BAUSERMAN WILL HAVE OPPOSITION

Two Possible Candidates Mentioned for State Hospital Commissioner.

IS HEAD OF ASYLUM BOARDS

Appointment to Be Made by Governor-Elect Stuart for Term to Begin in 1915.

J. M. Bauserman, of Woodstock, State Hospital Commissioner, will have opposition for reappointment. While no formal announcements have been made, it is stated by their friends that W. H. Landes, of Staunton, and Charles A. Osborne, of Keysville, both members of the General Hospital Board, will be candidates at the proper time, and that both will have strong indorsements. The position is to be filled by appointment of Governor-Elect Henry C. Stuart, and must be confirmed by the Senate. Mr. Bauserman is now serving a four-year term, dating from March 1, 1911, so that it is hardly probable that any appointment will be made until early in 1915. The position pays a salary of $2,000, with an allowance of $500 for traveling expenses, and is said to require only a part of the time of the appointee.

Mr. Landes is a member of the board of the Western State Hospital, at Staunton, and Mr. Osborne, of the Eastern State Hospital, at Williamsburg.

Practicing Attorney.

Mr. Bauserman was appointed State Hospital Commissioner by Governor Swanson for a four-year term, and was reappointed by Governor Mann. He is a resident of Woodstock, where he is a member of the law firm of Tavenner & Bauserman, his law partner, Judge F. S. Tavenner, being the present State Senator from the district composed of Shenandoah and Frederick Counties, and the city of Winchester.

The present law in regard to the office of Commissioner of State Hospitals makes that official the business head of the State asylums for the insane.

He is ex-officio chairman of the general and of each of the special asylum boards, and is responsible under the law for the proper disbursement of all funds, and regulates the method of accounting and makes reports from time to time to the Governor as to the condition of the institutions.

The appointment is of special interest at this time in view of the recent announcement of former Delegate H. H. Stephenson, a member of the Eastern State Hospital Board, who is preparing a bill providing for the employment of a State alienist, who shall be consulting physician to the various State institutions for the insane and feeble-minded. Mr. Bauserman is widely known politically throughout the State, and his friends predict that he will give a good account of himself in any effort others may make to secure appointment to the office he now holds.

ANDERSON HEADS HERMITAGE CLUB

Old Directors Are Re-Elected. No Action Taken in Regard to Removal.

At the annual meeting of the Hermitage Club yesterday, James Lewis Anderson was elected president, succeeding Murray M. McGuire. G. E. Hill was elected vice-president, John R. Grizzard being reelected secretary and treasurer. The four members of the board of directors, whose terms expired at this time, were re-elected as follows: Murray M. McGuire, W. W. Neale, Lewis H. Blair, Jr., and J. Madison Macon, Jr.

No reference was made at the meeting to the possibility of moving the clubhouse. The club is now renting from the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad the land proposed to be used for the West End station, designed for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroads. As no definite action has been taken in regard to the proposed station, the club is letting the matter rest, although under its lease it may be ousted on short notice if the land is desired for station purposes.

Crippled Barber Missing.

William Taylor, twenty-two years old, a crippled barber, was yesterday reported to the police as having been missing from his home, 322 North Thirty-sixth Street, since Thursday. Taylor lost one leg and a foot in a railroad accident a few years ago.

PI MU FRATERNITY ENDS CONVENTION

Annual Session Comes to Close With Banquet at Westmoreland Club.

With a banquet at the Westmoreland Club, the annual convention of the Pi Mu Fraternity, one of the oldest medical fraternities in the country, closed last night after a two days' session. At the closing business meeting Richmond was again chosen as the next place of meeting, and the following officers were elected:

Dr. L. T. Price, of Richmond, senior councillor; Dr. J. F. Bright, of Richmond, vice-senior councillor; Dr. Russell L. Cecil, of New York, junior councillor; Dr. B. C. Willis, of Richmond, general secretary; Charles Phillips, of Richmond, assistant secretary; Dr. S. B. Cary, of Richmond, treasurer; Dr. George R. Livermore, of Memphis, Tenn., historian, and Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, of Richmond, editor of publications.

The banquet was in honor of out-of-town delegates, who came here from all parts of the country, and the Richmond alumni, which embraces most of the foremost physicians and surgeons in the city. Songs, brief addresses and toasts were features of the evening.

Active members at the banquet were Drs. D. G. Tyler, R. W. Vaughan, E. Watkins, T. M. Wood, A. J. Chenery, C. W. Colonna, D. B. Cole, F. M. Barber, W. G. Sutter, S. D. Scott, H. H. Westcott, H. E. Post-Office Receipts Grow.

Business at the Richmond post-office for the month ending Tuesday was greater by $4,000 than in November, 1912. Although lacking the statement of yesterday's business, Cashier Melton was able late in the afternoon to compile a reliable table of receipts for the month, showing approximately $71,000. In November, 1912, the total was $67,72[illegible].

GUNMAN SHOT BY POLICEMAN.

One Killed as Result of Battle Between Rival Gangsters.

New York, November 29.—Max Cohen, gunman and terrorizer of the gallery gang on the East Side, was shot and killed tonight by a policeman, who interrupted a revolver battle between rival gangsters at Jefferson and Madison Streets. The battle took place at 6 o'clock, when the streets were crowded with people. Abe Rosen, a passerby, also received a bullet in the chest. With the exception of Cohen, the gangsters all made their escape. Cohen stood his ground and fired at the policeman, who turned the fire point-blank from a distance of ten yards. One bullet entered the gunman's forehead, the other struck him in the chest, killing him instantly. Cohen had a long record as a gunman.

Damage Action Dismissed.

New York, November 29.—Supreme Court Justice Page to-day dismissed the $150,000 damage action of Mrs. Alice G. Roycroft, brought against the Standard Exchange, Post & Flagg. She claimed that the firm took over her account from another firm in 1911 and sold her securities without notice.

Mrs. Roycroft sued Henry Clay Pierce a year ago for alleged conversion of her securities. The case was settled before trial after considerable litigation.

OBITUARY

Mrs. David N. Walker.

Mrs. Avis Mary Barney, widow of Major David Nevil Walker, and daughter of the late William H. Barney, of Mobile, and Mary N. Coolidge, of Poughkeepsie, his wife, died at 12 o'clock midnight on Friday at her residence, 1123 West Avenue, after an illness of a few days, in her seventy-sixth year.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Amaudus Walker, of Amelia County, Mrs. Emil A. Baugmann, of Richmond, and Mrs. T. R. Borland, of Norfolk, and by her eight children—Mrs. Charles V. Carrington, Mrs. Edgar S. Freeman, Mrs. F. Aubrey Young, Miss Mabel Walker, and William H., John Stewart, Norvell Barney and Dugald Stewart Walker.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Monday) afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, of which she had been an active member since its foundation.

Funeral of Mr. Macomber.

The funeral of Robert Edwin Macomber, president of the New York Company, who died suddenly on Wednesday, was conducted on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence, 1659 West Grace Street, by the Rev. Frank T. McFaden. Masonic rites were performed at the grave in Hollywood Cemetery.

Captain Kenneth A. Bell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Newbern, N. C., November 29.—Captain Kenneth A. Bell, a well-known citizen of this city, who was in charge of a government dredge located on Cape Fear River, near Wilmington, died at his home on Broad Street Thursday night from an attack of pneumonia. Captain Bell was taken ill last Saturday and at once came home to receive treatment. His condition was not considered serious, and it was thought that he would probably be out again within a few days. Wednesday morning pneumonia developed and he sank rapidly until the end came.

Captain Bell was an experienced navigator and was known by every river pilot in Eastern North Carolina. He is survived by his wife and two children, a mother and two sisters. The funeral took place this afternoon.

Spotswood Stone.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Ashland, Va., November 29.—Spotswood Stone, eighty years old, died suddenly at 2 o'clock this morning at his home here. He was a Confederate Veteran, a member of Morris's Artillery, Pendleton's Corps, and was a highly respected citizen. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning from the home of James Stone, with interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MAKE YOUR OWN LIQUORS AT HOME

Cincinnati, Ohio, November 30, 1913.—By a new method of concentration an expert distiller of this city has produced a concentrated extract with which any one can easily and quickly make in their own home any liquor, whiskey or cordial at a saving of over 50 per cent of the liquor dealers' prices. A few minutes does the work, requiring no apparatus, no boiling, no experience whatsoever. While the liquor making at home idea is new and startling in its possibilities, its legality has been carefully investigated by the highest authorities, and his method has been found to conform with the laws in every respect. This new method will be welcomed by thousands of people living in districts where it is now even impossible to obtain whiskey for medicinal purposes. Any one can now save the heavy expenses, high licenses and enormous profits of the saloon-keeper and liquor dealers, and can have in his home at any time a pure, nourishing liquor at a very low cost.

It is indeed a remarkable discovery, and he has already received thousands of letters of praise. Any one can try a full quart of his favorite liquor free by writing to M. W. Prickett, 8213 Universal Bldg., Cincinnati, O., and ask for his booklet, "Secrets of Making Liquors at Home," sent to any one sending their name and address.—Advertisement.
