Child Scalded to Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Bedford City, Va., August 7.—A little child of Dillard Mayhew was so severely burned Monday night that, despite every effort, she died. The little girl was two years old. Some very hot water had been poured into a small tub, preparatory to giving the little one a bath, and the mother finding the water too hot, left the room to procure cold water to add to it. During her absence the child in play began to walk backward and stumbled against the tub and fell in, scalding her back and shoulders.
