roth-age was quoted at four to five. Borel was napping when Jockey Mars Cassidy crossed the gate for the race's third, and some think he should have won. At any event, this ride was more than a little responsible for Lahore going in such an outlandish quotation in the Delaware.

A Eker, son of a former Mayor of Montreal, made a clever ride of his opinion that his horse Wickson couldn't lose the Steeplechase.

A goodly number of Canadians came down to back his judgment. Wickson breezed onto the head end after the first turn of the field and won, pulled to a trot.

ALL THREE TAKEN BY REBUILT TARS

Roanoke Loses Last of Series to Norfolk in Ten-Inning Game.

Norfolk, Va., August 6.—Norfolk made it three straights from Roanoke by taking to-day's game. It was a ten-inning contest, and was one of the best games of the season. The locals had the visitors blanked up to the seventh inning. Dye was pitching good ball up to that time, and the visitors had difficulty in connecting. He developed a streak of wildness in the seventh, and after walking two men, he allowed another to hit for two bases.

In the eighth two more hits were made off him, and he was sent to the bench. Shenn, who succeeded him, was also wild, and after walking two men, the first two to face him, he was sent to the bench. Burden took Shenn's place and held the Tigers in check.

The visitors scored one run in the seventh and two in the eighth. Neither side scored for two innings. In the tenth, with one man out, Schrader hit for three bases and scored a moment later when Moren connected for a safety.

Efird pitched winning ball, and but for slow work by the men behind him, he might have gotten away with a victory. Newport News comes here to-morrow, the second visit of the season. If Norfolk succeeds in winning three of the four games scheduled with the Shipbuilders some other team might be in the cellar at the end of the season. The score:

HEDGEPETH WINS FOUR-HIT GAME

Big Southpaw Takes Newport News Into Camp in Final Game of Series.

Newport News, Va., August 6.—Before the largest week-day crowd that ever witnessed a single game of baseball in this city, Petersburg took the final game of the series to-day, 2 to 0, Doc Hedgepeth breaking the ice for his team in the ninth inning, with a two-bagger, on which Laughlin scored from first. Geyer's muff of Spencer's fly scored Hedgepeth. Carter pitched brilliant ball for the locals, and with anything like fast fielding in the outfield the Goobers would never have scored on him.

He twice pitched himself out of bad holes when the first man up tripled. The score:

Harris's Claim Allowed

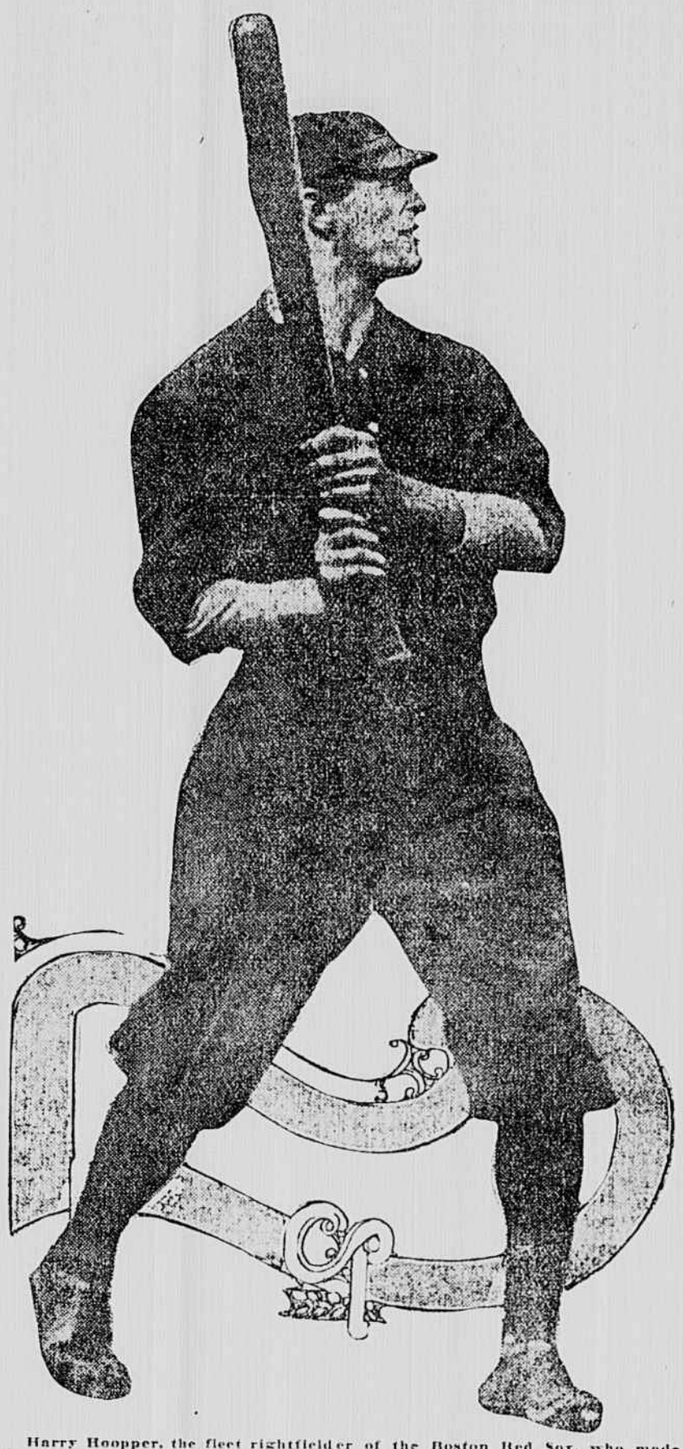
Auburn, N. Y., August 6.—Decisions relating to minor league baseball were handed down to-day by the national board of arbitration. Among the claims allowed were:

C. R. Harris, against Richmond; D. D. Lowry, against Americus, Ga., and Lowry's claim against Edward Wheeler.

Services of players awarded:

Pinyer Marbel, to Morristown, Tenn. All optional agreements must be exercised by August 15.

Hooper Working Well for Sox



Harry Hooper, the fleet rightfielder of the Boston Red Sox, who made one of the most sensational catches of the last world's series, saving the championship for Boston. Hooper is one of the few members of the world's champions who has improved in his playing this season. Hooper is fielding in great style and is banging the ball at a .266 clip. His batting average for last season was under the .250 mark.

ALBEMARLE SHOW IS NOW IN FULL BLAST

Classes All Well Filled—Mrs. Allen Potts and Dr. V. T. Churchman Are Biggest Winners on Opening Day.

Charlottesville, Va., August 6.—The thirteenth annual exhibition of the Albemarle Horse Show opened to-day, twenty well-filled classes being shown during the day. The most consistent blue ribbon winners were Mrs. Allen Potts, of Happy Creek Farm, and Dr. V. T. Churchman, of Charleston, W. Va. Mrs. Potts carried off four blues her supurb thoroughbred mare, Day Star, winning in both the saddle pony and green saddle classes; her black gelding, Happy Creek, annexed first money in the class for Albemarle Hunters, and her pair of black mares, Satanella and Salime, was declared the best park tandem. In the hunting class her entries, Happy Creek and Pretty Maid, tied with Julian Morris's Gungo Din and Black David, but in the jump off, first money went to the latter pair.

Dr. Churchman won the novice harness class of thirteen entries with his chestnut mare Goldenrod, a full sister to Golden Girl, the champion mare of Kentucky. With the Colonel, conceded to be one of the greatest ponies in America, he easily captured the class for harness ponies, thirteen hands and under. The biggest purse of the day that hung up in the class for hunters and jumpers, went to the champion David Gray, owned by Miss Katharine Elkins, of Washington. Elf King, from the same stables, was awarded the cardinal.

Julian Morris's chestnut mare, Queen of Undulata, admirably ridden by Mrs Henry B. Renwick, formerly Miss Hilda Holloway, of Pennsylvania, won a notable victory in the park hack class defeating Mrs. Potts's Bracken Rose.

The judges were Dr. Shirley C. Carter, of Warrenton; John Kulver, of Savannah; Walter W. Sanford, of Orange; Harry W. Spratly, of Elberon, and Edward W. Barker, of Warrenton.

Summary:

Standard bred stallions—First, Calypso, Dr. William Wilson, Greenwood. Colts sired by standard bred stallions—First, Blue Bell, L. M. Humphries, Charlottesville; second, Mary G. Humbert, Charlottesville.

Colts suitable to become hunters—First, Colt, Buck Eye Land Stock Farm; second, Eolet, Copely Farm Charlottesville; third, Nip, Miss S. R. Carter, Red Lands; fourth, Tuck, Miss S. R. Carter.

Giants Trade Otis Crandall

St. Louis, Mo., August 6.—The first move to shake up the local National League club came to-day, when President Britton announced that Catcher Larry McLean had been traded to the New York Giants for Pitcher Otis Crandall. McLean, who joined the locals this spring, will leave to join the league leaders immediately. Crandall is expected to report to Manager Huggins here to-morrow. Huggins announced that he has several other deals pending.

President Requests "Square Deal"

Washington, August 6.—President Wilson wants a "square deal" from baseball umpires, should they have occasion to pass upon his political decisions. He told George Hildebrand and "Billy" Evans so to-day in an interview at the White House. Hildebrand and Evans are arbiters of the American League. They promised to grant the President's request.

MATHEWSON GIVEN AN AWFUL BEATING

Wonderful Christy Driven From Mound by Hardhitting Pittsburgh Team.

SEVEN RUNS IN FIFTH

McQuillan Gets Splendid Support From Pirates, and Game Never in Doubt.

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 6.—Christy Mathewson was driven from the mound in the sixth inning to-day, and the Pirates, backing up McQuillan in fine fashion, won the game, the last of the present series, by a score of 9 to 1. In the third the locals got to Mathewson for two runs and came back for seven more in the fifth. There was never any doubt as to the outcome of the fray, after that New York's one run in the eighth came from Murray's single to left. Snodgrass was thrown out at first and Art Wilson singled to left. Carey booted the ball, Murray scoring. The score:

CUBS TAKE LAST GAME

Chicago, August 6.—The Cubs took the final game of the series from the Dodgers to-day, 4 to 3, scoring the winning tally in the tenth on Schulte's single. Zimmerman's sacrifice and Saier's long drive, which was credited as a double. The Trojans tied the score in the eighth when Williams doubled, scoring Saier. Walker and Cheney were the starters, but the former was yanked in the second, after having granted five passes. Wagner finished the game. Saier knocked a home run to the clubhouse in the third inning. Cheney pitched good ball, allowing six safeties, three of which came in the third, netting two runs. The score:

FOUR STRAIGHT FOR PHILS

St. Louis, Mo., August 6.—The Phillies made it four in a row to-day by winning from St. Louis, 7 to 1. Though pitching honors between Rixey and Harmon until the ninth were about even, the Phillies were a little luckier in the time selected for swats. The Phillies scored two in the first on a pass to Paskert, Knabe's triple and Lobert's sacrifice fly to Oakes. Cravath in the fourth got his fourteenth home run of the season. St. Louis got its only run in the seventh on Whitted's single, Mowrey's double and O'Leary's sacrifice fly to Cravath. In the ninth the Phillies fell on Harmon in good style. Lobert was passed, Becker singled, Cravath tripled, Luderus doubled and Doolan tripled, scoring four runs. The score:

Hickories Take Game.

The Hickories, of the St. Andrew's League, won their second game of the week by defeating the Life Insurance Company of Virginia yesterday in a close contest. The score was 7 to 5. Brown's pitching featured for the Hickories, while Percy Apple played a good game at short for the same team.

CLIMBERS FIND WHITE SOX EASY

With Walter Johnson Pitching, Washington Has Little Trouble Winning From Chicago.

NOW HAS ELEVEN STRAIGHT

Big Swede Equals Record Held by His Teammate, Joe Boehling.

Washington, August 6.—Washington found the White Sox easy to-day, winning, 11 to 2. Incidentally, Walter Johnson equaled the American League record for consecutive victories held by his young teammate, Joe Boehling, of eleven in a row.

The Senators uncorked a batting rally, when six runs were scored in the second inning. Johnson was taken out after walking four rounds. Gallia, who succeeded him, allowed but two hits. The Senators batted Smith and O'Brien hard, but could do little against Lathrop, the former Notre Dame collegian. The score:
