

arrived from Algiers, and a thousand Traillere had disembarked at Balaklava. The Suffer arrived on the 8th at Constantinople, on her return to France. Considerable reinforcements have left, or are about to leave, the French parts of the East. According to the latest calculations they amount to twenty-five thousand men.

It is not believed that any assault will be made until the allies are strongly reinforced. The weather had become extremely cold. The Russians were carrying stores to the North side of the harbor, and were making arrangements for the transport of troops to that quarter. This induces the belief that they did not expect to be able to retain the south side. Scarcely a house in Sebastopol has escaped shot and shell. The reports of the burning of the hospital, and of a flour magazine, and of the great mortality in Sebastopol, appear to be correct. There was plenty of water on the north side. Russian prisoners state that the authorities had inflated the hatred of the soldiers and people towards the allies, and that the greatest infirmities were treated with barbarous cruelties. The men were therefore determined to resist to the last. Spirits were freely distributed to the troops engaged in the earth works.

The French, in carrying a mine toward the fortifications in the evening, a strong Russian mine intended to blow up the French breaching battery. The French then countermined and removed 1,800 weight of powder from the Russian mine.

Horrible Occurrence.

An occurrence of the most horrible nature has taken place. The great hospital of Sebastopol was set on fire by the shells of the allies, and was burned to the ground, with all its inmates. TWO THOUSAND SICK AND WOUNDED! The frightful circumstance is passed over as quietly as possible in the English and French papers, but it demands the most pointed attention. It may be remembered that we published an English story to the effect that Menechhoff hoisted a hospital flag over a magazine, which the English shelled and fired upon and blew up—the English building thus fired upon was really the hospital.

A Know-Nothing deserting his Country.

John C. Meigs, who was lately elected Comptroller of the city of San Francisco by the Know Nothings, and his brother Henry Meigs, have committed the most daring and atrocious fraud that we have ever recorded. They have forged Comptroller's Warrants upon the city for near a million of dollars, and have left individual indebtedness for nearly another million. Their scoundrelism have thrown the whole city into consternation and terror. They fled the city in a vessel purchased by them for the purpose, with which it is supposed they have gone to foreign parts, possibly to China, but yet true to their principles, they named it the "American." It is only a month or two since he was elected Comptroller. The Know Nothings of San Francisco have thus soon been called upon to mourn the loss of a brother, who it seems is desirous to become a foreigner. We presume they will, in his stead, bring forward another candidate for the place, as usual, as religious and as American in his principles as Meigs, one as earnest in his denunciations of Catholics and foreigners. He loved his country, and in the midst of it a monument is erected to his memory.—Hagerstown Mail.

HOG-ISH.

Woodberry against the County.

Geo. R. Barndollar, Esq., killed seven Hogs yesterday which weighed over three thousand pounds. The best weighed as follows:—567—512—476—410—making 1965 pounds.

If Bedford Co. can beat the above, we should like to hear of it.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Woodberry, Pa., Dec. 1, 1854.

MARRIED.

On the 26th ult., by the Rev. H. Hockerman, Mr. FREDERICK TURNER to Mrs. ANNE TURNER, both of Harrison Township.

On the 5th inst., by the same, at the Menzel House, Mr. MATTHEW P. TAYLOR, of Napier, to Miss MARGARET DIEHL, of Harrison Township.

DECEASED.

In this Borough, on Monday evening last, in the 5th year of his age, HARRY, eldest son of Dr. P. C. and Georgia Reaser.

This interesting little form, which now lies cold in death, was smart and intelligent beyond its years, and was a favorite, not only of its parents, but of all who knew it. However painful it may be to part with children at this tender age, it is a glorious reflection to know that they are forever at rest.

"And if sometimes a sigh arise
For him whose home is in the skies,
Who once did to your arms repose,
Then faded like the summer rose;

Remember that he lieth still,
Away from every touch of ill,
A Dover transported to its bed,
From scenes of earth to dwell with God."

FANNY FERN'S

NOVEL.

Reddy Hall,

A TALE OF DOMESTIC LIFE.

400 pp. 12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.25.

Every body knows FANNY FERN; every body has laughed and cried over her sparkling, dashing, truthful, genial writings; every body will wish to read this, her first novel, and every one who does read it will pronounce it her greatest work. Says an able critic who has read the proof sheets, "Reddy Hall is a work which not only exceeds any thing which Fanny Fern has before written, but which in many respects passes any other work whatever. For intense and sustained interest of narrative, for originality of conception and treatment, for scorching sarcasm and withering rebuke of pretensions and hypocrisy, for elevation of moral tone and wisdomness of religious inculcations, for vigor, freshness, simplicity, directness and fascination of style, we have never seen its equal."

"The story takes possession of our hearts at once; we follow it through her trials with as much interest as though she were our own sister; she breathes not a sigh, she suffers not a sorrow, which the reader does not feel as acutely as though the first came from his own heart, and the second were one of his own sad experiences. The characters are such as we are constantly meeting in every-day life; and how boldly and skilfully they are drawn, how powerfully the story is told, how touching is its pathos, how sparkling its wit, how irresistible its humor, how severe its satire, and how true its moral, no adequate idea can be gained except by reading it."

Reddy Hall will be for sale by booksellers generally. To any one sending us the retail price, we will send a copy of the work, post-paid. Published by MASON BROTHERS,

PULMONARY DISEASE.—There is a remedy prepared by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of 140 Wood St., Pittsburgh, Pa. that has won great renown in the way of curing the various inieipient diseases of the lungs and pulmonary apparatus. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is no quack nostrum, but has won and kept the confidence of men of the highest standing. Dr. Keyser prepares and mixes all the ingredients of the Pectoral Syrup with his own hands, and says that he will continue to do so. If you wish a good medicine for a cough or cold, you can buy it at RUPP & OSTER'S in this place, and at COLVIN & ROELSON'S, Schellburg.

JOY FOR THE INVALID.

We cut the following from the Philadelphia Saturday Gazette, and recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and those suffering should not delay purchasing.

"DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS." This celebrated medicine, prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, at the imposing German Medicine Store, No. 120 ARCH street, is exciting unprecedented public attention, and the proprietor, who is a scientific physician, is selling immense quantities of it. The virtues of this remedy are so fully set forth in the extended notice of it, to be seen in our advertising columns, that there is hardly any room left for us to speak of it. This much we may add—Of the long train of physical ills to which humanity is heir, there is none more distressing than general derangement of the digestive apparatus, which never fails to accompany a disordered state of the liver. Headache, piles, languor, irritability, a bilious tongue, a morbid breath, loss of appetite—in short, an insupportable wretchedness of existence, are its indelible and life-ruining attendants. These diseases, which have baffled the skill of the ablest Doctors, have been radically cured by Hoofland's German Bitters."—See advertisement.

"PALPITATION OF THE HEART, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaint, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Costiveness and Piles, are all relieved and cured in an incredible short space of time, by Carter's Spanish Mixture, the great tonic and purifier of the blood. It contains not a particle of Mercury, Opium, or any noxious drug; is perfectly harmless, and has cured more than five hundred cases of disease.

We can only refer the reader to the certificates, a few of which may be found in another column, and all of which are detailed in full around the bottle. It is the greatest of all Spring and Fall Medicines, and possesses an influence over the blood truly remarkable.
